Live News From Arago

Lillaverle Myers, seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Myers, had her tonsils removed Sunday morning in Coquille. She was quite sick for a few days but is recovering now.

Mrs. Nile Miller had the misfortune to slip while she was working Saturday and break her leg. The fracture was reduced Monday and she is resting as easily as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rowan and children, of Sixes, spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alex Barklow.

Mrs. Wallace Miller and daughters, Maxine and Colleen, arrived Sunday from Portland to visit relatives in this section for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Poland, Mrs. Emma Barklow and Fred Barklow, from Myrtle Point, were Sunday visitors at the Alex Barklow home.

Mrs. Oluf Aasen entertained in honor of her husband's birthday, with dinner at noon Sunday. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister and Mary Jean, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Webb and Charles.

Ophir Perdue, who was hurt last week in an automobile smash-up, was married in the Church of Christ in Myrtle Point Sunday immediately after the morning service. Dr. T. M. White performed the ceremony. His bride, Miss Bianca Clay, and her parents drove in from Roseburg that morning. The wedding march was played by Mrs. T. M. White. Janice Lafferty acted as flower girl and preceded the young couple to the altar. After the ceremony the members of the church turned their Rally Fellowship dinner into a wedding feast with a specially decorated table and huge wedding cake for the pair. They will make their home at the river ranch belonging to Mrs. S. L. Lafferty.

Mrs. Frank Lane was hostess at a birthday dinner Sunday noon in honor of her husband and Ed Myers, of Arago. Those enjoying the day were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Myers and Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Halter, Mrs. Lawrence Barklow, all of Arago, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sell and Miss Marvina Harrah.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parker and sons drove to Medford Saturday and visited with his mother, who is suffering from a sprained back. They returned Sunday evening.

The monthly missionary meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ray Parker Wednesday afternoon with the president, Mrs. C. A. Keltner in charge. After a short devotional service Mrs. George Gillespie and Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward gave interesting accounts of the Bible House and its history and accomplishments. Refreshments of sherbet and wafers were served by the hostess to the following, Mesdames Gordon Fleming, C. S. Webb, Gus Schroeder, Edith Woodward, Geo. Gillespie, Tyrrell Woodward, Oluf Aasen, Ernest Watkins, David Root, C. A. Keltner.

Price Schroeder came in from Corvallis Saturday morning, returning Sunday with his father and a trailer load of household goods. They expect this to be the last trip until Christmas. Mrs. Schroeder and the girls are well settled and pretty busy with their house not quite filled to capacity.

Mrs. Kari Shurter and three daughters, Mrs. Alfred Kellenberger and their guest, Mrs. Edwin Friend, of Portland, visited Mrs. Price Robinson Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller drove their son, Fred, to Camas Valley Sunday evening. He is driving truck from the Camp Bradford with headquarters just now near Camas. He spent the week-end with his parents.

Mrs. Joseph Bognuda was a business visitor in Coquille Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Randleman moved the last of their household goods from Mrs. Sarah Barklow's place where they have lived the past two years to their own ranch near Cooper's bridge on Saturday. Mrs. Barklow came in from Roseburg Tuesday evening and will live on her place until it is rented again.

Glenn Robinson spent the week-end at Ross Inlet visiting at the Lawrence Barklow place.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Doyle have moved into the house built by Robert Doyle. They have been living with his parents since their wedding a short time ago.

Mrs. M. Reagan and two small sons arrived Saturday from Modesto, California, to visit her aunt, Mrs. Gus Schroeder. Mrs. Gordon Fleming and children were Sunday dinner guests there in their honor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Burtis drove to Bandon Monday to spend a few days enjoying the beach, they will be in Arago again before they return to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lafferty and son, Allan, returned Monday afternoon from a three-day jaunt to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rackleff left Saturday afternoon for Portland where he will attend the Pacific International Stock Show, and she will visit relatives. Ellis Rackleff, their son, left Saturday with George Jenkins and the members of the Coquille poultry judging team which placed so highly at the state fair. They hope for equal success on this occasion. Ellis shipped several of his prize-winning white leghorns for the show.

Leatha Munford went to North Bend Saturday for a medical examination and Dr. Keizer operated on her that evening for a bad appendix. She is making a splendid recovery.

Mrs. Helen Baughl and Miss Pearl Robinson, who closed a series of meetings in Fairview last week, conducted both the morning and evening services at Arago Sunday. In the evening the subject of the sermon was "Homes of Yesterday and Today" on the text, "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." Miss Robinson sang, "I Will Not Forgetten Be." The evangelistic services started Monday evening in the play shed, which has been decorated and lighted for the occasion. A good crowd is present each evening and the services are varied and entertaining as well as beneficial. Her messages are especially for the young people. On Tuesday evening a truck from the SERA camp brought about fifteen men for the service.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Watkins came home Thursday afternoon from Bandon to harvest the potato crop. They returned to Bandon Monday, where they will stay until Mr. Watkins completes the house he is building for his daughter, Mrs. J. K. Baker, at their cranberry acreage south of Bandon.

Miss Lena Davis, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis, of lower Fishtap, was married to Wylie Embree, of the Fat Elk district on Monday by Justice Stanley. They will live at Fat Elk.

The full crew of loaders and truckers are working at top speed to get the last of the logs out from the Aasen camp. If nothing goes wrong and the weather holds they hope to have every log cut by the end of the week. Next year they will be ready to log the timber from the Lampa creek watershed.
