A trio, composed of Mrs. Roy Boober, Mrs. Geo. Johnson and Mrs. J. P. Beyers, sang a group of cowboy songs. Mrs. Beyers also played a cello number. A melodrama was presented by Mesdames Boober, Johnson, Harry Ross, Hester Holverstott, Ula Leach, W. E. Bosserman, Birdie Skeels, E. M. Kay, Fred Schaefer and E. L. Benham.

Other Coquille members and friends who made the trip were Mrs. Ora Maury, Mrs. Myrtle Noah, Miss Ida Oerding, Miss Edyth Greenwall, Messrs. Fred Schaefer, W. E. Bosserman, J. P. Beyers and E. M. Kay.

The Bandon lodge served delicious refreshments for their Coquille guests.

Rogers-Park

J. J. Stanley, justice of the peace, was called upon to read the ceremony at a pretty wedding last Saturday night at the residence of Dan C. Rodgers on Riverton avenue in Coquille Heights, when his son, Milton W., was united to Mildred H. Park, of Neetsu, in Lincoln county. The fathers of the contracting parties acted as official witnesses and there were about twenty guests present. The happy couple was plentifully showered with rice after the ceremony and all present partook of a bounteous wedding dinner.

Pioneer Missionary Society

The pioneer Missionary Society met with Mrs. C. E. McCurdy on Cunningham road, Thursday, July 16.

The meeting was opened by singing "In the Service of the King," and "Oh Master Let Me Walk with You," followed by prayer by Rev. W. R. Wilder. The devotions were given by Mr. Wilder and a topic, "Two by Two," was read by Mrs. Gormley. Mrs. Beyers played a solo, "Adoration" and "My Old Kentucky Home" which were very much enjoyed.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. C. E. McCurdy, Mrs. Lena McCurdy, Mrs. Lloyd Oddy and Mrs. Dora Oerding to the following: Mesdames Purvance, Leslie, Skeels, Beyers, Gormley, Daniels, Ellis, Morrison, Minard, Way, Ireland, Brown, Richmond, Taylor, Davis, Finley, Pinkston, Hamilton, Tillmann and the hostesses.

James David Bell, a resident of Coquille for the past 15 years, passed away in the night Wednesday but at what time Mrs. Bell does not know. She had been sleeping upstairs in their home on North Hill street, and when she came downstairs yesterday morning she found him lying on the floor in the bath room, life extinct.

Mr. Bell had been in poor health for the past three years and had to give up all active occupation. He was a paper hanger and painter by trade, and had also served the public as custodian of one of the city's school buildings here for a few years.

Mr. Bell was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., July 14, 1865, and was two days past 71 years of age. He left home at an early date and was in San Francisco at the time of the fire. He was married there to Miss Ora Seymour, Oct. 31, 1906. No children were born to this union and as far as is known his widow is his only survivor.

Funeral services are to be held tomorrow (Saturday) at 10 p. m. at the Gano Funeral Home, and will be in charge of the Eagles lodge of which he was a member. Interment will be in the new Odd Fellows cemetery.

Mr. Bell was one of those men who make friends of all their acquaintances. He had a kindly nature, his word was as good as his bond, and his passing is mourned by all who knew him.

Church of Christ Society

The missionary women of the Church of Christ met at the church Thursday afternoon for the regular meeting with 29 present.
