

ARAGO

Herbert Carl on Monday accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cross and Miss Loden Cross to Corvallis, where he visited his brother, Wallace, who is attending O. S. C. They returned Thursday at the close of the state dairymen's meeting, which Mr. Cross went to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rackleff were hosts at a surprise birthday party in honor of their son, Ellis, Monday evening. The young people gathered at the home of Gerald Woodward and arrived at the Rackleff home in a group, making the surprise complete. The evening was spent in different games with refreshments of fruit salad and birthday cake served at the close of the evening. Those present were Miss Esther Davidson, Annie Deardorff, Leatha Munford, Mary, Jean and Anne Watkins, Maxine Rackleff, Keith Kribbs, Clyde Lillie, Milton Hammack, Charles Webb, Gerald Woodward, Ellis Rackleff and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rackleff.

Bill and Ray Ward and Lyle Rogers have left the Arago school. They have moved into the Gravel Ford district.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barklow have moved from the Charles Butler place, which they have leased for the past eight years, to Myrtle Point, where they will stay with Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Wilder until they find another ranch they can lease. Mr. and Mrs. Alden Butler, of Myrtle Point, have moved to the Butler ranch and will run it this year. Miss Iris Barklow will stay at the Flentje Perkins home while she finishes her last year in high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Root and daughters, Lois and Alyse, and Mr. and Mrs. George Weeks and Bobby were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hampton, returning to their homes in Powers the same day.

The Arago basketball squad played two games last week end. On Friday night they played the opening game of the B league schedule, winning from Coos River by a score of 27 to 17. The boys were considerably strengthened by having Barklow in center. Those playing were: Barklow, center; Fredenberg, Rackleff and Lillie, guards; Doyle, Hammack, T. Robison and Ivan Robison, forwards. Coos River reserves were victorious, with a score of 27 to 21. Eugene Laird, of Myrtle Point, refereed. Following the high school game, Myrtle Point independents played Arago, winning by a close margin.

Glencie Finley, of Johnson's Mill, came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burbank on Thursday. She was joined by her brother, Cecil, Friday evening and on Saturday their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Finley, were dinner guests of the Burbanks. The dinner was especially in honor of Mr. Finley and Mr. Burbank, whose birthdays occur on the same date this week. The young people returned to their home with their parents Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hampton left Monday for Corvallis to attend the state dairymen's meeting. They planned to return at its close on Thursday.

The B league basketball schedule is out and Arago has the following games, beginning with Coos River at Arago January 15 with a win for Arago, with Powers January 22 at Powers, Riverton January 29 at Riverton, Coos River February 6 at Coos River, Powers at Arago February 12, and Riverton at Arago in the final game February 19.

Lyle Rogers, who has been practicing with the squad all fall and playing with the reserves, has transferred to Myrtle Point as his family have moved to a ranch near Gravel Ford. Mrs. Sam Root left Sunday afternoon for the Pleasant View school, up the North Fork, where she will act as substitute teacher for this week.

Mrs. David Root was unable to be out Sunday because of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Myers spent Wednesday visiting his sister, Mrs. Jess Clinton, near Myrtle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wannamanager, of Bandon, spent Saturday night and Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. C.

McAllister, K. and Mrs. H. E. Boak and Mrs. J. F. Baker, of Bandon, spent Sunday afternoon visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Watkins and Mrs. Martha McNair.

J. W. Barnett has been suffering from sinus trouble this week. Mr. and Mrs. John Damron, of Bandon, called on Ernest Watkins Saturday night. Mr. Watkins is recovering from severe cold and threatened pneumonia.

Miss Leona Stallard, of Powers, niece of Mrs. Jess Dawron, is in the Mast Hospital recovering from a serious operation.

Miss Eldred Wilder, nee Genevieve Barklow, and small daughter, Joyce Ann, are at their home in Myrtle Point and will be glad to see their friends.

Mrs. Edith Woodward was able to attend church on Sunday for the first time since her return from Los Angeles at Christmas time. She has been suffering from a severe cold.

Bible study was held Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister, who served ice cream and cookies at the close of the lesson. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Root, Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward, David Root, Mrs. Oluf Aasen, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watkins, Mary, Jean and Anne. The book of Acts was finished.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barklow drove up from Bandon Sunday and were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Halter. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Woodward and Gerald.

Rev. W. R. Wilder, of Coquille, conducted the morning service at Arago Sunday with forty-nine at Sunday school following. Rev. W. A. Stevens, of Coquille, will preach January 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Myers and Oliver drove to Bandon Monday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barklow at their home in the Bob Otto court. They called on Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hoover and found them in comfortable quarters.

Mrs. Oluf Aasen was taken to the Coquille Hospital Tuesday for medical treatment.

John Paul is ill with the flu. Small Leonard Menegat, two month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Menegat, is somewhat better after suffering from a severe cold and cough. He is still coughing but seems to be on the mend.

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

Miss Marie Clinton has accepted a position as bookkeeper at the Eads Service Station.

Mrs. Young and two sons, of India, who have been visiting Mrs. Young's sister, Mrs. Frank Freeman, have gone to Palo Alto, California, where they will visit another sister before leaving for their home in India.

The H. D. Eones family are moving to Idaho, where they will make their home. Lester Porterfield is helping them move.

Mrs. Raleigh Greene has accepted a position as clerk in the N. P. Peterson's store for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. W. Perkins returned home from a several weeks' visit in southern California.

Mrs. Rose Garrett was able to leave the Mast Hospital Friday and return to her home.

Cecil Carter, of Grants Pass, is spending this week in Myrtle Point visiting relatives and friends.

Henry Bryant and Wm. Bell left Monday morning on a business trip to Sacramento, California.

Mrs. Powerie returned home Saturday afternoon on the stage from a several weeks' stay in Portland.

P. W. Laird left Thursday for Berkeley, California, after spending ten days in Myrtle Point on business.

Mrs. Agnes Kenyon, of Port Orford, spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Deyoe.

The Security Bank of Myrtle Point held its annual meeting Thursday afternoon and all officers of the bank were re-elected for the new year. They are N. G. W. Perkins, president; Wm. Lundy, vice president; Harry Dement, cashier; and Ralph Kring, assistant cashier.

R. D. Kring was elected president of the Myrtle Point National Farm Loan association Thursday at the or-

STORE NO. 469 Phone 122 STORE NO. 136 Phone 81

Manager's Sale!

"We've selected these values for YOU!"

FRI. & SAT. JAN. 22 & 23

NUCOA 2 lbs.	39c
Shortening 4 LB.	49c
SWIFTS 48-lb Can	$5.69
Albers Flapjack 10 Lb. Sack	47c
KELLOGG'S Pep Package	10c
Cocoa 2 LB. Can	13c
Oysters 2 Cans	25c
Sunbrite Cleanser 3 Cans	10c
Tobacco Prince Albert &amp; Velvet Pockets	10c
SLEEPY HOLLOW SYRUP Qt. Jug	33c
TUNA FISH White Star, No. 1/4 can	35c
SCOTS TISSUE 3 Rolls	25c
P &amp; G SOAP, Giant Size 6 Bars	25c
LUX SOAP FLAKES Large Size 2 Pkgs.	45c
CALO DOG FOOD 3 Cans	25c
Airway Coffee 3 LBS.	52c
Flour 49-LB. Sack	$1.37
PRIDE OF THE WEST
HOT SAUCE 6 Cans	23c
STRING BEANS, No. 2 Can 3 Cans	25c
PEANUT BUTTER, Beverley 1 Lb. Jar	19c
MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE, 1 Lb. Can	29c
COCOA Bakers 1/2 Lb. Can	10c
PEAS Del Monte No. 2 Can 2 Cans	33c
PINEAPPLE Libby's No. 1 Flat Can	9c
HOMINY Van Camps No. 2 1/2 Can	10c

Fresh Fruits and Vegetables

Grape Fruit Large	7 For 25c
Squash Banana 1/2 or Whole LB.	2 1/2c
Apples Cooking 8 LBS.	25c
China Lettuce Medium Heads 2 For	15c

SAFEWAY

DEAR NEIGHBOR:
In selecting values to advertise this week, we Safeway Managers and store employees put our heads together and tried to choose the items our experience has taught us you like to see advertised - at prices you consider attractive. This Ad is the result. We hope you like it.
YOUR SAFEWAY MANAGER

The History of Beginnings

Why we shake hands -

OUR ABORIGINAL ANCESTORS LAID ASIDE THEIR CLUBS TO SHOW THEIR GOOD INTENTIONS. WHILE HAND CLASPED HAND HOSTILITIES WERE MUTUALLY SUSPENDED

Gano Funeral Home

TELEPHONE 100 · AMBULANCE SERVICE · COQUILLE

ganization's annual meeting. Mr. Kring, E. O. Bronson, W. H. Donald, Ellis Shull and F. G. Hermann were elected directors. Mr. Bronson is the vice president and E. J. Tilley, of Coquille, is secretary-treasurer.

The Coquille Junior High basketball team played the Myrtle Point Junior High here last Saturday night. The game resulted in a score of 24-16 in favor of the local boys. The Myrtle Point Junior High girls defeated the Coquille Junior High girls in a volley ball game, 73 to 23.

Mrs. Frances Esleaser, of Portland, is spending several weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Warner.

Mrs. E. O. Sempert spent Saturday with friends in Powers, attending a party at the home of Mrs. Clare Lehmanowsky.

The Good Cheer Circle of the Christian Church held its weekly quilting meeting with a potluck dinner on Wednesday of last week.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church met Wednesday afternoon in the social parlors of the church with Mrs. T. D. Guerin and Mrs. Sarah Hermann as hostesses. After the business chicken tamales were served the guests.

Mrs. Bert Pearson entertained the Octagon club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Paul Breuer gave a review on "Gone With the Wind." Those enjoying the afternoon together were Mesdames Charles Woolridge, E. C. Barker, Paul Breuer, L. La Flamme, Marlin Evans, L. P. Linn and the hostess, Mrs. Pearson.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hatcher entertained Monday evening with a dinner party. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rickard and daughter, Rosemary, and Mr. and Mrs. Hatcher.

Deibert Steele went to Marshfield Wednesday, where he purchased a car for his laundry business.

Mrs. Chris Moller is confined to her home with influenza.

Cecil Barker returned to Eugene Sunday, after spending the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Barker.

Mrs. Leslie Barklow has left the Mast Hospital and is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Sumnerlin.

also attended a livestock meeting in Coquille Friday and gave a report on that. Mrs. Dwight Culver, Mrs. H. A. Hatfield and Mrs. Lawrence Knight were appointed on the serving committee for the next regular meeting. A potluck supper will be held at the Vern Magill home Friday evening, January 29. A resolution from the Waaco county Grange was read and approved. This resolution dealt with the surfacing and improvement of market roads. The Grange decided to put on a skit for their part on the Jubilee program to be given at North Bayside Jan. 30. Ray Beckett reported for the hall building committee and called for men to work on this project Saturday. The Lecturer's Hour consisted of a penny drill. Joseph LeClerc received first prize for staying in line longest. This was followed by the singing of nursery rhymes by all and a skit put on by Ernest Labart and four or five others whom he had chosen to assist him.

Miss Nadine Ellis has been confined to her home several days because of a severe cold and sore throat.

The Bridge school has started an interesting new department of manual training. This has been made possible because of the generosity of H. A. Hatfield, who has donated over $100 worth of tools, including a new electric band saw. He has also given his time to fit up the room for this work and will instruct the children in the care and use of the tools. Children from the fifth to the eighth grade will have the privilege of taking this work. It is hoped that additions may be made to this equipment from time to time through the donations of the various organizations in Bridge. Mr. Hatfield is a member of the executive committee of the Bridge Grange.

C. F. Gilroy returned Sunday from a visit of over seven months with relatives and friends in Rhode Island and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown and daughters, Dorothy and Eleanor, of Myrtle Point, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Heath.

Lou Hooton is getting along nicely following an operation Tuesday morning at the Mast Hospital. Her sister, Maude, is staying at the F. L. Moon home in order to be with her.

Mrs. Ray Bradford, who entered the Mast Hospital about two weeks ago for a major operation, is getting along quite well.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.