Junior Women's Club

Miss Vesta Milley reported at the Junior Woman's club meeting in the hotel Monday evening that arrangements had been made for the club to sponsor "The White Angel," coming to the Liberty, Nov. 29 and 30.

The club decided to assist the Junior Woman's Club of Bandon in its play equipment project.

A. L. Beck, junior high principal, made a talk to the ladies on school management.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Joe Sayre, Miss Vera Gaslin and Miss Dorothy Bunch. A number of guests were present besides the members of the club.

Aged Man Dies Alone

John William Caldwell, 88-year old man who lost his home in the Bandon fire, died in the shack he had been occupying, just north of Coquille on the Fairview road, Tuesday this week.

Marshal Kermit Shaw had been summoned by neighbors and found the man in a dying condition. He came to town for a doctor but before they could get there he had passed away. So far as known he had no relatives in this section.

As Heard in City Police Court

Half a dozen overtime parkers paid fines into the city treasury the past week, and Recorder Leslie is considering boosting the tax on those whose only excuse is a complaint about the other fellow.

Jimmy Cummings forfeited $10 cash bail when he failed to show up last Saturday to plead to the drunk charge against him.

The same day Robert Stange forfeited $10 bail. The charge against him was "drunk again."

Co. C. of C. Here Next Monday

The annual meeting of the Coos County Chamber of Commerce will be held in the Coquille Hotel next Monday evening, Nov. 16, at 6:30 p. m. Election of officers for next year will be one of the items of business. Dr. R. F. Milne, of Powers and Coquille, has been president of the chamber for the past year.

Will "Go to Church Sunday"

"Go to Church" Sunday will be observed by the Coquille Bethel of Job's Daughters this coming Sunday when they will all attend services at the Pioneer church.
