Club Notes and Other

Social Activities

Mrs. Ralph Cochran was hostess to her contract bridge club of two tables, last Friday evening, with the following participating in play Mrs. Don McCune, Mrs. Chas. Haglund, Mrs. Don Estes, Mrs. Frank Thrift, Mrs. Harold Gould, Miss Gloria Getz and Mrs. Geo. McClellan. Mrs. McClellan made high score for the evening.

The Monday night contract bridge club members were guests this week of Mrs. H. A. Young, games following the seven o'clock dinner. High score honors for the evening fell to Mrs. Hal Pierce, Mrs. J. L. Smith being the winner of the traveling prize. Members present included Mesdames J. A. Lamb, Bert Folsom, Geo. Lorenz, Muri Pettit, E. W. Lorenz, J. L. Smith, Ray Miller and Hal Pierce. The club members surprised the hostess with a dish towel shower. Mrs. Ethel Low, formerly of Coquille and now living in Grants Pass, was a guest later in the evening.

The Job's Daughters will hold their regular meeting on next Monday evening at the Masonic hall. There will be initiatory work at this time, Miss Ann Hawkins receiving the degrees.

Mrs. Edith McNelly was hostess to her contract bridge club on Monday evening, the guests being invited for early evening supper. Mrs. Bert Kay held high score for games. Members and guests present were Mesdames John Aasen, Geo. Johnson, A. B. Collier, Stewart Norton, Bert Kay, Mary McKeown, T. B. Currie and Ethel Low. Mrs. Norton will be the next hostess to the club, in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. U. E. McClary, Mrs. Fred McNelly and Mrs. A. B. Collier motored to Marshfield Tuesday evening to participate in the world's bridge olympics tournament held at the home of Mrs. Fannie Lyons, bridge instructor. The four going from Coquille report that the session was most interesting.

The Justamere club ladies spent a very pleasant afternoon Tuesday with Mrs. L. H. Hazard, with needlework following the one o'clock luncheon. The list of those present included: Mesdame A. J. Sherwood, Bert Folsom, F. L. Greenough, Hal Pierce, F. A. Lamb, Roy Wernich, W. S. Sickels, C. J. Fuhrman, J. L. Smith, Nels Edmundson and H. A. Young. The club will meet next with Mrs. Lamb.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Gray were hosts to their Tuesday evening duplicate contract bridge club this week, the two tables including Mr. and Mrs. Dave Rackleff, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Pierce and Mr. and Mrs. Gray.

The Episcopal Guild ladies met in regular session Wednesday afternoon at the Parish house with Mrs. A. L. Beck and Mrs. Louis Charneski, hostesses. Plans were completed for the Geo. Washington card party, which is to be a dessert luncheon at 1:30 o'clock on February 19th. The white elephant shower planned for this week resulted in the addition of many useful articles for the kitchen and dining room. Ladies present for needlework were Mesdames R. M. Thomas, F. L. Greenough, H. A. Young, C. T. Sellig, J. A. Lamb, Geo. Lorenz, Ed. Lorenz, L. Rosa, C. L. Tuttle, Jas. Watson, L. H. Hazard, Don Gillespie, E. L. Vinton, Wm. Mansell, C. K. Norcott, A. J. Sherwood, J. W. Laird, C. J. Fuhrman, Bert Folsom and Muri Pettit.

The dinner contract bridge group which meets the first Tuesday of each month, spent a most enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chaney this week. Members present were Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Greenough, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Stewart and the hosts. Card honors went to Mrs. Stewart.

Mrs. W. S. Sickels entertained her Thursday contract bridge group this week with dessert lunch at one o'clock, two tables being in play. Members and guests for the afternoon included Mesdames J. A. Lamb, F. L. Greenough, Geo. Chaney, R. L. Stewart, L. H. Hazard, L. F. Compton and M. Earl Wilson.

The Sanford Heights Needleworkers assembled at the home of Mrs. John Martin this week, the neighborhood group being composed of Mesdames L. P. Fugelson, Grant Wilcox, Jack Hultin, Sam Arnold, Sr., Fred Wheaton, Fred Nosler, Aaron Wilson and Geo. Matney. Mrs. Lund was a special guest for the occasion. Mrs. Matney will be the next hostess for the club.

Mrs. Ray Thomas, Mrs. Roy Boobier, Mrs. Claire Gray and Mrs. Dave Rackleff, being low score members for the series of games just ended in their contract bridge club, entertained their more lucky sisters with dessert lunch, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Wednesday evening, followed by a theatre party. The guests at the party were Mrs. Hal Pierce, Mrs. Robt. Stewart, Mrs. John Aasen and Mrs. Bert Folsom.

The Young Women's contract bridge club met this week with Miss Geneva Agostino. Participating in games were: Miss Grace Ellingsen, Miss Carol Young, Miss Marjorie Knight, Miss Lena Williams, Miss Marjorie McClellan, Mrs. Clifford Judd and Mrs. Darrel Brodie. Miss Williams scored high for the evening play.

Mrs. E. A. Walker was hostess to her card club, which met on Tuesday evening this week. Members, all of whom were present, consist of Mesdames Don Estes, Walter Litzberger, Fred Watson, T. S. Stevens, Kenneth Kistner, Julius Ruble, Orvin Gant and Theo. Clinton. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Watson.

Choral Club Concert Feb. 25

With a chorus of thirty mixed voices and the assistance of Miss Muriel Dae, violinist, and Miss Mary K. Loomis, reader, the Choral Club, under the direction of Mrs. Maud Skaggs Woodyard, will present a most enjoyable evening of entertainment in the auditorium of the Pioneer Methodist Church at 8:00 p. m. on Tuesday, February 25. The public is cordially invited.

Chorus numbers with a wide range of appeal have been chosen to make this first musicale unusually attractive, and Miss Dae, with her violin, needs no introduction to Coquille's music lovers. Already many groups have been delighted by the interpretations of Miss Loomis.

At the door a silver offering will be accepted.

The next rehearsal will be at the home of Mrs. Skeels.

Wins State Championship

Miss Joy Smith, niece of Mrs. A. N. Gould and Mrs. Inez Chase, of Coquille, and daughter of Mrs. Florence Smith, of The Dalles, who grew to womanhood here and has many friends in this section, won first place in the women's division of the state extemporé speaking contest at Albany last Thursday evening, as a representative of Pacific University at Forest Grove where she is a student.

The general topic for the women's division was, "Our Present Relief Program." Miss Smith drew the subtopic, "The Lost Generation," being given one hour in which to prepare the ten-minute talk.
