

SPECIAL

Four Piece Bedroom Suite

BED VANITY
BENCH CHIFFONIER
 Simmons Coil Spring Forty Pound Cotton Mattress
 One Pair Feather Pillows

$55.95

Gould Furniture Co.

Coquille Phone 49-M Oregon

A Satisfying Selection of Your Grocery Store

means satisfactory quality in your food supplies, delivered to you with satisfactory service. Our standard of business methods for more than twenty-one years has been to give to the people who make their purchases at our store the best obtainable in food products at prices which mean true economy.

For Early Spring Menus

- Artichokes
- Spinach
- Brussels Sprouts
- Fresh Tomatoes
- Rhubarb

The grocery store longest in continuous service in Coquille

Phone
69

Busy Corner Grocery

THE MAKE-IT-RIGHT STORE

Free
Delivery

Club Notes and Other

Social Activities

The Eadriens met at the home of Mrs. J. L. Aasen on So. Coulter street for luncheon Monday. After a delicious meal the members enjoyed the afternoon sewing and knitting. The following members were present: Mesdames W. V. Glaisyer, W. E. Bosserman, George Johnson, Earl Noster, J. E. Axtell and the hostess.

The American Legion Auxiliary met for their regular meeting Monday evening. After a short business session, the following program was enjoyed by the members and husbands: two songs sung by some Juniors, Emma Frances Mulkey, Louise Woodyard, Beverly Norton, Margaret Stewart, Marion Hess and Elsie Gray, accompanied by Mrs. Maud Woodyard; tap dancing by Elaine Gray, Barbara Leslie and Dorothy Glaisyer, accompanied by Mr. Harold Smith. Community singing was then enjoyed by all. This was followed by a basket social, the baskets being sold to raise money for the treasury. The Auxiliary plans to have a cooked food sale March 27.

Mrs. J. G. Toole entertained her afternoon bridge club for desert luncheon last Friday afternoon. Two extra tables were included. The decorations and refreshments were in keeping with St. Patrick's day. A very enjoyable time was spent playing bridge. Mrs. Paul Simpson won high score for the club members; Mrs. R. G. Whidden, high score for the guests, and Mrs. Kenneth Graham won the low prize. The following members and guests were present: Mesdames L. E. Phipps, F. A. Robb, J. E. Axtell, Paul Simpson, Leland Peart, Harry Godard, J. D.

Gillespie, E. C. Ashworth, Julius Ruble, R. E. Boober, Leland Peterson, R. T. Slater, F. R. Hendricks, Verne Oederkirk, Kenneth Graham and R. G. Whidden, of Glenwood, Alberta, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor entertained with two tables of bridge Saturday evening at their home on No. Coulter street. The decorations were in keeping with St. Patrick's day. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ruble won high score at contract. Delicious refreshments were served by the host and hostess to Messrs. and Mesdames C. K. Norcott, R. E. Boober and Julius Ruble.

The "Friendly Dozen" met at the home of Mrs. Sam Arnold on the Marshfield highway Wednesday afternoon. The ladies spent a pleasant afternoon in sewing, knitting and a general good time. Refreshments were served later in the afternoon by the hostess to the following members: Mesdames Grant Wilcox, Louis Fugelson, George Matney, Jack Hultin, Fred Wheaton, Fred Nosler, Earl Carlisle, H. W. Kelley and guests: Mesdames Ella Black, C. V. Smith, A. G. Trendle and Miss Katherine Trendle. The club will meet with Mrs. Fugelson in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Oddy entertained a few friends at their home Wednesday evening. A most pleasant time was spent playing games. Delicious refreshments were served later in the evening to Messrs. and Mesdames D. D. Dale, J. L. Smith, T. Slater and Mrs. C. W. Gano.

The Junior Woman's Club met in the Guild Hall for their regular meeting Monday evening with Mrs. Eleanor McClellan, vice president, in the chair. The club decided to postpone their card parties until after Lent. Marshfield is entertaining the convention of Junior Clubs on Sunday so several members planned to go.

Mesdames Harold Gould and Jos. Sayre served refreshments to several members and the following guests: Misses Gertrude McCoy, Helen Abel, Jennelind McKnight, Grace Daley, and Mesdames Gertrude Swinney, Esther Jensen, Bernice Ireland, Ruth Dey and Dorothy McCue.

The Episcopal Guild ladies met in the Parish House Wednesday afternoon for their regular meeting. After a short business meeting, the ladies spent the afternoon sewing. Refreshments were served later by Mesdames George Lorenz and Muri Pettit to the following ladies: Mesdames L. A. Greene, Chas. Stauff, Ida Owen, A. R. Dimick, C. T. Selbig, Jas. Watson, A. L. Beck, W. H. Mansell, Lloyd Rosa, A. J. Sherwood, J. D. Gillespie, and Rev. G. R. Turney.

The Wednesday Duplicate club, which has now been christened "Fenscam," met for luncheon at the hotel this week. The members later went to the home of Mrs. J. L. Aasen for the last game of this series. The four who held the highest scores for the series were: Mesdames R. E. Boober, J. L. Aasen, Claire Gray and Hal Pierce. The club plans to entertain their husbands next week. Those present Wednesday were: Mesdames M. R. Thomas, H. W. Pierce, David Rackleff, Claire Gray, Bert Folsom, J. L. Aasen, R. L. Stewart and R. E. Boober.

Mrs. E. D. McCune entertained with two tables of bridge at her home on North Henry street Wednesday evening. A delightful evening was spent playing contract bridge. Miss Marjory Lang won high score and Mrs. Verrill McCurdy the travelling prize. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the following guests: Mesdames Chas. Haglund, Ralph Cochran, Harold Gould, Verrill McCurdy, Lester Wilson, Grace Daley and Misses Jennelind McKnight and Marjory Lang.

Mrs. Anna Ellis and her sister, Mrs. Alta Walbert, of Portland, were entertained by the officers of Beulah Chapter at a no-host luncheon at the hotel Thursday. After the luncheon, Mrs. Ellis held school of instruction for the officers of Beulah Chapter in the Masonic Hall.

Mrs. E. C. Cross entertained the "Laf-a-lot" club Thursday afternoon. A most enjoyable time was spent sewing and chatting. Delicious refreshments were later served to the following ladies: Mesdames W. H. Myers, Ed Detlefsen, John Martin, O. K. Rakestraw and Fred Martin.

The Loyal Women's class of the Church of Christ met at the home of Mrs. O. Hardenbrook on Knowlton Heights Thursday afternoon for their monthly meeting. After a short business session, a social time was enjoyed by the ladies. The class has a birthday box in which are articles contributed by the members and at each meeting members who have celebrated birthdays draw a gift out. Thursday Mesdames V. L. Bailey, Cal Young, Frances George and Harold McCue were the lucky ladies. Delicious refreshments were served later in the afternoon to the following ladies: Mesdames V. L. Bailey, Henry Cardwell, Cal Young, M. O. Hooton, H. G. Frey, C. C. Farr, Harold McCue, Ed Aasen, Earl Downing, Fred Schaefer, Steve Dey, John Sanders, Willard Sloan, J. A. Staninger, Frances George and Miss Jennie Lafferty.

Mrs. O. C. Sanford entertained with a tea at her home Wednesday afternoon for her sister, Miss Ella Walstrom, of Marshfield. The following ladies were present: Mesdames J. A. Lamb, C. J. Fuhman, M. O. Hawkins, Lloyd Rosa, A. J. Sherwood, Roy Barton and Mrs. Gage, of Seattle, Washington.

The K. Y. N. club met last week at the home of Mrs. Rufus Amend for their monthly meeting. About fifteen members were able to attend. A pleasant afternoon was spent sewing and chatting, after which refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Thursday Contract club met at the hotel for one o'clock luncheon this week. After the luncheon, the ladies went to the home of Mrs. F. L. Greenough for cards. The following ladies were present: Mesdames G. A. Ulett, F. S. Emery, F. L. Greenough, W. S. Sickels, George Chaney, R. L. Stewart, M. R. Thomas and Louis Charneski.

Mrs. Jos. Knight entertained her bridge club for 1:30 o'clock luncheon Thursday. The decorations and refreshments were emblematic of St. Patrick. After a delicious luncheon, the ladies had a pleasant afternoon playing contract bridge. Mrs. Geo. Johnson won high score and Mrs. John Belloni, second. The following members and guests were present: Mesdames John Arnold, Dick Arnold and John Belloni, of Myrtle Point, and Mesdames M. M. Newdall, Geo. Johnson, Ray Rickman, C. P. Zumbelt, Etta J. Nussell and the hostess. The club will meet with Mrs. Newdall in two weeks.

Buy local bread and support home industry.

INEZ ROVER
 Accredited Piano Teacher
 Beginners and Advanced Instruction in Piano and Organ.
 Tel. 30-L 105 W. Second

Coquille Club to Observe

National B. & P. W. Week

Next week's National B. & P. W. week. On Sunday evening the Business and Professional Women's club will attend the Pioneer Methodist church in a body. Special music will be featured. Monday evening, the club will meet at the Pioneer Hall for a six-thirty o'clock dinner. The public relations committee will have charge of the affair. Short talks will be made by the presidents of the following organizations: Woman's Club, Junior Women's Club, Lions Club, Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce and the 20-30 Club. P. W. Lane, superintendent of schools, will also speak. There will be special music by Mrs. Maud Woodyard and Rev. G. R. Turney, also some numbers by a group of sophomore girls. Wednesday evening, March 17th, the members will be taken through the new Plywood Factory.

The following is the proclamation issued by Mayor Rankin in regard to National B. P. W. week:

Whereas, March 14th to March 20th, inclusive, of the year 1937, has been declared at National Business Women's Week, and,

Whereas, it is fit and proper that said Week should be set aside as National Business Women's Week, and every individual co-operate to the fullest extent in making said week a successful annual event.

Now Therefore, I, J. D. Rankin, Mayor of the City of Coquille, Coos County, Oregon, by and through the authority vested in me, do hereby proclaim and declare March 14th to March 20th, inclusive, of the year 1937, as National Business Women's Week.

Week and hereby request that all parties interested therein co-operate with other individuals throughout this country in making this a successful event.

J. D. Rankin, Mayor.

Marriage Licenses

Mar. 6—Vern L. Knight, of Bridge, and Beulah Davidson, of Myrtle Point. They were married at the Assembly of God parsonage in Myrtle Point last Saturday by Rev. E. James Cornwall.

Mar. 6—Chas. H. Cole and Dora Belle McMullen, both of Myrtle Point. They were married Saturday by Justice E. A. Dodge at his office in Myrtle Point.

Mar. 8—Rennert Henderlie and Florence Carpenter, both of North Bend.

Mar. 8—Isaac Thomas Storm, of Bandon, and Ruth Delores Anderson, of Denmark. They were married on Monday by Justice C. A. Barton at his office here.

Mar. 8—Ralph Michelbrink and Ida Walker, both of Marshfield.

Mar. 11—Paul Stibitz and Merle Weekley, both of Myrtle Point.

Mar. 11—Douglas Bennett and Elsie Erwin, both of Marshfield.

New Cases in Circuit Court

Mar. 5—A. E. Seaman vs. B. O. and Marjorie Emery.

Mar. 6—Eva Travor vs. Elton and M. T. Aasen.

Mar. 11—Bessie M. Trembley vs. John Trembley. Suit for divorce.

Mar. 11—Ora V. Lundell vs. G. H. Doby.

Silix Coffee Makers, 4, 6, and 8 cup sizes, and all repair parts and strainer cloths at Hooton Electric Shop.

Lard

Pure kettle rendered Lard while the present supply lasts at the following prices:

- 1 lb Carton - - - - - 18c
- 2 lb Carton - - - - - 35c
- 4 lb Pail - - - - - 70c
- 8 lb Pail - - - - - $1.30
- 50 lb Can lb - - - - - 13c

Phone 20

J. L. STEVENS

Peoples
 MARKET
 "Your Ideal Meeting Place"

Finance Your New Car

with the First National Bank and insure with the Pacific National Fire Insurance Company

George E. Oerding
 Agent

Office Phone 209-L

Rec. Phone 604-J