Senior Girls Entertained

Twenty-five Senior girls were entertained Monday evening by the Coquille Business & Professional Women's club at the Coquille Hotel. Each club member present was responsible for one of the girls for the evening and all were happily acquainted soon.

A dessert lunch was served and a program of speaking and music was enjoyed. Mrs. Flora Compton presided. Mrs. Bertha Smith gave the address of welcome and Dorothy Glaisyer gave the response.

Two musical artists entertained. Mrs. Fred Jensen gave two numbers on her violin, while Mrs. Mildred Tyrrell sang "I Love Life" and a selection from "Maytime." The former was accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins and the latter by Miss Inez Rover.

Five women of the club gave one-minute talks on colors as each depicts some quality of the business or professional woman. Phyllis Hall chose yellow, Geneva Agostino green, Clara Bosserman rose, Margarita Brodie blue and Harriet Osika white. Mrs. Jesse Beyers led the group in a community sing and Geneva Agostino led in the club collect.

The list of the young ladies in the 1937 graduating class appears in an item elsewhere and all were present at the dinner Monday evening except Anita Milani, Ida Gerlach, Hazel and Vivian Morris and Josephine Robinson.
