Mrs. Frank Thrift entertained her Monday Night club this week for desert bridge. Mrs. U. E. McClary won high score as well as the travelling prize and Mrs. F. C. McNelly, second. The following members were present: Mesdames F. C. McNelly, A. B. Collier, U. E. McClary, H. S. Norton, E. M. Kay, George Johnson, a guest, Mrs. E. C. Ashworth, and the hostess.

The "Friendly Seven" sewing club met at the home of Mrs. K. P. Lawrence on South Henry street Tuesday for desert luncheon. Sewing, knitting and chatting were the diversion of the afternoon. The following ladies were present: Mesdames G. A. Ulett, Ernest Purvance, F. S. Emery, R. E. Boober, Wm. Ulett and the hostess.

The Episcopal Guild ladies met in the Parish House Wednesday for their regular meeting. After a business meeting, the ladies spent the afternoon sewing and chatting. Refreshments were served by Mesdames A. J. Sherwood and W. H. Mansell to the following: Mesdames C. T. Selbig, Jas. Watson, C. J. Fuhrman, Bert Folsom, R. K. Krausse, Chas. Stauff, Annie Robison, L. H. Hazard, Louis Charneski, E. L. Vinton, Ida Owen, A. R. Dimick, and Rev. G. R. Turney.

The O. D. O. club met at the home of Mrs. Guss Tillmann on Willard St. last Friday afternoon. The ladies spent a most pleasant afternoon sewing, knitting and chatting. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess later in the afternoon to the following members and guests: Mesdames Fred Kunz, Grant Wilcox, H. E. Huddle, John Jayes, C. W. Gano, H. G. Frey, O. E. Mattoon, Lee Hand, Roy Willoughby, Sherwood and Mrs. Isom Clinton, of Marshfield.

Mrs. Frank Schram entertained with a lovely dinner party Sunday for her son, Frank, the occasion being his birthday. The room and table looked most festive with cut flowers. The following friends enjoyed this happy occasion: Miss Kay Miller, of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Craig Perrott, Mr. and Mrs. Denton Ellingsen and Russell Wilson. The guest of honor received many lovely gifts.

Job's Daughters met for a special session Monday evening in Masonic Hall as Mrs. Cora Young, grand guardian of Oregon, made her official visit and tour of inspection. There was a large group of dads, mothers and friends present to welcome Mrs. Young. Among those present was Mr. Ernest Purvance, associate vice grand guardian of Oregon, and the Honored Queen of Marshfield, Miss Evelyn Dentley, with four members from the Marshfield Bethel. Mrs. Young was presented with flowers and a gift from the local Bethel. Miss Clarabel Watson was initiated into the order. At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Young gave a splendid and inspiring talk to the girls. The "Ducky Daughters" had charge of the banquet hall decorations, which were most artistic in their "ducky" display. Refreshments in keeping with the occasion were served after the session.

The L. L. Duplicate club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. McNelly last Friday evening for dinner. After a delicious repast, duplicate bridge was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. McNelly won high score. The following members were present: Messrs. and Mesdames H. S. Norton, U. E. McClary, R. E. Boober, and the hosts.

Mrs. Cyril McCurdy and Mrs. Leland Peterson entertained with a party for Mrs. Henry Hartley at the home of Mrs. Peterson last Thursday afternoon.
