W. C. T. U. Had Interesting Program Last Friday

The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. Ora X. Maury Friday afternoon.

The corresponding secretary was instructed to write letters to Governor Martin and state representatives and senators protesting the use of money from liquor revenue being used to aid in the re-building of the state capitol at Salem. Also to write to congressmen in regard to a bill, H. R. 3739, introduced by Congressman U. S. Guyer, of Kansas, which provides for the prohibition of the manufacture, importation, exportation, sale, gift, purchase or possession of any spirituous, vinous, malt, fermented and all alcoholic liquors whatsoever for beverage purposes in the District of Columbia. Thousands of our finest young people serve as stenographers, clerks, etc., in the capital city and we have a special interest for their welfare.

Another bill of special interest is the Cullin bill which regulates the practice of block-booking and blind-selling of motion picture films. The report of the national motion picture director, Miss Maude Aldrich, was given by Mrs. Geo. Richmond, which said in part: "Our great organization has been actively working for federal regulation of the standards of production and federal supervision of the trade practices of the motion picture industry since 1925. A great host of organizations are now joining in the fight to eliminate block-booking and blind-selling which will break the monopolistic control of the producers and distributors and give the power of selection to the local exhibitor.

Because of the gravity of the problem and the imminent need the W. C. T. U. hopes that all organizations will speedily catch the larger vision of the task ably expressed by Senator Cullin when, after referring to the complete artistry of a few such pictures as "David Copperfield," he said, "There are in the ranks of Hollywood, men of genius and extraordinary capacity, who, if freed from some of the present influence, would blaze a trail to a real era where the screen would play a constructive part in the recreational and cultural field."

Realizing the truth of a statement by the national president, Mrs. Smith, who said, "Never forget that prayer is the one weapon we can wield of which our opponents can have no knowledge," the local plans to stress more the spiritual life, in this year's work. Mrs. Belle Elwood emphasized this nicely in her devotional talk, taken from Proverbs 31, when she gave thoughts about an ancient homemaker.

Mrs. Farr, who attended the state convention at Corvallis, asked that bright cushion covers, rugs and pillows be given to the Children's Farm Home at Christmas time. The children lack colorful things in the home, and these articles would help so much, and are needed. Coos county has a number of children at the home at the present time; help remember them at Christmas time.

The membership campaign for this year will be the plan followed so successfully last year, which added thousands of new members to the ranks of the W. C. T. U. "For God and Home in Every Land" is the motto adopted by Frances E. Willard for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

The hostess served refreshments honoring the local treasurer, Mrs. Harriet Schaer, it being her birthday. The next meeting will be with Mrs. C. C. Farr Dec. 13, the theme being, "The peace of the world will not come through warships; it will come through friendships."

Oregon Historical Society Offers Prizes for Essays

The Oregon Historical Society has selected "The Discovery of the Columbia River" as the subject for the 1936 C. C. Beekman essay contest. The prizes offered are four in number, viz., first, sixty dollars; second, fifty dollars; third, forty dollars; and fourth, thirty dollars; and will be awarded for the best four original essays on the above named subject written and submitted by girls or boys over fifteen years of age and under eighteen years of age, attending any public or private school, academy, seminary, college, university, or other education institution within the state of Oregon. Each of the four prize winners will also receive a handsome bronze medal.

The conditions governing the competition are as follows:

- The essay submitted in competition must not exceed two thousand words.
- The essay may be in handwriting or in typewritten form, preferably upon paper of commercial letter size, either ruled or unruled, the several sheets being numbered consecutively and written on one side only, with blank space of about one and one-quarter inches at top and left-hand margin.
- The essay shall be accompanied by a separate sheet containing the name and post office address of the writer, the date of his or her birth, and the name of the school attended.
- There shall also be delivered with the essay a certificate signed by the principal or a teacher of the educational institution attended, stating that the writer of the essay is a student attending the same.
- In order to be considered in competition the essay must be delivered, by mail or in person, to the Oregon Historical Society, Public Auditorium, 235 S. W. Market Street, Portland, Oregon, not later than Monday, March 18, 1936.

All competitive essays will be judged according to their general merit and excellence; but the judges will also take into consideration, in passing thereon, neatness of manuscript, accurate orthography, correct grammar and composition, and purity and clarity of diction.

The Oregon State Library in Salem has a reading list or bibliography upon the above named subject, which will be sent to any Oregon student on request.
