

ARAGO

The Ladies Aid held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Sam Root on Wednesday and made plans to buy and sew for Bandon. They met on Monday and Tuesday, sewing sheets, dish towels and night gowns.

Mrs. Nell Farre was dismissed from the Knife Hospital on Sunday. She will be at the George Robison home until she regains her strength.

Shelby McAllister spent the week-end with his parents, returning to teach school at Catching Inlet on Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Haberly, Jr., drove in from Jefferson Saturday to visit with his parents at the Oluf Aasen home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Damron and B. B. Watkins drove up from Bandon Saturday night to visit at the Watkins and Jess Damron homes. They returned to Bandon the same evening. Mr. Watkins is picking cranberries at the J. K. Baker bog.

Ellis Rackleff left Sunday morning for the Pacific International Exposition in Portland, where he went as the guest of the First National Bank of Portland because of his outstanding work in 4-H Poultry club work. Ellis is president of the Arago Poultry club under the leadership of Mrs. Marie McGilvery, of Coquille. In 1935 this club sent a high ranking judging team to the state fair and Ellis was high point man on the team.

Mrs. Alex Barklow, Mrs. Price Robison and Mrs. Glenn Robison spent Friday in Myrtle Point as the guests of Mrs. Nora Hosposka.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tomlinson and son, Albert, Jr., spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hill. They were picking apples in southern Washington when news of the forest fires reached them and they came home to reassure themselves that all was well with their relatives in this county.

Robert Pressy, the man who built the first creamery in Bandon and a long-time friend of Price Robison's, called on him this week. Mr. Pressy lives in northern California and this was their first visit in twenty years.

Mrs. Fred Laferty and Mrs. S. L. Lafferty accompanied Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Goldner and Harold Goldner to Roseburg Saturday, where he attended the funeral of Leslie Martin.

Mrs. Glenn Robison and Mrs. Alex Barklow spent Monday afternoon in Myrtle Point where they assisted the ladies of the Brethren church in sewing for Bandon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Myers accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Halter and Gerald Woodward to Bandon Sunday afternoon and more than five hundred cars passed their line of vision. The traffic was really dense on the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Price Robison accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gulstrom and sons to Bandon Sunday. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ellis and family. Contrary to first reports the Ellis home did not burn though practically all other buildings in the neighborhood did go and they were in ignorance for several hours about their home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Goldner had as their guests her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Goldner, of Claremont, California, from Friday until Tuesday. This was the first time the families had been together for fifteen years.

Mrs. Alex Barklow and Bonnie Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Robison and Harold and Lawrence Barklow drove to Bandon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barklow returned to their home on Saturday. They have spent the summer on various road jobs, the last one being at Dayton. They hope the season is ended but they are still subject to call.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Woodward made a business trip to Portland last week, returning Saturday evening.

Earl and Glenn Genzoli were Coquille visitors Saturday evening.

Thursday evening Bible class was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nile Miller with David Root leading the discussion. Those present were Miss Esther Davidson, Mrs. S. C. McAllister and Mary Jean, Mrs. Frank Miller and Hazel, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watkins, Mrs. Cluf Aasen, Mr. and Mrs. David Root, Mr. and Mrs. Nile Miller and Gladys.

Lloyd Pursler and Jim Merlin, of Los Angeles, volunteered for fire duty and very sent out from Coquille last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones and family have moved to the Breuer place adjoining Milani's and plan to be in Arago for the winter. Mr. Jones is employed by L. H. Pearce in Myrtle Point.

Roy Pursler drove in from Salem Saturday to make sure that his possessions on the hill in the Fishtrap district were not burned. His family did not come.

Earl F. Downing, of Coquille, preached the morning sermon at Arago Sunday. There were no preaching services in the evening. Rev. G. A. Gray, of Coquille, will have charge of these services on October 11.

Believe it or not, a rat was the cause of real consternation at the Ernest Watkins home on Monday evening. In the evening it was discovered that the telephone would not work. Even the nearest neighbors could not be called. Due to the still serious fire hazard this was almost a calamity. After much family discussion, investigation showed that the outside wire had been cut or gnawed completely in two. A rat was the guilty party. All which brings to mind that the West Coast telephone company really deserves a vote of thanks for keeping this line in such good condition during the emergency.

As a usual thing the phone service on rural lines is apt to be erratic but prompt replies from central and clear lines were the rule during the fire. On Tuesday the lines were busy again when new fire broke out in the logged off area of the Garoutte camp. The extreme heat of the day burst smoldering fires into flames and new billows of white smoke poured out of Hall's and Fishtraps creeks.

The Cornwell ranch and the Frank Miller place were endangered Tuesday with the renewed fires. Russell Hill, on Hall's creek, was threatened. Two carloads of CCC fire fighters led by Warden Huffman battled all afternoon and watched through the night. As long as there is no strong wind the danger is not so great but a strong wind would spread the fire into virgin timber as well as several tracts of second growth fir, which would bring danger to the entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Paul and George left on Saturday for their new home near Goldendale, Washington. The best wishes of the entire community go with them. Both Mr. and Mrs. Paul have resided in this district for a great many years.

Miss Ruth Barklow, of Gravel Ford, spent the week-end visiting at the Tom Garrone home.

Mrs. Viola Nicklesen, of San Francisco, was a Sunday guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barklow.

Donny Patrick was able to be back in school this week, although he has not entirely recovered from his recent mastoid infection.

Virginia and Elva Barklow, of Gravel Ford, accompanied Raymond Garrone on a trip down the coast Monday.

Mrs. M. E. Lillie accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Wilma McLeod, to her home in Marshfield last week, where she will stay for a time. Mrs. Lillie still insists that she is going to rebuild her home in Bandon, but as yet no plans have been completed.

Wallace Carl has pledged to the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity at O. S. C.

The hauling from the Garoutte logging woods was finished this week.

Mrs. John Damron and J. K. Baker, of Bandon, brought B. B. Watkins to his home late Tuesday night. They heard of the renewed fire hazard on Hall's creek. Mr. Watkins will remain until the fire is under control.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnett and Esther drove to Bandon Saturday and visited friends.

Mrs. Naomi Robison has moved to Myrtle Point, where she will live with Mrs. Sarah Williams this winter. She is working in Coquille.

pose of crediting the contestant with the sale of the coffee. Each pound of coffee sold counts five points for the contestant and at the end of the contest the fifty contestants having the fifty highest scores receive the prizes. First prize is a new 1937 Packard Six completely equipped with standard accessory group. Winner will have choice of models. Second prize is four hundred dollars in cash, third prize, two hundred fifty dollars, fourth prize one hundred dollars, fifth prize seventy-five dollars. Then follow five prizes of fifty dollars each, next ten prizes of twenty-five dollars each and finally thirty prizes of ten dollars each. There are fifty prizes in all. Already, though the contest has just started, great interest has been shown in this territory and many contestants are registering. The fact that this contest is confined mainly to one state makes it especially attractive. The contest period is from
