Mrs. Sarah Williams returned home from a trip to Portland, where she visited relatives and friends.

Fred Schmidt entered the Mast Hospital Monday to receive treatment for an injured back received in the Morrison and Kerber camp.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Peck, of Medford, were Myrtle Point visitors Sunday afternoon. They spent Sunday night and Monday in Gold Beach and left for Medford Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hein and family moved Sunday from the Oscar Parrish farm on the Roseburg highway to the George Hall farm on Catching Creek, where Mr. Hein has employment.

The Woman's Club of Myrtle Point held its annual Pioneer meeting Monday afternoon in the Presbyterian church parlors. Mrs. Elmer Russell, president of the club, had charge of the meeting, which was opened by singing "Oregon My Oregon." Mrs. E. C. Barker, chairman of the program committee, had prepared a splendid program, as follows: several old songs by Mrs. Marlin Evans and Mrs. Cronk. A reading, "The Wedding," by Ernestine Luthy. Mrs. Mary Holt and Mrs. Sarah Houghton gave very interesting talks on pioneer days. The Junior Woman's Club gave an old-fashioned style show of garments worn a good many years ago. Those taking part were Mrs. Harold Carver, Mrs. Raleigh Green, Mrs. Eugene Laird, Mrs. Austin Dodge, Mrs. E. Rickard and Miss Imogene Burgess. A prize to the couple being married the longest went to Mr. and Mrs. F. Lundy. Names were drawn for prizes to those over 70 years old. These went to Mrs. E. Hoffman, Jim Brown, E. T. Jones and Mrs. Mary Barker. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Barker, who have been living in Glendale, Oregon, the past two years, moved back to Myrtle Point this week.

Miss Genevieve Rudolph was able to leave the Mast Hospital Sunday afternoon and go to the home of Mrs. Woods, where she will spend a few days.

Graveside services were held Thursday at the Norway cemetery for George Dale Mast, who passed away in Klamath Falls on Monday, April 16. Mr. Mast was born and raised in this section but for the last few years has resided in Klamath Falls. He leaves to mourn their loss his two sisters, Mrs. James McCulloch and Mrs. Tike Cook, of this city, beside other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Stemmler and daughter, Barbara, returned to their home at Glendale, Oregon, after a few days' visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. McKee have gone to Yakima, Washington, for a visit with relatives and friends. Paul Davis has charge of the Fourier's market during the McKees' absence.

A stock shower was given Friday afternoon for Mrs. Fred Snyder at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. Butler. Many useful and lovely gifts were received by the honored guest. At the close of the afternoon refreshments of cake and punch were served. The invited guests were Mesdames A. E. Snyder, Cliff Wilson, W. King, W. W. Deyoe, Martha Mulkey, M. Kroeger, Giles, Harris, R. F. Garrett, Reuben Rouppe, Florence Guerin, Nannie Barklow, E. Cupinske and Miss Ruth Kroeger.
