Club Notes and Other Social Activities

The N. O. M. A. club met at the home of Mrs. Belmont Ireland Tuesday evening. The hours were spent very pleasantly in sewing and knitting. Mrs. Ruth Clayton won the prize drawing. Delicious refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames LaVerge Ellingsen, Ruth Dey, Frances Dellefen, Alice Morris, Ruth Clayton, Ferryl DeJarnett, Olive Kuhn, Yvonne Carl, Eleanor Miller, Lucille Ellison, Lorraine Perrott and the hostess.

Mrs. O. C. Sanford entertained with a lovely tea for her niece, Miss Leveille Walstrom, Tuesday afternoon from three to five. The home was most attractive with flowers and other seasonal decorations. The following ladies poured throughout the afternoon: Mesdames Harry Slack, Luckey Bonney, George Ulett and Lufe Compton. Mesdames Carl Rietman and Clarence Osika assisted about the rooms. Misses Edythe Farr, Marianne Axtell, Dorothy Glaisyer, Dorris and Marilyn Compton helped serve about fifty guests. Two very attractive little misses, Judy Slack and Sally Bonney, greeted the guests at the door.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chaney and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greenough held a lovely informal bridge party at the home of the latter Saturday evening. After an evening of contract, deli-icious refreshments were served to the following guests: Messrs. and Mesdames R. L. Stewart, J. Arthur Berg, G. A. Ulett, F. S. Emery, Lufe Compton, Hal Pierce, H. E. Hess, Carl A. Rietman, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brooks, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Brown, of Klamath Falls, and the hosts and hostesses. Mr. Ulett won high score for the men and Mrs. Pierce for the ladies.

The Justamere club ladies and husbands met at the hotel Thursday for a seven o'clock dinner. After the dinner, they went to watch the New Year make its appearance at the midnight show at the Liberty Theatre.

The N. O. M. A. club ladies and their husbands attended the dance at the Community Building New Year's eve and then repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kuhn for refreshments.

The Odo club members with their husbands had a Christmas party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hand last Saturday. Games of all kinds and a Christmas exchange were the happy diversions of the evening. The following folks won prizes at Bingo: Mesdames Mabel Kunz and O. E. Matoon, Messrs. Bert Sanders and O. E. Matoon. Delicious refreshments were served to the following members and husbands: Messrs. and Mesdames Bert Sanders, O. E. Matoon, C. W. Gano, Geo. Sherwood, Grant Wilcox, Guss Tillmann, Fred Kunz and the host and hostess.

Job's Daughters Install

Bethel No. 15, order of Job's Daughters, held their semi-annual installation of officers in Masonic Hall Monday evening. Miss La Velle Dale acted as installing officer with Dorris Compton as installing guide, Marjorie Van Alstein as marshal, Leville Walstrom as chaplain, Cherie Mae Hartwell, recorder, and Margaret Purvance, pianist. The following girls were installed: honored queen, Marilyn Compton; senior princess, Dorothy Glaisyer; junior princess, Georgianna Johnson; guide, Marion Hess; marshal, Margaret Smith; recorder, Margaret Stewart; treasurer, Elizabeth Varney; librarian, Virginia Hartson; chaplain, Eileen Percy; musician, Donna Dean Bosserman; 1st messenger, Muriel Davis; 2nd messenger, Joy Norton; 3rd messenger, Patsy Holverstott; 4th messenger, Peggy Wernich; 5th messenger, Margaret Belloni; senior custodian, Beverly Norton; junior custodian, Audrey Taylor; inner guard, Gretchen Clinton; outer guard, Ann Hawkins.

After the installation of the girls, Mrs. Lufe Compton was installed as Bethel guardian to fill out the unexpired term of Mrs. Bertha Smith, who was compelled to resign owing to home and business duties. A very lovely floral degree was tendered Mrs. Smith by nine of the officers. A huge bouquet of poinsettias and a gift was then presented to her. Miss Margaret Purvance and Mrs. June Walker sang an appropriate song, "Let us call you sweetheart." After several splendid talks a pleasant evening was brought to a close. Several of the young people then left for Marshfield to attend the O. A. C. dance.

Thieves and Another

Frank A. Blue was bound over to the grand jury by Justice Dodge at Myrtle Point, Saturday, with bail set at $1,000. He is accused of stealing a magnifying glass from Dr. McLennon.

James Barnes, the Marshfield fire department member who robbed the I. R. Tower home in North Bend on Christmas morning, was bound over to the grand jury Monday, his bail being set at $5,000. He was brought to a good deal of trouble to cover up his tracks but he was arrested by Chief Sorenson, of North Bend, within a couple of days after his burglary stunt.

Gilbert M. Keston, of Bandon, is serving ten days in the county jail for failure to send his children to school.
