"Your Ideal Meeting Place"

B. P. W. Entertained Seniors

The Business and Professional Women's Club met Monday night at the Pioneer Hall. After a short business session the club entertained the senior girls of the Coquille high school with an Easter party. The program was in charge of the Health committee.

The next meeting of the club, April 20, will be in charge of the Program committee with Belle Gould as chairman. There will be a study of Oregon's products, arts and science, musical composers, authors, artists and cartoonists given by the four past presidents of the club. Ruth Beyers will speak on artists and cartoonists, Inez Chase, authors, Leona Bryant, music composers, and Bertha Smith, products, arts and science. Aside from these there will be original poems by Mrs. Frances Holmstrom and Mrs. Pearl Ellingsen.

Past Grands Club Meets

The Past Grands Club of Mamie Rebekah lodge, No. 20, met at the home of Mrs. Inez R. Chase last Friday evening. The club surprised Mrs. Jennie Price, who recently lost her home by fire, with a miscellaneous shower. Those present were: Mesdames Myrtle Benham, Jennie Price, W. E. Bosserman, Birdie Skeels, Ula Leach, E. M. Kay, John Aasen, Estelle Dunn, Walter Oerding, Ora X. Maury, A. N. Gould, Hester Holverstott, Geo. Johnson, Harry Ross, Jas. Richmond, H. S. Norton, Fred Schaefer, he hostesses, Mrs. Chase and Mrs. Jack Leach. The club planned to have a cooked food sale April 18. The place will be announced later.

Missionary Society Meeting

The missionary society of the Church of Christ will meet at the church Thursday, April 16, at two o'clock for the regular program and business meeting. The study topic will be "Japan, the land of the rising sun." Scripture lesson Matt. 4:19, will be read by Mrs. Maude Bean. Interesting talks will be given about missionaries and their work in Japan and Korea. Hostesses will be Mrs. Farr, Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Maury.

Club Notes and Other

Social Activities

The fashion show and party, given under the auspices of the ways and means committee of Beulah Chapter, O. E. S., last Tuesday was a most successful and entertaining affair, being held in the chapter room of the Masonic hall, which was attractively decorated with potted plants and greenery, presenting a pretty setting for the display of spring styles which included modeling of suits, coats, dresses, evening gowns and even a few outing togs. Participating in the affair were Miss Jessie Dean, Miss Marianne Axtell, Miss Virginia Tillmann, Miss Freda Wilson, Mrs. Alice Wilson, Mrs. Eleanor McClellan and little Miss Jane Newdall. During and following the style show, contract bridge and sewing occupied the afternoon hours, there being thirteen tables of the former, with Mrs. Geo. Chaney holding high score, Mrs. Frank Thrift, second, and Mrs. Theo. Clinton, third. In the needlework group Mrs. J. D. Rankin was awarded the prize. The ladies in charge of the afternoon were Mrs. Ruth Axtell, fashions; Mrs. Ann Mansell, games; Mrs. Pauline Pettit, refreshments; Mrs. Catherine Ruble, decorations, and Mrs. Mildred Hartley, musician. Quite a number of out-of-town visitors were present from both Marshfield and Myrtle Point.

Following the regular meeting of Beulah chapter, O. E. S., last evening, a beautiful Easter service of music and scriptural readings was held. Floral decorations, featuring Easter lilies were especially beautiful.

The Justamere club ladies met on Monday with Mrs. Bert Folsom, for luncheon and needlework. Attending were Mesdames O. C. Sanford, E. E. Johnson, C. J. Fuhrman, Nels Omsundson, J. A. Lamb, M. O. Hawkins, W. S. Sickels, F. L. Greenough, J. L. Smith, A. J. Sherwood, Hal W. Pierce, Clarence Tuttle, Geo. Folsom and Miss Florence Folsom.

Mrs. Ed Lorenz was hostess to her contract bridge club Monday evening. Following seven o'clock dinner, the following participated in games: Mesdames J. A. Lamb, J. L. Smith, Muri Pettit, Edna Hartson, Bert Folsom, Geo. Lorenz, Ray Miller and Hal Pierce. Mrs. Pettit scored high for the evening and Mrs. Pierce won the traveling prize.

The younger group of contract bridge players met with Miss Carl Young Wednesday evening. Those present were: Miss Marjorie McClellan, Miss Geneva Agostino, Miss Lena Williams, Miss Grace Ellingsen, Miss Katherine Jane Hassler, Miss Beryl Unsold and Mrs. Margarita Brodie. Miss Ellingsen held high score for the evening.

The Wednesday duplicate contract bridge group met with Mrs. C. M. Gray this week, with all members present, which include Mrs. M. R. Thomas, Mrs. Hal Pierce, Mrs. R. L. Stewart, Mrs. Bert Folsom, Mrs. Roy Boober, Mrs. John Aasen and Mrs. Dave Rackleff.

Job's Daughters again invite their parents and friends to attend their Easter services following the regular Bethel meeting on Monday evening at the Masonic hall. The services will begin about 8:30 o'clock.

The Episcopal Guild met as usual on Wednesday for business and sewing. Mrs. M. F. Pettit and Mrs. Ed Lorenz acting as hostesses. Other guests and members present were Mesdames C. L. Tuttle, Wm. Mansell, Geo. Sherwood, L. H. Hazard, C. T. Selbig, A. J. Sherwood, Jas. Watson, A. L. Beck, C. J. Fuhrman, E. L. Vinton, Don Gillespie and J. S. Barton.

Bridge Dedication to Deputy Old and New

When the big civic parade of the Coos Bay bridge celebration occurs during June 5, 6, 7, the host of visitors that will throng North Bend will see the most novel line-up the coastal district has ever staged, on Saturday, June 6th.

Every historical feature of southwestern Oregon is going to be seen, and the chief attraction will be the transportation facilities of the primitive days, down to last-minute perfection in motor uses. Oxen which were the first to help the early settler transport his goods, haul logs from the forest, and pave the way for faster traffic of the horse days, will lead the parade and six horses will draw the old pioneer day stage coach Capt. Edgar Simpson is bringing from California.

Old wagons and buggies are being searched for and automobiles, from the first introduction in the coast district, down to the best now being offered will be seen. People with oldest autos which will run are asked to contact the general bridge committee of North Bend.

These are principal features, but the parade will be of a nature that will be showing everything of interest that the area furnishes.
