Social Activities

The Missionary Society of the Pioneer Church met for their election of officers and business meeting Thursday in the church parlors. After a short business session, Mrs. Walter Oerding conducted the devotions. The following officers were elected for the year:

Pres.—Mrs. Jas. Richmond.
Vice Pres.—Mrs. Birdie Skeels
Sec.—Mrs. D. D. Dale.
Treas.—Mrs. Henry Belloni.
Asst. Treas.—Mrs. Ernest Purvance.
Supt. Social Service—Mrs. W. R. Wilder.
Supt. Program—Mrs. Henry Ellis.
Supt. Devotions — Mrs. Walter Oerding.

Supt. Study—Mrs. Lloyd Oddy.
Supt. Supplies—Mrs. Frank Leslie.
Supt. Membership—Mrs. Wm. Peart
Publicity—Mrs. R. E. Boober.

The membership committee served dainty refreshments after the meeting, in honor of four who had observed birthday recently: Mesdames Clarise Gormley, Dora Oerding, Zoe Fugelson and Lundy Peart. The missionary tea will be held January 21, in the church parlors.

The Needleworkers met at the home of Mrs. Jack Arnold Thursday for dessert luncheon. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing and knitting. Members present were Mesdames Earl Cross, Josh Ruble, E. C. Yarbrough, Frank Pook and the hostess. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Cross.

The Justamere club ladies met at the home of Mrs. L. H. Hazard for one o'clock luncheon Thursday. After luncheon, the members had a delightful time sewing and knitting. Members present were Mesdames C. J. Fuhrman, W. S. Sickels, Hal Pierce, F. L. Greenough, E. E. Johnson, O. C. Sanford, R. A. Wernich, A. J. Sherwood, M. O. Hawkins, Bert Folsom, J. L. Smith, Nels Osmundson, a guest, Mrs. Louise Carruthers, of Astoria, and the hostess.

After the dance held by Job's Daughters Friday evening, Miss Zelma Bosserman had an informal party at her home. The guests played cards, danced and had a general good time. Refreshments were served to the following young people: Misses Marilyn and Dorris Compton, Dorothy, Beth and Betty Glaisyer, Wanda Lee and June Hickam, LeVelle Walstrom, Zelma and Donna Dean Bosserman, Messrs. George Ulett, Jr., Leonard Golden, Marcus Shelley, Allington Glaisyer, Munroe Swindall, Howard Hickam, Marvin Hopkins, Lee Campbell and Forrest Kirby.

The Tuesday night bridge club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Watson this week for bridge. Mrs. Watson held high score, Mrs. Walter Litzberger, second, and Mrs. T. S. Stevens, low score. Delicious refreshments were served later to the following members and guests: Mesdames Julius Ruble, T. S. Stevens, Walter Litzberger, E. A. Walker, Donald Estes, Fred Hudson, S. L. Fitzgerald and the hostess.

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Greenough when their dinner club met Tuesday night. After dinner, the members spent the evening at contract. Mrs. R. L. Stewart winning high score. The following members were present: Messrs. and Mesdames Lave Compton, George Chaney, R. L. Stewart, F. L. Greenough and a guest, Mrs. Louise Carruthers, of Astoria.

There has recently been formed a social organization called, "The Ducky Daughters," connected with Job's Daughters. The following officers were elected a few weeks ago: Honorable Quack, Marilyn Compton; Duck, Dorothy Glaisyer; Duckling, Margaret Stewart; Quackress, Georgianna Johnson; 1st Pond, LaVelle Dale; 2nd Pond, Margaret Smith; 3rd Pond, Marion Hess. Beverly Jean Norton and Virginia Hartson were initiated into this august circle at the former meeting. Monday night, the "Ducky Daughters" met at the hotel for their meeting. Three candidates were initiated, Ann Hawkins, Patsy Holverstott and Donna Dean Bosserman. After a short business meeting, a social time was enjoyed, followed by refreshments.

Another lovely new year's eve party was the no-host affair held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Toole. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing monopoly and contract bridge. Mr. and Mrs. Leland Peterson won high score at bridge and Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Slater, low score. Refreshments were served to the following couples: Messrs. and Mesdames George Taylor, Jr., Leland Peterson, Leland Peart, R. T. Slater, Kenneth Graham and J. G. Toole.

Appointments by New City Administration Made Monday (Continued from Page One)

three months, to give the mayor and councilmen an opportunity to investigate and determine the city's present need for an engineer.

The appointments were all ratified and approved by the council as were the following standing committees named by the mayor:

Ordinance—Webb, Seeley, Wood.
Finance—Bryant, Webb, Cunningham.

Fire—Cunningham, Seeley, LeFevre.

Lights—Wood, LeFevre, Webb.
Water—Seeley, Bryant, Wood.

Park commission—L. W. Claver, L. L. Bonney, Carl Mack, T. A. Leach, O. L. Wood.

Boxing commission—Alton H. Grimes, R. L. Stewart, F. F. Schram, H. H. Hunt.

Mrs. C. A. Rietman was the new appointee on the Library board, succeeding Mrs. George Ulett. The other members of the board are Mesdames C. C. Farr, O. C. Sanford, Geo. H. Chaney, Clarence Osika.

An objection raised by Councilman LeFevre caused postponement for two weeks the selection of the city official paper.

The bond of the recorder, $1000 in amount, and of the treasurer—$5,000—remains the same as in the past. Both were approved.

The application for a restaurant license of Faith Evans, who conducts the White Spot, was granted. Sureties on her bond were C. K. Norcott and S. E. Howell.

No business was considered at this meeting, other than making the above appointments.
