Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parker and sons, Billy, Eugene and Joe, drove in from Medford on Wednesday enroute to Bandon and points south.

Clyde Lille, Junior Gulstrom and Kenneth Stevens are making plans to attend the state fair in Salem as they were awarded their expenses as rewards for 4-H judging in the recent county tour. Stephen Aasen tied for third place with Kenneth and a flipped coin made Kenneth the winner. They plan to leave September 6.

Claire Keltner is spending this week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Keltner.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Purser and children, Melba and Oscar, left Sunday for Salem, where they will pick hops. They do not plan to return to Arago for some time.

Shelby McAllister arrived Thursday evening from Ashland and spent Friday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister, leaving on Saturday for a brief business trip to Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wannamaugh of Bandon, spent Saturday and Sunday at the S. C. McAllister home.

Rev. F. H. Barr, of Myrtle Point, conducted the morning service at Arago. There were two special musical numbers, a cornet solo by William Stauff and a vocal duet by Mrs. Albert Gulstrom and Mrs. Albert Lillie. In the evening Orvus Miller led the Christian Endeavor and Rev. John Root preached the sermon. On Sunday morning, August 30, Sunday school will be held at ten o'clock, with no preaching service. Many are planning to attend church in Port Orford, with a picnic lunch afterwards. In the evening Mrs. S. C. McAllister will lead Christian Endeavor and Rev. John Root will preach. Rev. W. Raymond Wilder, of Coquille, has consented to preach on the third Sunday of each month at ten o'clock in Arago.

David Root is suffering from a severe case of poison oak, which has affected his eyes.
