 Junior Bartlett, who has been working at Otis, Oregon, since his graduation from high school last spring, came home Thursday to spend the holidays with home folks, the Stanley Lake family.

Chas. Mack, who underwent a bone-grating operation at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland several weeks ago, was able to return home on Wednesday of last week.

January 3rd being Quiet Hour next Sunday, the Christian Endeavor lesson will be in keeping with the occasion, with Myrtle Beckett in charge. A delightful feature of the meeting last Sunday evening was a beautiful piano selection by Miss Marjorie Van Alstein, who will return this week to Portland after spending about ten days here with her family.

Christmas dinner guests at the Chas. Mack home were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Caris and Mrs. Elise Lamp and daughter, Frances.

After spending a few days at home Miss Dorothy Hooton left Sunday for Grants Pass, where she has arranged to do special nursing.

Clarence E. Ellison, principal of the local school, is spending the holidays with relatives and friends in Portland.

The W. A. Lett home was the scene of a jolly family gathering on Christmas eve, those present being Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilson and children, Charles, Virginia, Burton and Earl, of Sitkum, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reed and son, Gerald, of Myrtle Point, Mr. and Mrs. Orlin Lett and daughter, Joan, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lett. The Orlin Lett family, accompanied by Charles Wilson, left early the following morning to visit with Mrs. Lett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Larkins, and other relatives, at Mulino, and will also spend some time in Portland on business and pleasure. They plan to return home the last of this week.

Mrs. Elise Lamp and daughter were guests Monday evening at dinner at the A. O. Hooton home, in honor of Miss Lou Hooton's birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Culver and children returned Sunday from spending Christmas with Mrs. Culver's sister, Mrs. N. W. Perkins, and family at Canby. They also visited other relatives while on the trip.

Mrs. Dan Cribbins and Mrs. Dwight Culver went to Myrtle Point Tuesday to visit Mrs. Velma Cribbins at the Mast hospital.

Double funeral services were held for Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Lundy Saturday afternoon at two o'clock at the Methodist church with Rev. W. C. Cronk in charge. Mrs. Lundy, 74, passed away at her home Wednesday, Dec. 23, after a several months' illness with heart trouble. Mr. Lundy, 81, suffered a stroke on Tuesday, Dec. 22, and was taken to the Mast hospital, where he passed away on Thursday, Dec. 24. Mr. and Mrs. Lundy have been residents of Myrtle Point the past 25 years, coming here from Glen Elder, Kansas. They leave to mourn their loss, one son, Verne, of this city; two grandchildren, Dorothy and Robert Lundy, besides a host of friends, who mourn their passing. Interment took place in the Norway cemetery.

Mrs. Ralph Kring was hostess on Tuesday of last week for the Christmas party of the Past Matrons club. A one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon was enjoyed by the following members: Mesdames Bud Emery, of Marshfield; Henry Roslow, W. E. Lundy, Fred Schofield, John Arnold, John Belloni, W. Bell, T. D. Guerin, R. H. Lemon, Ray Dement, Raleigh Greene, Mabel Dement, A. C. Chase, and G. L. McRay. The gifts from the "unknown friend" were distributed and names drawn for the coming year. A lighted tree with Christmas greenery made a charming setting for this party.

Mrs. Rose Garrett and daughter, Margaret, arrived home Sunday and will spend this week at their home. They spent Christmas in Seattle with Mrs. Garrett's sister, Mrs. Jack Zumwalt.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Deyoe had as their guests, Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. Dale Druliner, Eckley Guerin and William Jacobson, of Lakeside, and Mrs. Agnes Kenyon, of Port Orford.
