Club Notes and Other Social Activities

Miss Evangeline Philbin, chairman of the International Relations committee of Oregon Business and Professional Women's clubs, spoke before an enthusiastic audience in the Pioneer church Monday evening. Her subject was, "Can We Have Security?" It was a splendid address and thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. Mrs. Bertha Smith was chairman of the program and introduced the speaker.

The program opened with an organ recital by Bobby Burns, followed by three splendid numbers rendered by Miss Muriel Dae's string ensemble. After the fine address, Rev. Geo. R. Turney sang two lovely solos accompanied by Mrs. Maud Woodyard. It certainly was an evening well spent and those who did not attend missed a rare treat.

The Wednesday night bridge club of the younger set met at the home of Mrs. Lorraine Perrott for cards this week. High score was held by Mrs. LeVerne Pernell and low by Miss Genevieve Foster. Delicious refreshments were served later by the hostess to Mesdames Evelyn Elliott, LeVerne Pernell, Fay Waggoner, Maxine Stevens, Margarita Brodie and Misses Helen Glenn, Dorothy Bunch, Eunice Carmichael, Genevieve Foster, Vera Gaslin and Beneva Volkmar.

The Monday night bridge club met at the home of Mrs. A. B. Collier this week for a seven o'clock supper. Mrs. F. C. McNelly was the hostess. Cards were later enjoyed by the following members and guests: Mesdames A. B. Collier, E. M. Kay, George Johnson, U. E. McClary, Frank Thrift, H. S. Norton, T. B. Currie and the hostess. High score was won by Mrs. Currie, second by Mrs. McClary and the traveling prize went to Mrs. Collier.

The "Friendly Seven" sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Roy Boober Tuesday afternoon for desert luncheon. The members spent the afternoon, sewing, crocheting and chatting. Those present were Mesdames Ernest Purvance, F. S. Emery, Lafe Compton, K. P. Lawrence, C. C. Southard and the hostess.

The Episcopal Guild ladies met for a potluck dinner Wednesday noon in the Parish house. After a sumptuous dinner, a short business meeting was held, followed by an afternoon of sewing. The following members were present: Mesdames W. H. Mansell, C. J. Fuhrman, R. L. Stewart, G. W. Bryant, Geo. Taylor, Sr., C. T. Selbig, A. R. Dimick, Muri Pettit, Geo. A sewing club, called the "Friendly Dozen," met at the home of Mrs. Fred Wheaton Wednesday afternoon. The following members had a most pleasant time sewing and knitting: Mesdames Grant Wilcox, Louis Fugelson, Jack Hultin, Fred Nosler, Sam Arnold, Geo. Matney, and two guests, Mrs. J. A. Martin and Miss Katherine Trendle. Delicious refreshments were later served by the hostess. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Grant Wilcox.

Mrs. H. A. Young and Mrs. J. A. Lamb held a little informal party Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Lamb for Mrs. Gertrude Lorenz, who has been visiting here from Medford for a few days. A very pleasant evening was spent in chatting and sewing. Delicious refreshments were served later by the hostesses to Mesdames J. L. Smith, Bert Folsom, Muri Pettit, Geo. Lorenz, Edna Hartson, Effie Miller, Henry Lorenz, C. A. Rietman and the honor guest, Mrs. Gertrude Lorenz.

A lovely reception was tendered the newly married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Perry, of Bandon, Sunday evening by the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Lorenz, at her home on Willard St. The following relatives and friends enjoyed this very happy occasion: Messrs. and Mesdames Henry Lorenz, George Lorenz, Muri Pettit, C. A. Rietman, Henry McCue, George Lorenz, Jr., Frederick Moore, Mesdames Edna Hartson, Caroline Lorenz, Perry, Ed Lorenz, Misses Robinson, Fay Perry, Betty Rosa, Mary Edna Lorenz, Virginia Hartson and Messrs. Carl Lorenz and Harry Lorenz.

The "Needleworkers" club met at the home of Mrs. Frank Pook for a one o'clock luncheon Thursday. After luncheon, the afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing, knitting and chatting. The following members were present: Mesdames Ray Simpson, E. A. Wimer, Jack Arnold, George Gilman, E. C. Yarbrough, Josh Ruble, the hostess and a guest, Mrs. C. J. Elwood, of Marshfield.
