Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been duly appointed executor of the estate of Sarah L. Wood, deceased, and all persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified that they are required to present same duly verified, with proper vouchers therefor, to the undersigned, at the law office of Harry A. Slack, in Coquille, Coos County, Oregon, within six months from the date of this notice.

Dated this 11th day of December, 1935.

O. C. Sanford,
Executor of the Estate of Sarah L. Wood, Deceased. 4815

ARAGO

George Gillespie is confined to his home again with a relapse from the flu.

Patty and Arlan Shaw were ill for several days last week but are up again.

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Gus Schroeder on Thursday to do the final sewing for the bazaar to be given Friday, December 13. The things will be put on display for the first time on that day. Articles that are left will be available at the store afterwards. Those present Thursday were Mesdames Gordon Fleming, Frank Burbank, Harriet Burbank, J. L. Burtis, John Carl, C. S. Webb, Ernest Watkins, Lawrence Rackleff, Gus Schroeder, Leon Paul.

Wednesday, the annual meeting of the missionary society was held at the home of Mrs. J. L. Burtis, who had charge of the program. Mrs. S. C. McAllister sang a solo, Mrs. David Root read an article concerning slave traders and the work among them, Mrs. Gillespie read a report from India, Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward gave the twenty-third psalm in the Scottish metre, Mrs. Stanley Halter and Mrs. Wayne Woodward sang a duet and Mrs. Ernest Watkins read an account of the missionary work of Albert Schweitzer. Mrs. Nile Miller was elected president for the coming year to succeed Mrs. C. A. Keltner, who has held the office most efficiently the past four years but felt it was impossible to keep it longer. Mrs. George Gillespie was re-elected vice president and Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Those present were Mrs. Ed Myers, Mrs. Stanley Halter, Mrs. Ernest Watkins, Mrs. Wayne Woodward, Mrs. Nile Miller, Mrs. David Root, Mrs. Oluf Aasen, Mrs. S. C. McAllister, Mrs. J. L. Burtis, Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Miller in January.

B. B. Watkins, who has spent most of the winter in Bandon with his daughter, Mrs. J. K. Baker, returned to his home Monday afternoon. He plans to stay here until after Christmas.

The sixth grade composed of Anne Watkins, Alvina Billings, Junior Gulstrom, Ethan Parker and Laura Bernice Lillie, were hosts to the fourth and third grades and several guests after a program given by the entire grade school in Miss Webb's room recently. They served orangeade, orange jello and candy. The program was composed of drills, songs and recitations by the primary grades, readings and a play by the intermediate room and recitations and a play by the upper grades. Every child in the grades had some part in it. In the two upper rooms the program was planned, selected and executed by the students. Mrs. Ray and Miss Webb supervised only. This method is splendid to develop originality and initiative among the pupils. The program was good and the teachers are to be congratulated on the results of their training. Miss Scott's primary children entered into their part of the program with a zest and their songs were especially good.

Oliver and Harvey Myers drove to North Bend on Sunday to attend the funeral service for little Sammy Edinger, eight-month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Isela Edinger, of Empire, who died of double pneumonia on Thursday. Mrs. Edinger, formerly Rohana Stinson, attended the Arago school, living at the L. A. Myers the year she was here. Burial was in the Norway cemetery and several friends met the party there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Damron and Thelma drove to Powers and spent the day Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stallard, the occasion being a birthday celebration for Mrs. Stallard, who is Mrs. Damron's sister.

J. W. Barnett and L. W. McAdam are raising and repairing the foundation of Oluf Aasen's house this week.

Shelby McAllister, of Langlois, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Edgmon have moved from Coquille to make their home with Mrs. Daisy Doyle, Mrs. Edgmon's mother, for the winter.

Sam Root is driving truck again after a brief vacation which he spent visiting in California. Wayne Woodward drove for him while he was away.

Glenn Collier suffered a very painful accident last Thursday when putting "kickers" on a cow. He was knocked to one, side his nose broken and his face badly bruised. The injury has given him several days of severe headache and several trips to the doctor to have the injured member treated, to prevent permanent disfigurement.

Rev. G. A. Gray, of Coquille, conducted the morning church service at Arago Sunday. Mrs. Harriet Burbank sang the solo. In the evening Mrs. S. C. McAllister led the Christian Endeavor meeting, and Melden Carl, of Coquille, delivered the evening message; the girls' trio gave the special music. Rev. Harold Minter, of Coquille, will preach in the morning, December 15. The Junior Endeavorers will have charge of the Endeavor meeting and Mrs. Naomi Robison will deliver the evening message.

The high school basket ball team played practice games with Port Orford last Friday evening. The second team consisting of Ellis Rackleff, Clyde Lillie, Alvin Fredenberg, Alton Billings and Stephen Aasen, played a fast game and won thirteen to twelve. The first team was not so fortunate, coming out with the small end of a twenty to forty-three score. Both Port Orford teams were larger than the Arago teams and were a fine advertisement for Curry county. A return set of games will be played in Port Orford on December 13. The student body served sandwiches and chocolate to the visitors and the local teams after the play was over. The new satin suits of the visitors were one of the features of the evening. They were of an unusually good-looking design as well as of different material.

The costumes for the school entertainment to be given Friday afternoon, December 20, are well under way and the grade school guarantees its part of the program to be decorative as well as entertaining. The students will give a play with characters from Mother Goose as well as from Fairyland. Maxine Rackleff is Queen of the Fairies, Mary Jean McAllister will be Spirit of Christmas, Everett Doyle will be Santa Claus. The high school is preparing music for the program.

Albert Gulstrom returned to his home on Tuesday after visiting in Tillamook for ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strang, of Eureka, California, spent Monday as the guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Collier.

J. L. Burtis is recovering from an attack of sinus infection and flu.

Mrs. C. A. Keltner is not able to be out but is improving slowly from her illness.

Vernon Davis, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis, of Fishtrap, was married in North Bend to Miss Thelma Leis last Thursday. They are making their home in Myrtle Point where Vernon is employed at the Jack and Jill Cafe.

Harold Fish, youngest son of Mr.

and Mrs. Frank Fish, of Arago, is in the Knife hospital recovering nicely from an appendix operation.

Wiley Cornwell has returned to his home and is improving rapidly from his recent operation. Gano Cornwell is driving the school bus during his illness.

E. E. Cooper and Miss Anne Parks, of Pleasant Hill, came in for the W. B. Doyle funeral on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lafferty and Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watkins and Mary, Jean and Anne, were Tuesday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hampton, who were celebrating their twenty-fourth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. B. B. Watkins returned to her home Tuesday evening after spending more than a month visiting in Portland, Salem, Corvallis and Eugene.

Bridge Happenings

Mrs. Dwight Culver and Mrs. Chas. Mack were joint hostesses Tuesday afternoon at a lovely shower, at the home of the former, for Miss Constance Knight, whose marriage to Theodore Lund is to take place on Dec. 14. Many beautiful and useful gifts, accompanied by clever rhymes and best wishes, were received by the bride elect. At the close of the delightful afternoon, dainty refreshments of fruit salad, cake and coffee were served to those present, who were Mesdames Frank Culver, Orin Lett, W. A. Lett, John Dunckley, Chas. Johnson, Elmer Magill, Vern Magill, Cora Axe, Mike Fetch, Frank Herker, H. A. Hatfield, A. O. Hooton, Lawrence Knight, Dan Cribbins, W. R. Brown and Elise Lamp, Misses Nadine Ellis, Lou Hooton and Charlotte Cribbins, the hostesses, Mrs. Culver and Mrs. Mack, and the guest of honor, Constance Knight.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Shields returned to Jacksonville Friday after spending a few days with relatives at Bridge and Marshfield.

The regular meeting of the Grange Friday evening was well attended. The resignations of Mrs. Frank Culver as lecturer and Mrs. Chas. Johnson as lady assistant steward were accepted. Mrs. Johnson were elected to the office of lecturer, and Miss Helen Magill as lady assistant steward.

ard. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. John Dunkley, Misses Nadine Ellis, Maude Hooton and Mae Hatcher attended the monthly executive meeting of Myrtle Christian Endeavor Union in Coquille Sunday afternoon. Miss Hatcher remained in Coquille for a few days' visit at the Ernest L. Benham home.

The A. D. Thompson family was over from their new home at Coos River Sunday, and Maxine, who had been staying with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Farmer, since the family moved a few weeks ago, went home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pomeroy and son, Lamar, of Coquille, were weekend guests at the Dwight Culver home.

The Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening will be a leadership one. The topic is "Keeping Christ in Christmas."

There's a widespread epidemic of measles among the children and young folks of the community. In the intermediate room at school Tuesday there were only 15 present, out of an enrollment of 36, and many are absent from the other rooms.

The Bridge Grange was represented at the Jubilee in Coquille Saturday by the following: Mr. and Mrs. Vern Magill, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Culver, Constance Knight, Mary Lou and Evert Culver, Mrs. Frank Culver, Mrs. Elmer Magill and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hatfield.

J. L. Ellis will preach the second sermon Sunday morning of a series of sermons on "Searching the Scriptures." This one will be "How to Search the Scriptures."

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.
