

Proverb Rules

Each week for a period of six weeks The Coquille Valley Sentinel will print one of a series of cartoons representing some well known proverb or saying.

Contestants solve the picture puzzles by writing the proverb that the cartoon suggests or illustrates in the blanks below the pictures.

The prizes, totaling $10 in cash, will be awarded those sending in complete or near complete picture sets with the best and most appropriate answers to the pictures published, and either paying their own subscription for a period of one year or securing one new one year subscription to The Coquille Valley Sentinel.

Cartoons will not be received by the Sentinel until the series of six is complete.

Only one answer may be given to a picture.

Only one member of a family will be given a prize, the award going to the person in that family submitting the best set.

The answers may be written in pen, pencil, printed or typewritten.

B. P. W. Met at Bandon

Thirty-one members and friends of the Business and Professional Women's Club motored to Bandon last Monday night to the Bryant cabin to enjoy a pot luck dinner. After the dinner the club ladies held their regular business meeting, which was followed by the reports of the B. & P. W. national district convention at Lake Tahoe by Bertha Smith, Leona Bryant, Margarita Brodie and Geneva Agostino. They brought souvenirs from various clubs, from Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California. After telling of their journey, going and returning, the wonderful scenery, the instructive lectures and the jokes on each other, every member of the club present who was not fortunate enough to have had the opportunity of attending this district convention felt that they had gained much from the report carried back to them by their delegates.

Members and friends enjoying the evening were Ida Owen, Ida Oerding, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bosserman, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Beyers, Bertha J. Smith, Sadie A. Jayes, Gladys Gano, Dr. and Mrs. James Richmond, Margarita Brodie, Saima Caughell, Geneva Agostino, Genevieve Foster, Dr. and Mrs. V. L. Hamilton, Inez Rover, Myrtle DeLong, Mrs. S. L. DeLong, Flora Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bryant, Viola Newton, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Gould, Mrs. Clarissa Bradford, Barbara Bradford, Mrs. Wesley Andrews, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Keeper, of Yakima.

Townsend Club Sends Two

The Coquille Townsend Club met in regular session Tuesday evening with the president, Orvin Gant, presiding. The Townsend orchestra played several good numbers which were greatly appreciated by the club.

It was definitely decided to send Stephen Dey and George Swinney as delegates to the Townsend convention in Cleveland, Ohio, July 15 to 19. They will leave here Friday or Saturday and be gone about two weeks.

The club is planning a big social affair for the meeting after the delegates return on July 28.

A large number of Coquille club members attended the picnic at Bandon last Saturday and all reported having a good time.

All Townsend members and friends are invited to attend all meetings of the club.

Mrs. Walker Gives Luncheon

Mrs. Ed Walker entertained at her home last Thursday with a one-thirty luncheon for the pleasure of her daughter, Miss Rheo, the occasion being the young lady's birthday. The table was very prettily decorated in green and white with a centerpiece of sweet peas. Places were laid for the Misses Gretchen Clinton, Marvin Meyers, Patsy Holverstott, Maxine Knight, Mary Lou Nosler, Donna Getz, Clarabelle Watson, Lillian Bower, Helene Gage, Leah Rover, Bonnie Gage and Rheo Walker. The afternoon was spent in playing table games.

New Buick Smashed on 4th

One of the worst wrecks on the Fourth was that on the highway just south of Bandon where it is intersected by the street leading from the park. Mrs. Emma Mack, of Bear creek, suffered broken ribs and bruises when the young man driving the car failed to heed the stop sign. A new Buick from Medford, which had not even license plates attached, caught Mrs. Mack's car amidst ships. The Dodge was not greatly damaged but the front end of the Buick was mashed almost beyond recognition.

Turned in Front of Them

Misses Margaret Roche and Marjorie Knight, Bill Floten and Alvin Shaver made a Fourth of July trip to Portland. At North Bend on the return trip a state police car, which had been parked in front of the bank building, made a left hand turn across the highway in front of them, and was hit by Miss Roche's car. Bill was driving and neither he nor Miss Roche, nor a bystander, saw the signal which the police officer says he made. Bill was fined $5 on a reckless driving charge, although he was going at a moderate rate of speed.

In Honor of Elizabeth Pierce

Honoring Miss Elizabeth Pierce, who has been attending school in Oakland and is home for a short visit, Miss Anne Barton entertained the members of the "Pirate" club at her home Monday evening. A seven o'clock dinner was served to Elizabeth Pierce, Carol Young, Betty Gaisryer, Beryl Unsold, Margaret Paulson, Audrey Aasen, Sara Margaret Nye and the hostess.

Mrs. Aasen Hostess to Club

Mrs. John Aasen was hostess to her Monday Night club at her home this week. A dinner dessert was served to Mesdames Bert Kay, A. B. Collier, Ed McKeown, Hal Pierce, Stewart Norton, Geo. Johnson and U. E. McClary. At cards, Mrs. Pierce won high score and Mrs. McKeown, the traveling prize.

Mt. Hood Climb Next Saturday

The north and east sides of Mt. Hood will be illuminated in outline for 30 minutes from 10 p. m. on Saturday, July 18, and all residents of eastern Oregon and Washington, within sight of the mountain, are requested to be on the lookout for this wonderful spectacle.

Illumination of the famous Oregon peak will again be a prelude to the 16th annual Legion Climb of the north side of Mount Hood, to be featured on the following day, Sunday, July 19, and to which all interested are invited to attend. Snow conditions this year are perfect for an easy ascent of this high peak, and Legion camp will be ready to take care of several thousands of people after noon on the preceding day. All intending to climb must be at Legion camp Saturday night and be ready to leave with the big party at 2:45 a. m. Reaching the summit before noon, climbers will return to camp at about 3 p. m. Sunday.

The Crag Rats, nationally known alpine guides, will have charge of the climb and have a record of many ascents of Mount Hood without accident of any kind.

Those interested may write to Kent Shoemaker, chairman, Legion Climb Committee, Hood River, Ore.

Attending C. M. T. C. Camp

Coos county is again well represented at the annual Citizens Military Training camp which opened at Vancouver Barracks on Monday. It has not only beginners but also older students who are returning for the next course. They are: Jonathan Junior Summers, Bradley Briscoe Summers, Edgar M. Bush, Dean E. Smith, all of Marshfield; Alvin H. Fredenburg, Arago, and Dean E. Bundy, of Powers, all beginners; Charles O. Ellis, Myrtle Point; Lawrence V. Knight, Bridge, second-year students, and Kenneth R. Noble, Marshfield, a third-year student.

For Radio Service see Alvin L. McQuigg, authorized Radio-Trician, 505 N. Holly st., city. All work guaranteed.

Vags and Drunks from Bay

Marshfield continues to send its drunks over to the county jail by taking those arrested there before Justice Bolt. Three have been received the past week:

Jack Van Grosse, July 4, for vagrancy, 15 days. Frank Bolding, July 9, same charge and same time.

Fank Vanderburg, July 9, drunk and disorderly, 15 days.

Tom E. Dardis was brought over from North Bend last Thursday to serve out a $20 fine for being drunk on a public highway.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.
