BREWSTER VALLEY

Mrs. Anice Anderson came to the valley last Monday from Merrill, Ore., to visit her sister, Mrs. P. A. Alford, and family and her brother, J. D. Laird, and family and other relatives and friends.

Ernest Krewson, who has been in the hospital in Myrtle Point suffering from inflammatory rheumatism for some time was able to come home Thursday. He is still quite weak and confined to the house.

An all-day meeting and potluck dinner was held at the community hall Friday, May 22, when Miss Patterson of the home demonstration department of O. S. C., could be here. She gave some very interesting and helpful talks on home furnishings. This was also the last day of school so the children were dismissed at noon and enjoyed the dinner. Those present for the talks were Mesdames Elmer Wilson, W. A. Nickason, Ted Abbott, Lester Mayse, Anton Yotz, Oscar Durrell, Perley Crowley, J. D. Laird, C. M. Wilson, W. A. Keller, Chas. Oberman, Belle Shepherd, Harold Shepherd, Ivan Laird, Misses Hazel Durrell, Cora Bullack, Christina Christensen, and Mrs. Anice Anderson, of Merrill, Ore.

Mrs. Ernest Krewson and Velma and Eloda attended the graduation exercises at Myrtle Point Friday. Forrest Krewson graduated in that class.

A farewell party was given for Miss Cora Bullack, who is leaving for her home in Salem soon, at the community hall Saturday evening. Since Miss Bullack is to be married this summer, the Myrtle Leaf club sponsored a mock wedding ceremony, inveighing Miss Bullack to be the bride. Others taking part were Hazel Durrell as the groom, Mrs. Oscar Durrell as the minister, Mrs. Elmer Wilson and Mrs. W. A. Nickason as bridesmaids, Mrs. W. A. Keller as papa and Mrs. Harold Shepherd as mamma, and Lila Mae Laird, who carried the train. Mrs. Jess Hicks played the wedding march and Mrs. Ivan Laird sang, "I Love You Truly." But the bride hadn't rehearsed the next part—when Burton Wilson and Muri Laird came in bringing their wagon prettily decorated and heavily loaded with the many and lovely gifts brought to her by her friends in and out of the valley. Those attending from outside the valley were Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Leatherman and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Myers, from Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jenkins, Arja Jenkins and Catharine Berry, of Coquille, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hubble, of Fairview, Anna Gibbs from Coos River, Mr. and Mrs. Minor Mead, of Powers, Milford Mast and Helen Glenn of McKinley, C. J. Thompson, Glenn Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Abernathy from Dora.

J. B. Shoemaker, from Alaska, has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Cora Aitree, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Murray, of Camas Valley, old friends of the Wilsons, visited with them Sunday.

Kenneth Laird, of Coos River, and Carl Laird, of Myrtle Point, visited at the home of their parents, the J. D. Lairds, Sunday.

Charles and Burton Wilson left Saturday for Bridge to spend a week or so at the home of their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Laird and Miss Cora Bullack visited at Coos River Monday.

Claude Hicks has been confined to his bed for the past week.

C. M. Wilson took Mrs. Wilson to Coquille for a medical treatment Saturday. She is looking and feeling much better than she was.

48 Scholarships to O. S. C.

Dorris Compton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Compton of this city, who was one of the 48 young men and women of the state recently selected by the state board of higher education to receive scholarships to attend Oregon State college next year, plans to register in secretarial science there.

These scholarships are granted only to students from among the upper one-third of their graduating classes. Miss Compton was highly recommended for a scholarship by H. H. Hartley, principal of the Coquille high school, and others in the community. She has maintained a straight "1" average throughout her high school career, and in addition has taken an important part in extra-curricular activities of the school. These have included editorship of the Hi-Times, membership in the Girls' League, Student Council, Glee club, Girl Trio, and parts in the junior play, senior play, school operettas, and participation in girls' athletics.

Two Coos county students who were awarded similar scholarships last year are now attending Oregon State. Doris James, of Myrtle Point, is a freshman in lower division, and Everett A. Hansen, of Marshfield, is a freshman in engineering.

ARAGO

Eric Gulstrom, of Tillamook, drove up Saturday to visit with his brother, Albert, in the Coquille Hospital. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Squires and small son, of Booth, spent the day with Mr. Gulstrom, who is recovering nicely from an operation performed Tuesday.

Miss Eleanor Corthell has returned to her home in Marshfield for the summer vacation. She will teach in Sam's Valley high school in Jackson county next year.

Miss Martha Jane Webb has moved from the teacherage to her parents' home in Coquille. She taught the intermediate grades in Arago the past winter. This room will be eliminated next year when Arago will have only two grade teachers.

Mrs. Winnifred Ray will have charge of the four upper grades with an estimated enrollment of less than fifteen for next year.

Miss Alice Scott has gone to La Grande, where she will spend the vacation with her father. When she returns she will have charge of the lower grades with about the same number of pupils as the upper grades.

Ray Parker plans to make his headquarters in Coquille this summer, acting as a sales agent. His plans for next winter have not been formulated.

The last day of school was marked by a picnic on the school grounds Friday noon, where a small group of patrons joined the teachers and pupils for dinner and closing exercises.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lillie and children spent Sunday in Bandon visiting his mother, Mrs. M. E. Lillie.

Graduation exercises for the class of 1936 were held in the attractively decorated gymnasium Friday evening when the following program was given:

Invocation by Rev. John Root, piano solo by Miss Edythe Woodward, vocal solo by Mrs. S. C. McAllister, chorus, "The Heavens Resound" and "Auld Lang Syne" by members of the singing class directed by J. L. Backman, address by Dr. Jesse H. Bond of the University of Oregon, presentation of diplomas by Adrian Halter, chairman of the school board, benediction by Rev. John Root. The members of the class were Annie Dear-dorff and Charles Webb, who had their names engraved on the high school honor roll and Cecil Patrick and Freddie Vetter.

Mrs. Everett Lafferty and son, Allen, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Grants Pass visiting her aunt, Mrs. Walter Barklow.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Woodward and son, Gerald, left Monday morning for Waldport where they will spend the next ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Halter and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Myers were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lane in the Roy district. Mrs. Lane returned with them to be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Myers for a time. Mrs. Lane has been on crutches for fifteen weeks with a broken foot.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carl and Mr. and Mrs. Melden Carl returned Tuesday night from a trip which took them through the Willamette valley to Portland over the Columbia highway to Pendleton, down over the Old Oregon Trail to the central Oregon highway through Prineville and Bend, through by way of Crater Lake in the snow and home by the Pacific highway.

Sunday morning services were held in the gymnasium, with Rev. F. H. Barr, of Myrtle Point, preaching on "Memorials." Miss Edythe Woodward played the offertory music. In the evening John Carl conducted the discussion on the first of a series of crime subjects, Ernest Watkins will lead the second next Sunday, discussing "What should be done with the Criminal?" and David Root will lead the last one on "How the returned criminal is treated," on June 7.

Rev. and Mrs. John Root and daughter, Deloris, left Sunday afternoon for Grenada, California, accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Sam Root that far as they went farther south on their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watkins and daughters, Jean and Anne, returned Saturday afternoon from a trip which took them to Sutherlin, where they called on Miss Pearl Robinson who made many friends in Arago during her stay in the community last fall as an evangelistic singer. She sent her best wishes to the community. The Watkins then journeyed up the McKenzie river and over the Santiam to return across the Cascades. Too much cannot be written concerning the scenic beauties of this new road. There are falls and lakes that cannot be surpassed in grandeur and trails have been built to the scenic attractions by the CCC boys stationed near. They spent Friday afternoon and night in Prineville as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Barklow. Leaving Saturday morning they returned by Fort Klamath and Crater Lake, finding hot weather as they drove down the Rogue river. They were fortunate in having very clear weather during the entire trip. Mr. and Mrs. Barklow and Mary Watkins expect to be in Coos county by the first of June.

Francis Keltner arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs.

NOTICE—STORES CLOSED SATURDAY

C. A. Keltner, this week from Huntington, Oregon, where he has taught for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Miller and daughters, Colleen and Maxine, of Portland, spent the week-end in Arago visiting relatives. They came especially to the graduation exercises of Freddie Vetter, brother of Mrs. Miller. They were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nile Miller.

The final firing of the first kiln of bricks for this season was completed last week at the brick factory. While the kiln is cooling Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Zinsering and Edith, Allen and Junior are visiting relatives in Portland.

There is much being written and said about the new bridge over Coos Bay but Arago is very grateful for a new bridge over Hall's Creek near the L. M. Aasen place. The angle of approach is very much improved and Arago is hoping for an equal improvement with a new long bridge near the post office. There have been rumors that one is to be built this summer as the present one has been declared unsafe.

Mrs. Ethel Collier returned to her home in Portland Sunday afternoon after spending a short vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Collier.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward left Tuesday for Fresno, California, where they will visit her aunt, who has been failing in health.

Sam Damron is confined to his bed part of the time with chronic bronchitis.
