HIGH SOCIETY GOES FOR FANCY FIXINGS

Head Ornaments and Dramatic Colors Prevail.

Fashionable events that mark the opening of the New York social season always afford fashion observers a chance to look for confirmation of their views on what styles are going to "take."

The fashion honors this year go to gold-lame-for-fabric, regal-colors-for-velvet wraps, matching lipstick and nail polish for cosmetics, arrangements of feathers for headdress and Schiaparelli's false faces on sticks for accessories.

Color ran riot this year, with most of New York's social and fashion leaders contributing to the bouquet. All the regal wines and purples of the Renaissance were there, with greens and a large number of bright reds providing the contrast. Brilliant fingernails were the rule all through the audience. In most cases matching ruby lips. Gold lame was used for several of the smartest gowns, and was seen often with a vivid velvet wrap. Small, flirtatious feather fans looked smart.

Practically every head was adorned with some kind of decoration. Colorful toques in striped lame or velvet to contrast with the dress were numerous.

Zymurgy

Zymurgy is a branch of technological chemistry treating of processes in which fermentation is the principal feature, as brewing, making of yeast, and wine-making.

STURDY SUEDE

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

By all means if you are interested in voguish leather fashions you must have a sturdy suede jacket. These jackets, in rich stunning colors, are lending the field for winter sports. The model at the top has gridiron checks patterned via embossing, on the mosaic rust suede leather. Virginia Reid wears this new vogue which originated in Hollywood. The jacket below, also checked in gridiron fashion, has triangular shaped pocket flaps which button with an all-around belt and a trick collar that can be worn up or down.

Black, Wine Red, Blue Are Favorite Colors for Town

Once again black is a favorite town color for fall, with dark blue, wine red and mustard green likewise shown. Brown and beige appear more often in sports frocks.

There are a number of black crepe frocks designed with slender waists and big sleeves just short of full length, which are finished with striking accents. One has a cluster of mother-of-pearl leaves at the base of the draped neckline, another is trimmed with white silk braid frogs.

Blue and White

A good-looking white crepe sports dress has a velvet top coat to go with it, of robin's egg blue. The belt of the dress matches this in color.

Our Emotional Nature

Our emotional nature lives by love and self-surrender; if these die, it is dead.

Inhabitants of Alaska

Alaska's great area is inhabited by about 30,000 white people, 18,000 Indians and 12,000 Eskimos.

Square Meal

Never try to reduce by taking quack patent medicines, which are worthless and may do you permanent harm. If you are overweight, avoid excess in eating and procure from your physician a scientific diet regimen. A square meal can also be a properly balanced meal.

DRUGGISTS STATIONERS

The Word "Allergy"

The word "allergy" is derived from the Greek and means altered energy or altered activity, or altered reactivity, according to a writer in the New York Times. The allergic individual reacts differently to certain stimuli with which he comes in contact. What is harmless for the non-allergic person causes severe symptoms in the allergic patient. This definition allows considerable leeway in interpretation. Although arising largely from a study of anaphylactic phenomena in animals, the conception of allergy as altered reactivity of the body might be stretched to cover almost any deviation from functional normality.

Most Valuable Harbor

Pago Pago is the most valuable harbor in the South Pacific and possibly in the entire Pacific ocean. It was ceded in 1872 by the native king to the United States for a naval and coaling station.

Molecules in the Air

At sea level, at freezing, there are 27,000,000,000,000,000 molecules of air in each cubic centimeter of space.
