Club Notes and Other

Social Activities

The past Matrons and Patrons met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Glaisyer last Friday evening. The members had a most enjoyable time playing cards, sewing, etc. The committee, Mrs. Henry Lorenz, Mr. Theodore Clinton and Mrs. Glaisyer, served delicious refreshments to the following members: Mesdames A. J. Sherwood, C. A. Rietman, Ed Lorenz, George Lorenz, Julius Rubie, Bertha Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Compton, W. E. Bosserman, Dr. Glaisyer and Miss Edna Robison.

A small, informal party was given for Mr. A. N. Gould after the second show at the Liberty Theatre Saturday. The following couples went to the show and then to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bryant: Messrs. and Mesdames W. E. Bosserman, A. N. Gauld and G. W. Bryant. The occasion was Bert's birthday and a lovely cake was awaiting him with six candles.

Mrs. Bertha Smith and Mrs. George Unsoeld held a reception for Miss Evangeline Philbin, world-wide traveler and speaker, at the home of Mrs. Unsoeld Sunday evening. Two representatives were invited from each organization to attend the affair. A very pleasant time was enjoyed visiting and meeting with Miss Philbin.

The Friday Night Duplicate club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNelly for a seven-thirty o'clock dinner last Friday evening. After a delicious dinner, the members spent a very pleasant evening at cards. Members and guests present were Messrs. and Mesdames H. S. Norton, U. E. McClary, F. C. McNelly and Mesdames R. E. Boober and E. D. McCune.

The Past Noble Grands club met at the home of Miss Ida Oerding last Friday evening. Owing to sickness, there was not as large a crowd as usual but the members present thoroughly enjoyed themselves. After a short business meeting, several games were played. Mrs. Pansy Ross won the prize for a contest game. Sewing and knitting also filled in the pleasant hours. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. J. G. Toole entertained with a lovely party last Friday afternoon. The ladies were invited for sewing, knitting and a general good time. Delicious refreshments were served later in the afternoon by the hostess. The following ladies were invited: Mesdames Paul Simpson, Kenneth Graham, Wm. Peart, Leland Peart, Leland Peterson, G. R. Holbrook, K. P. Lawrence, Julius Rubie, Cyril McCurdy, J. J. Geaney, E. C. Ashworth, Geo. Taylor, Jr., F. C. Hudson, Harry Godard, R. E. Boober, R. T. Slater, Verne Oederkirk, Muri Pettit, Ronald Ward and Miss Robelle Oederkirk.

The Tauk-an-so club met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Ortnan Friday evening for their regular meeting. A very lovely time was had by the ladies in sewing, knitting and chatting. Mrs. Ernie Johnson assisted Mrs. Ortnan with the refreshments. The following ladies were present: Mesdames Carl Ensele, Henry Belloni, Wm. Jones, Betty St. Clair, Hazel McKibben, Norma Howe, E. B. White, M. D. Sherrard, E. E. Benham, R. M. Waggoner, Ella Sheehan, A. L. Burch, Ernie Johnson and Miss Grace Sheehan.

Job's Daughters had a very lovely tea on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Axtell. The house was most attractive with its beautifully appointed table. The young ladies are very adept at entertaining and looked most charming. Misses Audrey Taylor and Margaret Stewart poured from three to four and Misses Betty Axtell and Eileen Percy from four to five. Miss Marilyn Compton, honored guest, made a very lovely hostess; she was assisted by Misses LaVelle Dale and Marion Hess in receiving the guests. Mrs. J. E. Axtell, Mrs. Lafe Compton and Mrs. Roy Boober also assisted in welcoming the ladies. Misses Georgianna Johnson, Margaret Belloni, Donna Dean Bosserman, Gretchen Clinton and Beverly Norton assisted about the rooms. Misses Joy Norton, Muriel Davis and Patsy Holverstott helped in the kitchen. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, a large number of guests were able to come and make the tea a success.

The Tuesday night bridge club met at the home of Mrs. D. B. Estes this week. A pleasant evening of contract was enjoyed by the following members and guests: Mesdames T. S. Stevens, Fred Watson, Walter Litzenger, O. T. Gant, E. A. Walker, Geo. McClellan, A. L. Burch and the hostess. Mrs. Gant won high score and Mrs. Litzenger and Mrs. McClellan won the travelling prizes. Delicious refreshments were later served by the hostess.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

HOME FOLKS

Am I Old-fashioned?
I don't know wine from whiskey but I do know where my children are at night.

I like white bed-spreads best.
I don't like to drive over 45 miles per hour.

I can't nonchalantly knock ashes off cigarettes, for I do not smoke. I believe one can exist socially and otherwise without cigarettes.

I take cold when I wear a formal.
I love old folks, babies, and big families.

I believe eyebrows, as God gave them, strengthen a woman's character and add to her beauty. Personally, I'm glad I have mine.

I like to go to church.

Give me a white handkerchief—I've seen the new colors; coronation red, Havana brown, clipper blue and fuschia pink. Faddish! Yes, and those adorned with Scotty dogs and Mickey mice! They startle me!

I like smoked salmon.
I feel positively lonely sitting before gas and electric heaters. Give me a generous old kitchen stove with the tea-kettle singing "Home Sweet Home," or an open fireplace spreading its comforting glow over my family. That's happiness!

I like to read the Bible.
I cannot stand on the street corner and stare into my purse dabbling on complete "make-up" while the crowd stares at me.

I enjoy an evening at home.

Old songs are still my favorites.
I love old-fashioned roses. The kind Mother wore and loved. Their rare and lasting perfume hidden 'neath their common attire reminds me of plain folks in which I find pure and lasting worth!

I like to look through old, old albums.
I like men to be gentlemen. I believe the man should be the head of the house. He should also carry home the pay check.

I can miss a movie.
I love to sit in a rocking chair on the front porch (if there are any rocking chairs and front porches left) and fall across to the neighbors, or listen to the music of children's voices playing down the street, or listen to the tree-toad "hollering" for rain. I love to watch the silver stars appear in the soft evening sky. I love the quiet of life. Am I old-fashioned?

Good-bye, Elizabeth Gormley

Apostrophe to a Mule
Author Unknown

Over the hill trailed a man behind a mule drawing a plow. Said the man to the mule: "Bill, you are a mule, the son of a jackass, and I am a man made in the image of God. Yet here we work, hitched up together year after year—I often wonder if you work for me or I work for you. Verily I think it a partnership between a mule and a fool, for surely I work as hard as you, if not harder. Plowing or cultivating we cover the same distance, but you do it on four legs and I on two, I, therefore, do twice as much work as you do."

"Soon we will be preparing for a corn crop. When the crop is harvested I give one-third to the landlord for being so kind as let me use a small speck of God's earth. One-third goes to you and the rest is mine. You consume all of your portion with the exception of cobs, while I divide mine among seven children, six hens, two ducks, and a banker. If we both need shoes, you get 'em. Bill, you are getting the best of me, and I ask you, is it fair for a mule, the son of a jackass, to swindle a man—the Lord of Creation—out of his substance?"

"Why, you only help to plow and cultivate the ground, and I alone must cut, shock and husk the corn, while you look over the pasture fence and hee-haw at me."

"All fall and most of the winter the whole family, from baby up, picks cotton to help raise money to pay taxes and buy a new set of harness and pay the mortgage on you. And what do you care about the mortgage? Not a thing, you ornery cuss. I even have to do the worrying about the mortgage on your tough, ungrateful hide."

"About the only time I am your better, is on election day, for I can vote and you can't. And after election I realize that I was fully as big a jackass as your papa. Verily, I am prone to wonder if politics were made for a man or a jackass, or to make jackasses of men."

"And that ain't all, Bill. When you're dead that's supposed to be the end for you. But me? The preachers tell me that when I die I may go to hell forever. That is, Bill, if I don't do just as they say. And most of what they say keeps me from getting any fun out of life."

"Tell me, Willium, considering these things, how can you keep a straight face and look so dumb and solemn?"
