Social Activities

One of the successful and lovely parties of the season was that given by the Job's Daughters, under the supervision of the council of the organization, last Wednesday evening at the Masonic hall. The dinner dessert was served at the small tables, attractive with potted petunia bloom, which combined with the hawthorne and rosebuds used about the room presented a colorful and pretty scene. Following, dessert, various, card games, including contract bridge, pedro, monopoly, and "500" were played. The beautiful quilt offered as a door prize was awarded to Ralph Taylor. Luckey L. Bonney received the inlaid checkerboard, also a door prize, made by Ernest Purvance. Other prize winners were Geo. H. Chaney and Mrs. Orvin Gant, for contract; Clyde E. Niles for pedro; Harold Varney for "500."

On Monday evening of next week, the parents of Job's Daughters are being entertained with a six o'clock banquet at the hall, which will be followed by a splendid program upstairs after their regular session.

Attending the state convention of B. P. W., which convenes in Roseburg from Friday morning until Sunday noon, from the Coquille organization are Mrs. Georgia Richmond, president; Mrs. Bertha Smith and Mrs. Leona Bryant, the latter holding the state office of second vice president. The national president of B. P. W., Miss Charl Ormond Williams, is also expected to be present from Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Bert Kay was hostess to her Monday evening bridge club, dessert lunch preceding games. Members present were Mesdames Stewart Norton, John Aasen, A. B. Collier, Fred McNelly and Geo. Johnson, with Mrs. Mary McKeown and Mrs. Frank Thrift substitute guests. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. McNelly.

Mrs. J. E. Axtell entertained the members of the Eadrien club at the Coquille hotel Monday for luncheon, the ladies later going to the Axtell home for their afternoon of sewing. Present were Mrs. E. A. Walker, Mrs. John Aasen, Mrs. Earl Nosler, Mrs. Geo. Johnson, Mrs. W. E. Bosserman and Mrs. Axtell.

The Wednesday duplicate contract bridge group were guests this week of Mrs. John Aasen, for one o'clock dinner, the following ladies being present: Mrs. M. R. Thomas, Mrs. R. L. Stewart, Mrs. D. E. Rackleff, Mrs. Bert Kay, Mrs. Claire Gray, Mrs. Roy Boober and Mrs. Bert Folsom.

Mrs. E. E. Johnson, Mrs. M. O. Hawkins and Mrs. J. E. Norton were joint hostesses this afternoon, Friday, to the J. G. W. club members, at the home of Mrs. Norton. The membership list includes: from Marshfield, Mrs. Stewart Lyons, Mrs. Marvin Lyons, Mrs. L. A. Liljeqvist, Mrs. C. McC. Johnson and Mrs. Chas. Endicott; from Bandon, Mrs. J. E. Walstrom, and from Coquille, Mesdames D. C. Sanford, J. A. Lamb, J. L. Smith, C. J. Fuhrman, M. O. Hawkins, H. A. Young, Bert Folsom, A. V. Gould, Birdie Skeels, Henry Lorenz, Lloyd Rosa, Geo. Lorenz and Ed Lorenz.

Several ladies of the Justamere needlework club spent the day at the Lamb Bandon beach home last Tuesday, those in attendance being Mesdames Bert Folsom, C. J. Fuhrman, W. S. Sickle, F. L. Greenough, J. L. Smith, E. E. Johnson, Nels Osmundson, H. A. Young and J. A. Lamb.

Mrs. Muri Pettit entertained her Monday evening dinner bridge club this week, the two tables including Mrs. J. A. Lamb, Mrs. Ed Lorenz, Mrs. Ray Miller, Mrs. Hal Pierce,

Junior Club Members to Bandon

At the invitation of the Bandon Junior Woman's club, a number of young women from the local group motored to Bandon Wednesday evening for a picnic supper held at the caddy house of the Westmost Golf club. Bridge and Monopoly supplied entertainment following supper. Those from Coquille enjoying the party included Mesdames Don McEnery, Gregory Franzwa, Joe Sayre, Elbert Schroeder, Floyd McDonald, George McClellan, Harold Gould, Chas. Haglund, Misses Catherine Wernich, Norlene McKeown, Irene and Blanche Sandon.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Coquille Teachers Entertained

An attractive event held last Saturday afternoon was the tea with which the members of the executive board of the Parents and Teachers Association entertained the members of the school board and teachers of the Coquille schools at the home of Mrs. J. E. Axtell on First street. The rooms were decorated with hawthorn and floor bouquets of rhododendrons. Receiving were Mrs. Axtell and Mrs. J. Loy Stacer. Alternating at the tea table were Mrs. Bert Folsom, Mrs. Keith Leslie, Mrs. D. D. Dale, Mrs. A. L. Beck. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Bonnie Dutton and Mrs. Dale.

Don't Be Sick

needlessly when all around you are people who praise this tonic highly

A. H. Berens, Sumner, Wn., writes, "Send me three bottles of Old Cherokee Tonic, I am unable to obtain any here."

I used your "Old Cherokee Tonic" last fall. To anyone run down or needing a tonic I can cheerfully recommend "Old Cherokee Tonic" for it is a great health builder.—N. L. Cottrell, Portland, Oregon

E. H. Pelk, Oswego, Ore., says, "I could not sleep nights, had no appetite in run down condition. Old Cherokee Tonic... did me a lot of good."

A bottle when mixed makes about 2 gallons, 1 pint

— THIS COUPON WORTH 46c —

This coupon, if presented at once, together with only 25 cents in cash, is good for a $1.00 bottle of OLD CHEROKEE IRON TONIC, and INTERNAL CLEANSER.

After using a bottle strictly according to printed directions on it if you do not think it worth at least 10 times what you paid for it, you can bring back the empty bottle and we will cheerfully refund the 25 cents. It will work 2 to 4 gallons of bile from your system, just as black as any ink you ever saw that is poison to your liver and kidneys.
