ARAGO

J. L. Backman is still holding weekly music classes in the Arago gymnasium on Wednesday evenings at eight o'clock.

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Nile Miller and Gladys, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hamamek and Milton, Verl and Daisy Mae, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Manley Barklow near Myrtle Point, where a wienie and marshmallow roast was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Don Stover and six daughters, from Nampa, Idaho. The evening was spent in visiting and music about the fire. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Stone, Boyd and Jeanette and Glenise Finley, of Johnson's Mill, and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Hammack, Lavonne Phyllis, Marvin, Jimmy and Shirley Anne, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Pollard, Mrs. Emma Barklow, Mr. and Mrs. Leander Barklow.

Miss Lois Schroeder came in Wednesday afternoon and visited in Myrtle Point until Sunday when she returned to her home in Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Mavity visited with Mrs. B. B. Watkins Sunday evening after they had attended the Robison reunion. They returned to their home in Bandon the same evening.

B. B. Watkins went to Bandon Saturday afternoon to stay for a time with his daughter, Mrs. J. K. Baker.

Mrs. Ernest Watkins and daughters, Mary and Anne, and their guests, Mrs. A. T. Hill, of La Grande, and Misses Nancy Price and Margaret Lou Parker, of Newberg, and Dorothy Belle Watkins, of Eureka, California, drove to Bandon Friday, where the young ladies spent the day at the beach while Mrs. Watkins and Mrs. Hill drove to upper Two Mile and had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Swift. In the afternoon Mrs. Swift accompanied them to the home of Mrs. J. K. Baker, south of Bandon and they viewed a cranberry bog with the berries starting to ripen. It looks like a large crop at the Baker bog this year.

Mrs. Leta Rackleff, of Myrtle Point, was an overnight guest of her cousin, Dorothy Belle Watkins, of Eureka, California, at the Ernest Watkins home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Damron were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Damron in Bandon.

Mrs. Leonard Garoutte left Tuesday morning for a short visit in Cottage Grove.

Miss Nancy Price, who has spent the past week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watkins, left on Monday for Reedsport where she will visit before returning to her home in Newberg.

Sunday evening Mrs. Sam Root led the Christian Endeavor and Bill Stauff, of Grenada, played a cornet solo. Rev. John Root preached on "Fellowship." Orvus Miller will lead August 23 during the Christian Endeavor hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lafferty drove to Grants Pass by way of Crescent City Saturday afternoon and returned by way of Roseburg, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Haberly and two sons, who spent a week in Arago at the O. H. Aasen and S. C. McAllister homes, returned to Bandon on Thursday. Mr. Haberly, a talented musician, has a position in the Myrtle Point school for next winter and investigated the housing problem in that town while he was in Arago. Myrtle Point seems to have no houses for rent at all and the situation is serious. The Haberlys did not find a place to live.

Descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Robison, who came to Coos county in 1873 and settled on Fishtrap creek, held their family reunion on Sunday. Of their own family only four are living now, three of whom were present at the reunion which was held at the home of Price Robison on the river across from Norway.

Frank Robison, who is eighty-seven years of age and lives with his nephew, Roy Robison, in the Norway district; Rock Robison, who is eighty-five and lives in and about Coquille with his children, and Price Robison, who is seventy-eight and still running his own dairy ranch, were present. Their only living sister, Mrs. Martha Ayerill, whose home is in Corvallis, was visiting her daughter in Medford and unable to attend. Specially honored guests of the Robison family Sunday were Rev. and Mrs. Charles Barklow, of Myrtle Point, and Rev. and Mrs. John Root, of Grenada, California, early school-mates of the Robisons. There were more than sixty members of the clan present, including several from Curry county.

The first meeting of the home demonstration class in Arago was held at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Rackleff on Friday when organization plans were made by the leader, Miss Jessie Palmiter. Mrs. Sam Root was elected temporary chairman and Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward temporary secretary. The next meeting will be an all-day session with lunch at noon, to be held at the home of Mrs. Sam Root on Friday, September 25. Miss Palmiter's demonstration subject at that time will be "Nutrition." At that time permanent chairman and secretary will be elected and the program for the year will be planned. Those present Friday were Mesdames Sam Root, Oluf Aasen, S. C. McAllister, Tyrrell Woodward, Melden Carl, C. S. Webb, Geo. Robison, R. Ferre, Lawrence Rackleff, Miss Jessie Palmiter, Opal, Marguerite and Lois Robison.

The beautiful lawn at the L. M. Aasen home formed a setting for a very pretty party Tuesday afternoon, with Miss Ionella Cutris, of Bridge, as the guest of honor. Each guest brought a gift to express her congratulations to Miss Curtis, whose wedding to Glenn Wolff will take place this fall. Both young people live in Myrtle Point and are active in the young people's circle in the Brethren Church of that city. After the gifts were opened and viewed by all, the group spent the afternoon visiting. Refreshments were served to Mesdames Louis Root, Ira Root, Frasier Hoffman, Minnie Hermann, Cassie Barklow, J. W. Barnett, Sarah Barklow, Chas. Wolff, Merle Pollard, Nora Hospodka, Cora Mulkey, Will Lett, Sarah Williams, F. H. Barr, Minnie Kroeger, Lyle Knight, Henry Knight, Irene Hatfield, L. M. Aasen, Glenn Robison, Price Robison, Jim Lewellen, Misses Verna Barklow, Esther Barnett, Verna Hermann, Edith Wolff, Lavonne Aasen, Ionella Curtis, Mrs. Emma Barklow and her grand daughter, Miss Dorothy Manuel, of North Bend.

Miss Bernadette Richmond, who has been visiting Miss Lavonne Aasen for the past ten days, left for her home near Reedsport Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Lafferty, their guests, Mrs. Geo. King and daughter, Jane, from Alameda, and Miss Jane Sigler, of Scotts Valley, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lafferty and Janice, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lafferty and Allen gathered at the river for picnic and family visit Tuesday evening.

Mrs. George King and daughter, Jane, of Alameda, and Miss Jane Sigler, of Scotts Valley, California, arrived Monday to visit with Mrs. King's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Lafferty and other relatives in this county for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall were dinner hosts at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnett Monday evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Barnett and Esther, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Myers, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Aasen, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Robison, Mr. and Mrs. Frasier Hoffman.

News of the death of James Ellis in Myrtle Point on Tuesday was received with sorrow by his former neighbors in this community. The funeral was held Thursday in Myrtle Point.

Gordon Fleming, who has been assistant in the cheese factory since Osborne Nulff resigned and during the strike, returned to his work for the Smith Wood Products company on Monday. Price Schroeder helped in the factory Sunday and Monday and Gus Schroeder started Tuesday morning to take the assistant's place in the Arago factory.

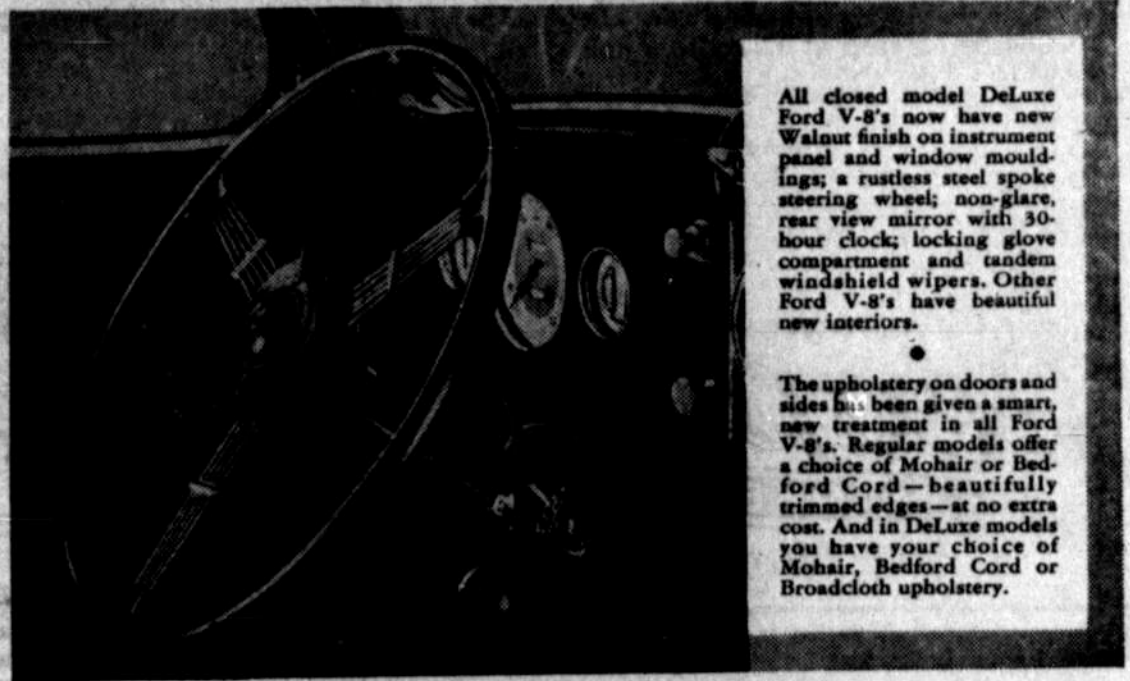

Mr. and Mrs. Nile Miller and Gladys drove up Catching Creek to attend services Sunday morning. Rev. Glenn Brady, principal of the grade school at the Children's Farm Home in Corvallis, delivered the message. Afterwards the Millers and the minister were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Marsters for dinner.

Mrs. John Root spent Wednesday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Munford. Other callers at the Munford home that day were Jean Watkins and her guests, Nancy Price, and Margaret Lou Parker, of Newberg, and Dorothy Belle Watkins, of Eureka, California.

Thursday evening Bible study was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Root with Rev. John Root, of Grenada, Calif., leading in the study of the last part of the ninth chapter of Acts.

MYRTLE POINT

Friday evening Rev. and Mrs. T. R. Jackman showed their pictures of the Joly Land in the Arago gymnasium to a crowd of over a hundred appreciative people. Mr. Jackman's talk was very interesting and instructive as well and the pictures were beautiful. Arago was fortunate, indeed, to have such a treat brought to them.

Mrs. Glenn Cox has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Jack Smith in Marshfield this week.

Rev. C. M. Woodworth, who is supplying at the Baptist Church in Coquille, preached the morning sermon Sunday at Arago. The morning sermon August 23 will be delivered by Rev. F. H. Barr, of Myrtle Point. Rev. John Root will preach in the evening. There will be Sunday school but no preaching August 30 as it is the fifth Sunday of the month and members of the congregation are free to go in to town for preaching services. Sunday school will convene for the lesson at ten o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvus Miller and daughters, and Mrs. Grover McQuigg and Alvin and Cecil, of Coquille, drove to Medford Wednesday, returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Broten and family visited Friday in Powers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris. A group of ladies enjoyed a social afternoon making quilt blocks at the home of Mrs. Albert Lillie on Wednesday. Those present were Mesdames Oluf Aasen, Sarah Barklow, B. B. Watkins, Ernest Watkins, C. S. Webb, Everett Lafferty, Stanley Halter, J. L. Burtis, Tyrrell Woodward, Sam Root, David Root, Edith Woodward, Daisy Doyle, Earl Edgmon, Art Farrier, Joel Pool, Albert Gulstrom, Albert Lillie and Mrs. A. T. Hill, of La Grande.

Mrs. Jesse Clinton spent Thursday visiting Mrs. Albert Gulstrom. Larkin Robison, of Powers, is spending this week with the Ed Broten family. Walter Barklow, who underwent a serious operation at the Keizer hospital on Thursday is making a satisfactory improvement. Mrs. Barklow, who was with him, returned to her home on Sunday.

Mrs. Adrian Halter, who had been receiving treatment at the Knife Hospital for blood poisoning for the past two weeks, was able to return to her home on Sunday.

Monday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Price Robison were Mrs. Alex Barklow and Lyle, of Fitharap; Vernon Barklow, of Myrtle Point, and Wesley Herverson, of Marshfield. Pete Knutson, of Seattle, Mrs. Chas. Ashton and Mrs. Jennie Price, of Coquille, enjoyed Saturday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Lafferty.

Vern Garoutte, who suffered a serious burn from gasoline last week, is getting along nicely.

Ellis Rackleff, who has been suffering from an attack of sinus infection, is making a satisfactory recovery.

Mrs. Lillie Hartig, of Bandon, visited Friday with her sister, Mrs. S. L. Lafferty.

Sam Root became ill Saturday night and Harvey Myers had to substitute for him as driver of the milk route Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Paul and George and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fleming and Marvina have moved to the house on the Chris Moller place, formerly occupied by Tony Abild.

Albert Lillie and Joe Pool went to work at Coos River last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Parker and Clifford and Clarence drove to Marshfield Saturday. Ethan Parker, their youngest son, returned home with them that evening. He had spent the past week visiting friends in Bunker Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carl went to Myrtle Point Thursday evening and remained overnight as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schroeder. Early Friday morning the Schroeder accompanied the Carls on a vacation trip which will include the Yellowstone park and a jaunt into Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Melden Carl, of the Roy district, are staying on the Carl ranch assisting Herbert and Wallace with the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Burtis, of Portland, and their children, Margaret and Robert, left for their home Saturday morning, after spending a week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Burtis.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Haberly, of Mt. Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Haberly, of Jefferson, and Mrs. Oluf Aasen were Tuesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Haberly returned to Bandon and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Haberly were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oluf Aasen. They have been attending the summer session of the University of California at Berkeley.
