

Lingerie

GOWNS AND SLIPS

$1.00 $1.95

The most useful gift in the world—for any girl you know. These finely made pieces of lingerie will make worthy Christmas gifts—because they offer so much in beauty and wearing quality.

You can be proud to give these Hose because they have every good quality point about them that the finest Hose contain.

MISS MAY'S SHOP
COQUILLE, OREGON

Club Notes and Other Social Activities

Mr. and Mrs. U. E. McClary entertained their duplicate bridge club at their home last Friday night. The members were invited for a 7:15 o'clock dinner. A small Christmas tree surrounded by other Christmas decorations adorned the very festive table. From the tree colored cellophane streamers reached to each plate and a small Christmas package was the place card. Cards were then enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNelly, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boober, Mrs. Hal Pierce, Mr. H. S. Norton and the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor had a lovely dinner party at their home Sunday evening. The rooms were very festive with small Christmas trees and other Christmas adornments. After a delicious dinner, contract bridge was enjoyed by Messrs. and Mesdames Julius Ruble, Willard Bosserman, Roy Boober and the host and hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Ruble won high score.

The Needleworkers club met at the home of Mrs. E. C. Yarbrough Monday for a one o'clock luncheon and Christmas exchange. After Santa Claus distributed the many gifts, sewing and knitting were enjoyed by the following members, Mesdames Ray Simpson, Frank Pook, Jack Arnold, E. A. Wimer, Geo. Gilman, Earl Cross and the hostess.

The Monday Night club met at the home of Mrs. E. M. Kay for dessert and bridge. This was also the annual Christmas exchange of the club. The house was beautifully decorated with a Christmas tree and other Yuletide decorations. Mrs. H. S. Norton won high score at bridge and Mrs. Jas. Brady second. Mrs. Brady also won the travelling prize. The following members and guests were present: Mesdames H. S. Norton, Frank Thrift, U. E. McClary, Geo. Johnson, E. M. Kay, Fred McNelly, A. B. Collier, Hal Pierce and Mrs. Jas. Brady, of Coos River.

The Pythian Home club held their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Frank Schram Tuesday. This was also in the form of the surprise party for Mrs. Schram's mother, Mrs. Davis. The members and guests met for dinner lunch at 1:15 p. m. After the Christmas exchange with special gifts for Mrs. Davis, the ladies sewed for the Pythian Home. They have already sent $40.00 to the Home. Twenty-two ladies were present. The club

GOOD THINGS TO EAT

Are essentially a part of the festivities at the Holiday season. At a time when you are so very busy, we invite you to call upon us for assistance with your grocery order. We are pleased to serve you and do our part to make your Christmas shopping easier

CANDIED CHERRIES CANDIED PINEAPPLE CHRISTMAS CANDIES ASSORTED NUTS

New Crop, Finest Quality

A Grocery Store where experienced grocers endeavor to please you.

Your Satisfaction Means Economy for You and Success for Us

Phone
69

Busy Corner Grocery

THE MAKE - IT - RIGHT STORE

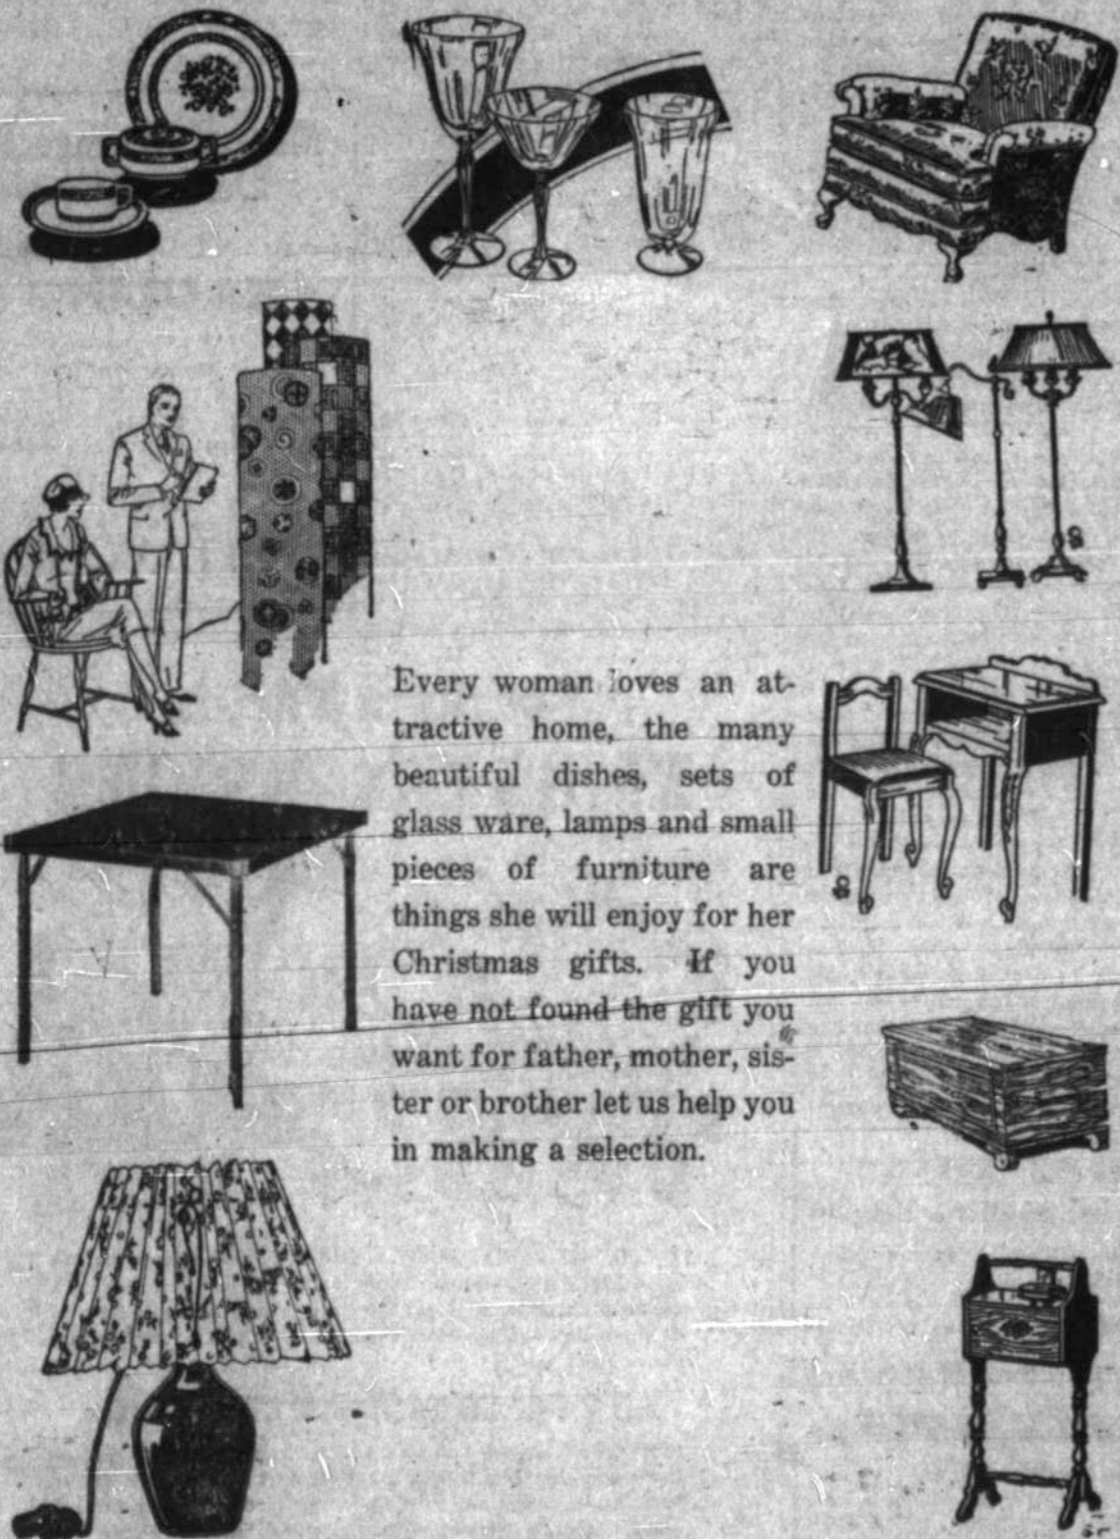

Free
Delivery

To Have Christmas Party

A Christmas party will be the feature for the meeting of B. P. W. on next Monday. At this time members will exchange gifts from a Christmas tree. The meeting will be held at the Dr. James Richmond residence. Preceding the party, the business session will be held, beginning at eight o'clock.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Every woman loves an attractive home, the many beautiful dishes, sets of glass ware, lamps and small pieces of furniture are things she will enjoy for her Christmas gifts. If you have not found the gift you want for father, mother, sister or brother let us help you in making a selection.

Gould Furniture Company

Coquille

Phone 49-m

Oregon

will meet with Mrs. Sam Arnold Jan 5th.

The N. O. M. A. club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Gary Ellison. After the Christmas exchange, the ladies spent their time sewing and knitting. The prize drawing for the evening was won by Mrs. Belmont Ireland. Delicious refreshments were served later to the following members: Mesdames LaVerne Ellingson, Ruth Dey, Frances Diefen, Alice Morris, Ruth Clayton, Ferryl DeJarnet, Olive Kuhn, Yvonne Carl, Eleanor Miller, Bernice Ireland, Lorraine Perrott and the hostess.

Another lovely party was the Yuletide birthday luncheon Tuesday, given by Mrs. U. E. McClary for Mrs. Fred McNelly. The house was most attractive with Christmas decorations. After a delicious luncheon, the guest of honor was surprised with a lovely shower of miscellaneous gifts. Contract bridge was then enjoyed by the following guests: Mesdames Hal Pierce, T. B. Currie, Ed McKeown, Jas. Brady, of Coos River, Geo. Johnson, Roy Boober, A. B. Collier, E. M. Kay, F. C. McNelly and the hostess. Mrs. Pierce held high score and Mrs. McKeown won second score, also the travelling prize.

Another Monday night club held their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Muri Pettit on Tuesday. The members met for a 7:15 o'clock dinner, which was followed by the Christmas exchange and cards. The tree was beautifully decorated in blue and silver, this color scheme was followed out in the table decorations. At contract, Mrs. Effie Miller held high score as well as the traveling prize. The following members were present: Mesdames Effie Miller, J. L. Smith, Bert Folsom, Hal Pierce, George Lorenz, H. A. Young, Edna Hartson, and the hostess. The club will meet next with Mrs. Pierce.

The W. C. T. U. held their regular meeting at Mrs. Georgia Richmond's home Friday afternoon. The main topic was "Peace," this being given in the form of poems and short talks. Refreshments suggestive of Christmas were served to the following ladies: Mesdames Richmond, Purvance, Gile, Cardwell, Farr, Dale, Stevens, Jayes, Nelson, Schaer, Maude Bean, Fugelson, H. L. Johnson, Knife, Holverstott, and G. A. Gray.

The Tuesday night bridge club met at the home of Mrs. T. S. Stevens. After an evening of cards, Mrs. Stevens look the ladies to the "Yellow Lantern" restaurant for refreshments. Mrs. E. A. Walker won high score, Mrs. Watson low and Mrs. Estes the travelling prize. The following members and guests were present: Mesdames Julius Ruble, E. A. Walker, Fred Watson, Orvin Gant, D. B. Estes, Walter Litzenberger, C. P. Zumwalt and the hostess. The club will meet with Mrs. Walker Monday night for their Christmas party.

Mrs. Walter Oerding and Miss Maud Laws gave a Christmas party to their Sunday school classes at the Pioneer church Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Gormley assisted the hostesses. There was a Christmas tree for the little folks and gifts for all. The children sang Christmas carols, played games and had a general good time. Refreshments appropriate to the holiday season were served to the following youngsters: Geraldine Oerding, Marianne Rackleff, Patricia Yarbrough, Dorothy Howe, Christina McPherson, Nadine Ashworth, Ulla McCracken, Gladys DeWitt, LeOra Simmons, Phyllis McAllister, Betty Smith, Shirley Slater, Donna Gormley, Harriet Walker, Laura Emily Ruble, Allene Hunt, Douglas Brown and Bobby Taylor.

Mesdames C. E. Finley, Alice Laferty and Esta Ellis had a lovely Christmas party at the Pioneer church Friday afternoon for the smaller children, the kindergarten folks and their mothers. The room was decorated with Christmas adornments; a fireplace and Christmas tree being the center of interest. All sorts of games were played by the children and then old Santa put in an appearance with gifts for all. Light refreshments were served.

Ask for Cow Bell Dairy cream and milk, the only milk and cream made by pasteurization.

Electric Clocks

$3.50 $7.95

Sunbeam Mixmaster with Juicer $23.25

Hamilton Beach Mixer with Juicer $23.90

Electric Roasters & Casseroles You can cook a whole meal in one of these $6.45 to $22.50

Toastmaster Hospitality Tray $23.50

Hooton Electric Shop