Club Notes and Other Social Activities

The Tuesday night bridge club met at the home of Mrs. E. A. Walker Monday evening for a Christmas party. The house was beautifully decorated with Yuletide trimmings. Following the Christmas exchange of gifts, contract bridge was enjoyed by the following members: Mesdames Julius Rubie, T. S. Stevens, Donald Estes, Walter Litzberger, Fred Watson, O. T. Gant, Maxine Kistner and the hostess, Mrs. George Hartley, of Murtaugh, Idaho, was a guest for the evening. Mrs. Stevens won high score, Mrs. Watson, low score, and Mrs. Litzberger the travelling prize. A special feature for Christmas was a prize awarded to Mrs. Kistner. The ladies were then invited to the "Yellow Lantern" for refreshments.

The Friday duplicate bridge club met at the home of Mrs. E. M. Kay last Friday. To celebrate the Christmas season, Mrs. Kay had the ladies come for a one o'clock luncheon. McKeown, Hal Pierce, U. E. McClary, T. B. Currie, Fred McNelly and the hostess. A Christmas exchange was the climax to a delightful afternoon.

The Junior Christian Endeavor society of the Christian Church recently held a contest, the boys against the girls. The girls won out, so the boys entertained them with a party at the Steve Dey home Saturday night. They held it there so that Flora Dey, who is a shut-in, could be present. All sorts of games were enjoyed and songs were sung. Later there was a Christmas exchange and carol singing. Popcorn and candy were enjoyed by about sixteen of the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Martin had a little informal party at their home Saturday night for Mrs. George Hartley, of Murtaugh, Idaho.

The "Friendly Seven," a small sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Ernest Purvance Tuesday for a dessert luncheon. The table was prettily decorated with a Christmas tree and a package for each guest. After delicious refreshments, the following ladies indulged in sewing and knitting: Mesdames K. P. Lawrence, F. S. Emery, G. A. Ulett, R. E. Boober, Lafe Compton, Mrs. Mary Gile, of Roseburg, and the hostess.

The "Pirates," a well known group of the younger set, were invited for a six o'clock dinner at the home of Miss Margaret Paulson Tuesday evening. The table and rooms were attractive with Yuletide decorations. Most of the girls are home from college so they had plenty to talk about until the wee small hours. Those enjoying this very festive occasion were Misses Sara Margaret Nye, Betty Glaisyer, Carol Young, Anne Barton, Elizabeth Pierce, Beryl Unsoeld, Audrey Aasen and the hostess.

Mrs. Lafe Compton and daughters attended a family reunion in Portland Sunday at the home of her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Stoaks. There were twenty-two present including the children and grandchildren and also an uncle from the east. This was a real joyous occasion as the whole family hadn't been together for twenty years.

Jimmie Richmond drove to Portland Saturday to bring home Barbara Richmond, Florence Cary and Jean Dungey to spend the holidays. Barbara and Florence are from Northwestern School of Commerce and Jean is a nurse at St. Vincent's Hospital.

Mrs. Julius Rubie entertained with a lovely tea in honor of her sister, Mrs. George Hartley, of Murtaugh, Idaho, Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were most attractive with Yuletide decorations, festoons and dotted poinsettias adding much to the Christmas spirit of the occasion. The beautifully appointed table was very festive with red candles and holly. The following ladies poured throughout the afternoon: Mesdames Fred Hudson, E. A. Walker, Josh Rubie, Hal Pierce and Stanley Fitzgerald. Those assisting about the rooms were Mesdames Walter Oerding, T. S. Stevens, W. V. Glaisyer, Leland Peterson, George Taylor, Jr., Joe Axtell and Roy Boober. The following guests were invited: Mesdames Lee Hand, Ben Broders, Richard Slater, A. J. Nussell, Joe Knight, C. P. The Tauk-an-so club met at the home of Mrs. A. L. Burch on the Myrtle Point highway for their annual Christmas party last Friday evening. The house was prettily decorated with Yuletide decorations. Sherrard, Wm. Peart, Ernie Johnson, Wm. Ortman, Betty St. Clair, Wm. Jones, M. E. Sheehan, Shepard, E. B. White, Miss Grace Sheehan and the hostess.

The Wednesday night bridge club met at the home of Miss Eunice Carmichael Wednesday evening. The house was decorated very prettily with Christmas trimmings. At contract, the girls had sort of a novel idea for a prize—each brought four articles, some good ones and some jokes, and the high score holder had the privilege of choosing out of the assortment. Miss Dorothy Bunch was the fortunate one. Delicious Yuletide refreshments were served to the following members and guests: Maxine Stevens, Dorothy Bunch, Geneva Agostino, Beneva Volkmar, Vera Gaslin, Genevieve Foster, Miss Margaret Nygaard, of Minnesota, and the hostess.

Myrtle Point Lady Stricken

Mrs. Maris Lundy, wife of Ferris Lundy, of Myrtle Point, passed away there shortly after midnight Tuesday night. She had been ill since last June. The body is at the Gano Funeral Home here pending definite arrangements for the funeral which will probably be held in the M. E. church at Myrtle Point on Saturday afternoon, with interment in the Norway cemetery.

Mr. Lundy suffered a paralytic stroke Tuesday morning and was taken to the Mast hospital where little hope is held for his recovery. Mrs. Lundy was born in Sharpsburg, Ky., June 6, 1862. She is survived by her son, Verne Lundy, of Myrtle Point, and a brother, Jas. Caldwell, of Glen Elder, Kansas.

Debate Team Selected

Mrs. Beyers will coach the following debate team this year: La Velle Dale, Leonard Farr, Jack Martin and Frank Blasca. Miss Hall, Mrs. Osika and Mr. Lane acted as judges at the trials.

While Coquille will present a green team this year, evidence so far reveals that Coquille High will make a desirable showing.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.
