Langlois Lady Dies Monday

Mrs. Margaret Cameron, wife of Clifford H. Cameron, of Langlois, passed away last Monday and was buried in the Catching creek cemetery, with the Gano Funeral Home officiating. Services were conducted at the Brethren Church in Myrtle Point at two p. m. Wednesday. She was born in Myrtle Point Feb. 20, 1914.

Beside her husband she leaves four children—Shirley Madge 4, Clifford and Leona Margaret, twins of 3, and a new born babe. There are also her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Higgins, of Myrtle Point, three brothers, Everett S. Higgins, of Langlois, Wm. H. of Myrtle Point, Lester D. of Broad-bent, and one sister, Mrs. Ona P. Barrows, of Langlois.

Recorder Collects $15 in Fines

Tom Herbert, not the Smith Wood-Products employee who is in the Coquille Hospital, was again arrested last Thursday night and his companion, L. M. Earley, was taken with him. Both were drunk and committing the same nuisance. Herbert paid his $10 fine and $5 for his friend who served two days in jail for the balance.

Jno. H. Hess, of Bandon, drunk and making a disturbance at the city hall, was arrested the first of the week. He had a ten dollar fine, which he had promised to pay, hanging over him since last October, so Recorder Leslie ordered him put away for a ten-day stay.

Hess Sells Home to Laird

The pending deal by which Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Laird, of Bandon, acquired the H. E. Hess home on East First street was completed last Saturday morning and the purchasers will occupy it as soon as Mr. and Mrs. Hess have moved. Mr. Hess' plans are still indefinite as to where they will live or what he will do.

Knife Hospital

Dillard Junior Wilson, Powers youth, on Saturday, and Mrs. C. P. Zumwalt, Coquille, on Sunday, were dismissals from the hospital the past week. Both were surgical cases.

W. H. Mansell was admitted on Wednesday for an operation, and John Darby submitted yesterday to a major operation.

To View Green Acres Road

The county court this week granted the petition of the Green Acres district residents and named March 9 as the date for the county road viewers—F. A. Robb, E. H. Kern and E. A. Wimer—to view, lay out and survey the proposed road in the Isthmus Inlet bottoms.

Southwestern Robbed Fri. Night

The first reported entering of a business house in Coquille for several months occurred last Friday night when some thief entered the rear of the Southwestern Motor Co. garage and took a radio and heater. The cables and connections for the radio were not touched rendering the instrument useless unless the thief can find a car dealer who will sell the necessary equipment, or else he goes back to the Southwestern for it some night.

Gets Regular P. O. Position

Marion Clayton, who has been substitute carrier and more recently clerk in the Coquille postoffice, has received his appointment as regular clerk. The appointment becomes effective April 1.

Just how soon a third regular carrier will be added to the list of employees is not known, but there are three on the job most of the time now.

Legion Auxiliary Session

The regular business meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held Monday evening, Mar. 8, at 8:00 p. m. After the business session they will hold a box social with the Legion. Bring basket, not too fancy, with lunch enough for two. All ex-service men and wives are cordially invited.

The Zodiac Club

Attention Zodiac Club Members: The Keno party will be held March 13, Saturday evening, at the home of Mrs. Gladys Wheeler, instead of Mar. 17.

New Studio Opens

The LeMille Studio, photographing and photo developing is now open in the Laird building, second floor, at the head of the stairs.

To introduce ourselves and our work we are offering to develop free the first roll of film brought to us by each customer who brings this adv. with him or her. Printing will be charged for.

Mr. A. Miller, who formerly had a studio in Powers, studied photography in Los Angeles and is posted on all the latest methods of developing and photography. We also do picture framing.

Visitors are invited to the studio.
