

RIVERTON SCHOOLS

Those high school pupils who were neither absent nor tardy during the past six weeks' period were Billy Ray, Katherine Haga, Fred Porter, Lee Cox, Doris Morgan, Oran Holbrook, Grover Haga, Joseph Fetch, Caroline Fetch, Miles Hartwell, Bonita Fee, Clarabelle Chard, Louise Carlson, Clarissa Fellows and Ronald Holbrook.

Those with perfect attendance for the entire semester were Doris Morgan, Oran Holbrook, Caroline Fetch, Clarabelle Chard, Ronald Holbrook, and Clarissa Fellows.

The following pupils were exempted in one subject from the list of finals: Dorothy Porter, Lee Cox, Ralph Herman, Max Mullen and Mary Gilmore.

Those exempted from two finals were Billy Ray, Juanita Caughran, Fred Porter, Muriel Herman, Lois Auer and Maxyne Martin. From four finals three pupils were exempted: Caroline Fetch, Bonita Fee, Laura Pullen, Clarabelle Chard, Glenys Gilbert and Harriet Miller. Geraldine Gilbert, a senior, took high honors by getting out of all five subjects that she is taking. Four others were exempted from five subjects, counting health as a regular subject: ("Health," however, earns only one-sixth credit per semester) Katherine Haga, Doris Morgan, Lucille Danielson and Hazel Heffley. These last-named girls are all freshmen and sophomores this year.

On the "Honor Roll" for high scholarship (no grade below a "two") for the past six weeks' period were the following: Harriet Miller, Maxyne Martin, Laura Pullen, Bonita Fee, Hazel Heffley, Lucille Danielson, Geraldine Gilbert, Katherine Haga, and Lee Cox.

Six students were on the "Honor Roll" for the entire semester: Geraldine Gilbert (with a straight "one" average for the 4 1/2 months), Lucille Danielson, Hazel Heffley, Bonita Fee, Clarissa Fellows and Harriet Miller.

At a student assembly on Monday morning, January 25, Mr. Robinson discussed the few changes that would be made in the course of study, schedule, and rules of the school for this semester. One change in schedule brought what was the last period in the day up to the hour immediately after lunch. This change was made to make it possible for the girls to more conveniently make use of the gymnasium, which is a very busy place during the basketball season. Six different groups are using the gym for practice: Bandon high school boys, Riverton high school boys, Riverton grade boys, Bandon grade boys, Riverton independent team and the Riverton high school girls.

It is hoped that all the members of the grade and high school boards will find it possible to be present at the regular board meeting next Tuesday, Feb. 2, in order that tentative plans may be considered for next year's curricula and school organization.

The shower room for the boys was greatly improved over the Christmas vacation when the floor was resurfaced to allow the water to drain from the far corners of the room. The work was done by Mr. Fellows under Frank Van Leuven's direction.

The Smith-Hughes director, assisted by Lee Cox, made several improvements in the Smith-Hughes room where the installation of cabinets was completed and in the shop where the work benches were re-constructed.

Plans are being made to wire some of the high school rooms in the upper story of the school building. The study hall is the only room now lighted. On these dark rainy days the remaining rooms are so poorly lighted that reading puts a strain on the students' eyes.

Miss Abel is obtaining a number of books from the Oregon State Library to be used in this semester's study of American authors in the English course.

Much of the stencil cutting for the school paper is being done now by the typing I class. Several excellent speed test rates have been made by members of the class in the regular work also.

The R. H. S. Girls' club sponsored a dance on Friday evening, January 22. Those who attended had an enjoyable time. Several comments were made about the excellent four-piece orchestra that played for the dance. It is hoped that another dance can be held a little later in the year, after the driving condition are improved and the current flu epidemic has passed.

A new face greeted the American history, sewing, health, and commercial geography classes the Monday following the Christmas vacation when Miss McCoy was ill for a week with the flu and Mrs. Wayne Robinson acted as substitute teacher.

The Riverton high school students and faculty were pleased to welcome several new student-transfers from Bandon who will attend Riverton this semester. They are Frances Goodwin, Wendell Goodwin, Mabel Westley and Pauline Westley. Helen Williamson, sister of Mrs. Hepler, has entered the R. H. S. from Bell high school near Los Angeles. Helen entered school on Jan. 4 and has already made many friends in the school.

Intermediate Teachers
Teachers interested in teaching of intermediate grades will meet at Millington Saturday, January 30, at 9:30 a. m. The program which will feature music will offer something interesting to all.

4-H Leaders Elect Officers
At the 4-H leaders meeting Friday evening the following officers were elected: president, Carroll Rycraft, Riverton; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Esther Jones, Cunningham; first vice-president, Miss Frances Hill, Bunker Hill; second vice-president, Miss Freda White, Broadbent.

H. C. Seymour, state club leader, and Miss Jessie Palmer, home demonstration agent, addressed the 4-H leaders and others present on most interesting points. Mr. Seymour highly commended the 4-H leaders for their faithful leadership which is given without remuneration. He stated that for the year just closed that there had been in Coos a 84.6 per cent completion of those who had enrolled in 4-H.

Miss Palmiter spoke on the perfecting of club work and offered to help clubs which desire to have her services.

Orvil Young, who was sent to 4-H summer school by the Riverton P. T. A. last summer, gave a very entertaining report. He told of the study and play while there and wished all boys and girls could attend.

Ellis Rackleff's report of his trip to the Pacific International livestock show was read by his sister, Maxine. Ellis paid high tribute to the First National Bank of Portland, which had given him with other 4-H members, an opportunity to attend the Portland show and many other interesting places while being entertained at the Heathman hotel.

Refreshments were served by the committee. The officers who have served for the last year are Mrs. Gertrude Monson, Myrtle Point, president; Mrs. Florence Oerding, Fat Elk, vice-president, and Mrs. Anna Christensen, Valley View, secretary-treasurer.

Broadbent
Broadbent school has eliminated the remaining double seats and replaced with new singles. A sand table has also been made for the school.

Ford Dealers' Winter Clearance of Used Cars
Aiming to put into the hands of new owners sound, dependable used cars and trucks, the Niles Motor Co., local Ford dealer, is participating beginning this week in the first statewide "winter clearance" of used cars sponsored by Ford dealers, according to Clyde E. Niles.

"Our service shop has been working at top speed, preparing scores of R & G used cars for the clearance," stated Mr. Niles. "Due to the outstanding reception of the 1937 Ford V-8 cars and trucks and trade-ins on these models, we have on hand what is probably our finest stock of dependable, guaranteed used cars."

"We feel that the Ford R & G used car plan, which means renewed and guaranteed used cars, has given our customers and friends further confidence in the purchase of used cars from our organization. Under the R & G plan we have carefully checked every car bearing the R & G safety seal. Engine, chassis, ignition, carburetion, brakes and tires have been inspected and repaired or replaced if found necessary.

"Our clearance of R & G used cars, trucks and commercial cars meets the needs of hundreds of motorists and business men who wish to drive a car during the hazardous winter and early spring months that will serve with reliability and safety. That is why we are holding this mid-winter sale and offering R & G used cars with a money-back guarantee."
