BRIDGE

John Huff, who received an injury to his knee last week while putting logs into the river, was able to return home from the Mast hospital Tuesday afternoon, his knee having been placed in a cast.

The school here closed Tuesday evening for the remainder of the week as a precautionary measure against the flu.

Mrs. A. O. Hooton returned home Tuesday after an overnight visit at the Forrest L. Moon home in Myrtle Point.

Mrs. Elise Lamp spent the past week-end in Drain, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Laswell.

John Gordon passed away Monday at the Mast hospital in Myrtle Point, where he had been taken a few days previously, suffering with pneumonia and other troubles. The funeral was held Tuesday in Myrtle Point. Mr. Gordon, who was in his sixties, had spent most of his life in this vicinity. Daniel Cribbins, of this community, is an uncle of the deceased.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reed and son, Gerald, of Myrtle Point, were dinner guests Sunday at the home of her brother, Orin Lett.

Tommy Culver was absent from school Monday and Tuesday, having been unfortunate enough to jump onto a board Sunday with several nails in it, four of them entering his foot.

In spite of the hindrance of cold and stormy weather, quite a bit of work has been accomplished on the new Grange hall.

Miss Lou Hooton was able to return home Wednesday afternoon from the Mast hospital in Myrtle Point, where she submitted to an operation last week. Forrest L. Moon and niece, Mrs. Claude Moore, took her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Panoast returned last week from Portland, where they had been for about ten days.

Church Burned at Fairview

Fire completely destroyed the Fairview church last Saturday evening. The piano, benches, lamps, etc., were saved, but the Sunday school supplies and song books burned. Sunday school will be held in the school house.

The fire evidently started from an overheated stove or pipe. Preparations were being made for the Grange meeting that night, but no one was in the building at the time when neighbors saw the smoke issuing from the building.

The insurance carried was $1,000, but with the addition of kitchen and dining room made a year or two ago the loss was several times the amount of the insurance.

Due to the heavy rain falling the residence and garage alongside the church were saved.

Mrs. Lilly Berkhimer returned to her home in Fairview on Wednesday of this week. She left early last spring.

The roads in Fairview are extremely muddy and rough now but are not impassable yet.
Donald Phillips, Viola Johnson, Cecil Langdon and Marie Birch motored to Roseburg Tuesday and returned here next day.

Air Corps Enlistments Open

Major H. D. Bagnall, army recruiting officer, 323 New Post Office building, Portland, announces today that the Portland recruiting district, embracing the state of Oregon, has been granted authority to enlist qualified men for the Army Air Corps at Hamilton Field, San Rafael, California.

This is an excellent and unusual opportunity for interested young men, one which occurs but seldom, and enlistments for this station have only been made possible by the fact that authority has been received from the War Department to recruit the field up to its full authorized strength.

Major Bagnall also announced vacancies in the different branches at Vancouver Barracks, Forts Lewis, Worden and Lawton, all in the state of Washington.

To be eligible for enlistment a man must be between the ages of 18 and 35 years, single and without dependents, in good health, and able to furnish excellent character references. Criminals or men with past criminal records will not be accepted for service in the United States army.

For the convenience of men living in this district army recruiting stations are maintained at the Portland postoffice and in the Miner building at Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Briggs, of Myrtle Creek, were Myrtle Point business visitors Monday.

Myrtle Camp, R. N. A., held its annual installation of officers last week with Ruby Northup as installing officer and Ada Lemon ceremonial marshal. Officers for the coming year are: oracle, Blanche Felcher; past oracle, Laura Schroeder; vice, Eva Hazelwood; chancellor, Stella Reed; recorder, Gladys Evans; receiver, Ethel Miller; marshal, Danford Mast; managers, Sarah Mast and Nellie Ray; musician, Florence Evans; flag bearer, Ruby Northup.

A number of the members of the Chamber of Commerce and Lions club were given a special tour of inspection through the new plywood plant of the Smith Wood-Products plant at Coquille Thursday afternoon.

Miss Hildred Redell, who has been ill with pneumonia, is reported improving. Her brother, Charles, is also confined to his home with flu.

Miss Mattie Huling has closed a deal selling her home on the corner of Sixth and Maple streets to Perry Roper. This property has been the Huling home for over 30 years, going to C. E. Huling and Mattie upon the death of their parents a number of years ago. Miss Huling has moved into the home of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Lundy on Sixth street.

Mr. Roper is an employee of the Standard Oil Co. and also conducts the Roper Variety store.

The following students of the Myrtle Point high school are on the honor roll for the past six weeks: seniors, Eileen Brack, Helen Breuer, Beryl Williams; Eda Smith, Charles Smith, Jerene Burgess, Luanna Frye, Zella Mae Moon, Harriett McRay, Jim Hoover, Belva Hayes, Dorothy Gurney and Vashon Hall; juniors, Mary Dye, Wilmont Hoffman, Bruce Wilks, Pauline Strong, Gene Boniksen, Jim Brewster, Douglas Danville and Sam Dement; sophomores, Dorothy Bender, Alice Belshaw, Gladys Graham, Martin Keeley, Ruth Wallace, Wanda Endicott, Erwin Gant, Lavaun Hammack, Eldon Hermann, Ernestine Luthy, Glenn Olsen, Helen Smith, Aileen Strong, Robert Swenson and Don Trigg; freshmen, Fern La Flamme, Esther Wolff, Ala Wilson, Roy Brewster, Margie Dey, Stanley Felsner, Pauline Floyd, Julian Freeman, Mabel Griffey, Deane Lansing, George Luthy, Ivan Mast, Patsy Oylear and Kenneth Stevens.

Mrs. A. H. Pence, of eastern Oregon, is spending this week visiting at the home of her friend, Mrs. T. M. Stover.

The Myrtle Point schools were closed Tuesday until next Monday because of so many flu cases in the city.

Mrs. M. J. Morrison left Monday for Salem, where she will spend this week visiting relatives and friends.

The January meeting of the Myrtle Point Woman's Club was held Monday afternoon in the city hall with Mrs. N. G. W. Perkins in charge of the program on "World Peace." Rev. Perry Smith, of Roseburg, national chaplain of the V. F. W., gave a talk on world peace.

Mr. and Mrs. John Widmark and children, Oma and Elvin, of Powers, moved to Myrtle Point Sunday, where Mr. Widmark has employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Moore, of Vancouver, Wash., are spending this week with Mrs. Moore's brother, F. L. Moon, and family.

Rev. F. H. Barr left Saturday for Chicago, Ill., where he will attend the annual field men's conference of the Church of the Brethren. He will
