

ARAGO

Newly enrolled pupils at Arago for this term were Pat Blondell, third grade; Peggy Blondell, fifth; Bob Blondell, sixth; and Betty Blondell in the ninth. Mrs. Sam Root has been hired to assist Miss Alice Scott in the lower grade room. Miss Scott will have entire charge. At the beginning of the term a decreased enrollment indicated that two teachers could take the entire grade school but several families have moved in during the fall term and the increased number in the low grade room has made it impracticable for one teacher to handle it.

Mrs. Frank Burbank was hostess at a surprise birthday party in honor of her husband at their home on Thursday evening. The evening was spent in progressive games with prizes going to Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward, Adrian Halter and Mrs. Marvin Shaw. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Halter, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Root, Mr. and Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lafferty, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Menegat, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. George Golden and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burbank.

Miss Jessie Palmer demonstrated the use of a color chart in the home in relation to planned color schemes on Friday at an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. J. L. Burtis. The ladies enjoyed a dinner of tamale pie, fruit salad, sandwiches and string beans, planned by a lunch committee and brought by the ladies. The next meeting will finish the topic of colors and will be held at the home of Mrs. S. L. Lafferty with the lunch to be planned by Mrs. Walter Laird, Mrs. Tom Garrone and Mrs. Ernest Hammack. At the business meeting the resignation of Mrs. Sam Root was accepted and Mrs. Ernest Hammack was elected to act as chairman for the rest of the series. Those present were Mesdames Ward Evans, Walter Laird, S. L. Lafferty, Tom Garrone, A. H. Bender, Lawrence Rackleff, J. L. Burtis, C. A. Keltner, Tyrrell Woodward, John Carl, Ernest Hammack, S. C. McAllister, C. S. Webb. There will be three more demonstrations.

Miss Esther Davidson attended the basketball game in Powers Friday night and remained there overnight as guest of Miss Phyllis Spilbrink, a seventh grade teacher at Powers, whose home is also in Forest Grove. Both young ladies were graduates of the 1936 class from Pacific University. Miss Davidson returned Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Damron spent Friday and Saturday visiting and transacting business in Bandon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barklow, of Bandon, spent Saturday night and Sunday visiting his mother, Mrs. Sarah Barklow.

Mrs. R. C. Parker is confined to her bed with a severe cold.

Charles Webb was delightfully surprised Saturday evening when a group of his friends waded through the mud to bring birthday greetings, games and ice cream to him. His mother had baked two huge birthday cakes in anticipation of the occasion and a very jolly evening was spent by Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Webb, Miss Esther Davidson, Mary, Jean and Anne Watkins, Annie Dardorf, Leatha Munford, Maxine Rackleff, Gerald Woodward, Stephen Aasen, Clyde Lillie, Herbert Carl and Mamie Jones of Myrtle Point.

Milton Hammack visited with friends in Powers and vicinity after the basketball game Friday night, returning to Arago Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Robison, Tennessee, Ivan and Mary drove to Powers at noon on Friday and were dinner guests of Mr. Robison's sister.

Albert Gulstrom was called to Portland for medical treatment on Saturday. Mrs. Gulstrom and the boys spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Albert Lillie.

Arago basketball boys played their second league game at Powers Friday night and lost with a final score of 30-29 in favor of Powers. All the thrills of a whole game were packed in the first quarter. The game was fast and furious throughout. Eight fouls were called on each team but in spite of that the game was clean fought. The speed of play was the cause of the fouls. Sprague, of Powers, was tied with Ivan Robison, of Arago, for individual scoring honors with twelve points each. An injured ankle took Hammack out of play near the end of the game or the final result might have been reversed. Arago team consisted of Robison and Hammack, forwards; Fredenberg and Lillie, guards; Barklow, center, and Doyle, forward. A game is scheduled with Riverton for Friday night at Riverton. However, Arago is a bit handicapped with Barklow and Rackleff ill with flu and Hammack crippled with a bad ankle.

The road situation is becoming acute for the Arago schools. Unless the weather is very drying no school buses will be able to run as all roads leading to Arago are breaking and vehicles as large as the school trucks will soon be garaged for the winter. However if these roads are becoming impassable the problem will become county wide and due for consideration by other school boards as well as No. 3, and the action may have to be planned by the county superintendent's office. Several solutions might be worked out but something will have to be done as children can not come from a distance. Road repair is almost out of the question at this time of year. In eastern Oregon the pupils are boarded by the district near the school and that might be a possibility. At least we are not flooded out as they are in the east.

Neoma and Hazel Miller, Donald Messenger, Francis Barklow and Ellis Rackleff were absent from high school on account of illness on Tuesday.

John Carl is able to be out again after an attack of flu.

Sixty people gathered at the school house Sunday morning and attended Sunday School, W. E. Stephens, of Coquille, who had been expected, was not able to come. On Sunday, January 31, Rev. James L. Gibson, of Myrtle Point, will preach in the morning. Mrs. David Root will lead Christian Endeavor with the topic, "What do you know of our Church?"

Mrs. George Hampton became ill with the flu last Thursday night but the crisis has passed and she is better now. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lafferty stayed at the Hampton home so Mrs. Lafferty could care for Mrs. Hampton and on Sunday Everett Lafferty and son, Allen, become ill. Allen is not so seriously affected but Everett has contracted pneumonia and is very ill. Mrs. Lafferty and his brother, Fred, are running the mail route for him.

Albert Tomlinson, Ezra Messenger and Frank McKean visited the county court on Monday to protest the very muddy condition of the upper Hall's Creek road, which has become so bad that the school bus cannot make the last mile of the route and nine children are forced to walk more than two miles through mud that is almost beyond traveling. What can be done is a question as the cause is the weather, combined with the fact that too heavy hauling was done over the road at the time it was gravelled early this month. The freezing weather combined with the snow and rain has made the entire road very difficult to travel. Due to the recent low budgets the road has not been kept up properly as has been the case of many country side roads. Heavy summer travel has ground the surface fine and the road bed can not stand the strain. Nevertheless the condition is almost impossible for the children, some of whom are in the beginners class.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stallard, Charlene Stallard and Mrs. Elbert Hull, of Powers, were Thursday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Damron.

Mrs. Oluf Aasen, who is suffering from peritonitis in the Coquille Hospital, is getting along as well as can be expected, although she is in great pain.

Ellis Rackleff was taken to the Coquille Hospital on Sunday for treatment of acute bronchitis and throat infection.

BREWSTER VALLEY

The Myrtle Leaf club met at the home of Mrs. W. A. Nickason last Thursday. As this was the first meeting in the new year each one present was asked to give a new year's resolution in answer to roll call. Officers were elected for the year. They were: Mrs. W. A. Keller, president; Mrs. Perley Crowley, vice president; Mrs. W. A. Nickason, secretary, and Mrs. Oscar Durrell, assistant secretary. Plans were made to give Mrs. Minor Mead a shower on Thursday, Jan. 28. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Oscar Durrell's on Feb. 24. Delicious refreshments of fruit salad, cookies, tea and coffee were served to the following: Mesdames J. D. Laird, Jess Hicks, Ivan Laird, Elmer Wilson, Carrie Nickason, Perley Crowley, W. A. Keller, Leslie Groat, Mertie Bryan and the hostess.

Muri and Lila Mae Laird are suffering from a condition which requires sun treatments at the hospital in Myrtle Point every other day.

There were twenty-six at prayer meeting held at the Keller home Friday. The next meeting will be held at the Nickason home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Robinson and daughter, Norma Linda, drove in late Saturday evening, bringing their sedan, a truck and trailer load of household goods. They left Azusa, Calif., the Wednesday before. They stayed at the Durrell home Saturday and Sunday, while getting their new home ready to live in.

Mrs. Oscar Durrell and Mrs. Herman Gray finished papering the former's daughter's new home Friday and Mr. and Mrs. Minor Mead moved in Saturday.

Mrs. Mertie Bryan went to Bandon Friday to spend the week-end with her daughter.

Mrs. Albert Carver went to Myrtle Point Thursday and back Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Benham and Mrs. Ernest Krewson went to Portland Tuesday on a combined business and pleasure trip. They returned the following Sunday. The Benhams found the new linoleum and paper they had just put on their house practically ruined due to a bursted pipe and water had sprayed things most of the time they were gone.

Another chicken dinner was enjoyed Saturday evening at the Nickason's home. Those gathering for an evening of fun were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilson and children, Carrie Nickason, Emma Lou Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keller, Mavis and Wallace, Homer Slick and the Nickason family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mullen from Myrtle Point came to the Durrell home Friday to spend the week-end.

We have often been asked what a funeral should cost, and have as often replied: "No blanket rate can apply to a community like ours. The cost can only be determined by the selection of furnishings."
