Club Notes and Other Social Activities

Honoring Miss Tessie Ruble, whose marriage to Bill Pook will occur tomorrow morning, Miss Hallie Knight, Mrs. Craig Perrott and Mrs. Everett Seeley were joint hostesses for a surprise shower at the home of Mrs. Julius Ruble Wednesday evening. Games of various kinds followed the main feature of the evening—the opening of the gifts—with refreshments later. The invited list included the following: Mrs. Josh Ruble, Mrs. Frank Pook, Mrs. Widner, Mrs. Cliff Judd, Mrs. Belmont Ireland, Mrs. Craig Perrott, Mrs. Stanley Stevens, Miss Madeline McKeown, Miss Faye Hurrell, Miss Marjorie Knight, Miss Geraldine McCarthy, Miss Katherine Chaney, Miss Vera Gaslin, Mrs. Ora Horning, Miss Maxine Johnson, Mrs. June Coleman, Miss Eleanor Smith, Miss Margaret Roche, Miss Noreen McKeown, Miss Olive Tillmann, Miss Alta Brant, Mrs. Harold Dora, Miss Audrey Kendall, Miss Dora Kendall, Miss Elizabeth Pierce, Miss Carol Young, Miss Esther Mansell, Miss Dulcie Foote, Mrs. Frances Detlefsen, Mrs. Hazel McKibbin, Miss Doris Williams, Miss Geraldine Minard and Lois Geider. The honor guest was presented with many lovely gifts.

On Monday evening a group of neighbors and friends complimented Miss Tessie with a gift shower. Among those participating were Mr. and Mrs. Sig Eckholm, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Standley, Mrs. Helen Anderson, Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. Robt. Chard, Miss Opal Langenberg, Miss Margaret Eckholm, Misses Marie and Eloise Standley, Carl and Geo. Eckholm, Orton Standley, Bill Pook and Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Schaar.

Mrs. Kennett Lawrence and Mrs. Roy Boober gave the second of their series of parties yesterday at the home of Mrs. Lawrence, with four tables of contract bridge in play. Mrs. Louis Charneski scored high for the afternoon with Mrs. C. W. Gano second high. Decorations and other suggestions of Halloween were everywhere in evidence. Enjoying the occasion were Mesdames Frank Greenough, M. Earl Wilson, Geo. Jenkins, W. S. Sicks, Ray Jeub, J. Arthur Berg, J. G. Toole, L. H. Hazard, J. E. Norton, C. W. Gano, Ralph Taylor, C. A. Rietman, Louis Charneski, Don McCune, A. L. Beck and J. A. Lamb.

This afternoon Mrs. Frank Greenough is entertaining a few friends for dessert lunch, with contract bridge to follow. Bidden were Mrs. J. Arthur Berg, Mrs. C. A. Rietman, Mrs. Muri Pettit, Mrs. R. A. Jeub, Mrs. Paul Workman, Mrs. Harry Slack, Mrs. Luckey Bonney, Mrs. Geo. Jenkins and Mrs. Louis Charneski.

Mrs. C. J. Fuhrman was hostess to the Justamere club on Tuesday this week, this being the first meeting of the club this fall. Following lunch a short business session was held which included election of officers. It was voted at this time, also, to change the meeting dates to the first and third Tuesday of the month. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. A. J. Sherwood the first Tuesday in November. Present at this week's session were Mesdames Lamb Pierce, Osmundson, Smith, Sicks, Greenough, Sherwood, Hazard, Hawkins, Folsom and Young.

Miss Peggy Wernich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Wernich, invited in a half dozen friends to share in her birthday dinner last Sunday evening, among whom were Miss Margaret Smith, Miss Ann Hawkins, Miss Patricia Peart, Miss Louise Woodyard and Miss Leville Walstrom.

The weekly contract bridge group met with Miss Carol Young on Tuesday evening. Members and guests were Miss Grace Ellingsen, Miss Marjorie Knight, Miss Katherine Jane Hassler, Miss Elizabeth Pierce, Miss Geneva Agostino, Mrs. Marfetta Powers and Mrs. Margarita Brodie. Mrs. Brodie won the traveling prize. Late refreshments were served.

Last Tuesday evening Mrs. Theo Clinton entertained her contract bridge club with the following members present: Mrs. Walter Litzenberger, Mrs. Donald Estes, Mrs. Orvin

Gant, Mrs. E. A. Walker, Mrs. Julius Ruble, Mrs. Kenneth Kistner and Mrs. T. S. Stevens, the latter holding high score for the evening. Mrs. Bob Smith, of Seldovia, Alaska, was a large guest and related many interesting experiences, covering the eight years she has resided there. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Estes.

Episcopal Guild ladies held their regular Wednesday meeting at the Parish hall with a good attendance and much sewing accomplished. Mrs. Ed. Lorenz and Mrs. Geo. Lorenz acted as hostesses. The following were present: Mesdames Tuttle, Robinson, Watson, Ingall, Pettit, Gillespie, Mansell, Hazard, Davis, Fuhrman, Sherwood, Thomas, Folsom, Taylor, Osmundson, Rosa and Vinton.

Miss Grace Ellingsen entertained with two tables of contract bridge at her home Wednesday evening, with Elizabeth Pierce, Katherine Jane Hassler, Mrs. Margarita Brodie, Vesta Miley, Marjorie McClellan, Mrs. Harold Santee, Carol Young and Vionta Sweet participating. Miss Elizabeth Pierce scored high at bridge. Refreshments and other games occupied the guests until a late hour.

To Be Married Tomorrow
The wedding of two of Coquille's well-known and popular young people who have grown to maturity in this city, will take place tomorrow forenoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Josh Ruble, when their daughter, Tessie, will become the bride of William Pook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pook.

Rev. W. S. Smith will officiate, using the impressive ring service. The couple, unattended, will take their vows in the presence of close relatives, only.

The bride has chosen a green suit with matching hat and black accessories for her wedding. Immediately following the ceremony the couple will leave for a trip by car, to California points, expecting to be away for two weeks. The best wishes of a host of friends accompany them.

Coquille Girl Honored
Miss Beryl Unsöld, who with her sister, Barbara, attends the Humboldt State College at Arcata, Calif., was chosen for the leading part in the play, "The Last of Mrs. Cheyne," which will be given in San Francisco, Oct. 24. Beryl made a very enviable reputation for herself when she took part in Coquille High plays a few years ago.

Beverly Hill Billies to Appear in Person on Liberty Theatre Stage Next Tuesday, Oct. 22

Glen Rice and some of his famous Beverly Hillbillies, renowned radio, stage and recording stars, credited with being the "originators of modern mountain music." At the top, Rice, veteran producer and director of stage presentations tells little Manuel, 16-year-old Navajo-Mexican yodeler, and Lola, young mountain girl who sings and dances about the wonders of the city. Below, (left) Red Hightower, rustic hill-billy singer and guitar player, whose opry house antics bring laughs galore, and (right) Louis, fiddle player/blacksmith's son. Ten of these romantic hill country entertainers will be seen in person on the stage during their appearance here.

Job's Daughters Go to Bandon

The Job's Daughters of Coquille were entertained by their Bandon members, assisted by Occidental chapter at the O. E. S. at Bandon, Monday evening, a large delegation of members, parents and friends going from here. Miss Evelyn Rider welcomed the visitors with a beautiful greetings in verse, and following the regular meeting the Bandon girls presented Mrs. Florence Sanford, guardian of the Bethel, with a beautiful basket of flowers in a very pretty ceremony, an expression of their appreciation of her untiring efforts in their behalf.

The Coquille girls, numbering about eighteen, gave a candlelight drill, singing "Our Bethel Light," with Miss Margaret Purvance doing the solo parts and they presented the worthy matron of Occidental chapter with a candelabra, Miss Leville Walstrom, Honored Queen, making the presentation. The serving of refreshments completed a very interesting and pleasant evening, the Bethel members appreciating especially the presence of O. E. S. and Masonic visitors.
