

ARAGO

Mr. and Mrs. Art Doyle, of Gaylord, visited Mrs. Daisy Doyle, on Monday. It was in the nature of a farewell visit for a time as they left Tuesday for Camas Valley, where he will be mechanic and donkey driver in a logging camp this summer. From Arago they drove to the homes of Gordon and Ray Fleming, formerly of Arago, and were dinner guests there.

Miss Ruth Keltner came in from Portland Sunday night and will remain with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Keltner, until her mother's health is better. Annie Deardorff, who had been staying at Keltners during Mrs. Keltner's illness, returned to her home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Halter, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watkins and daughters, Mary, Jean and Anne, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Woodward.

Albert Gulstrom, who underwent an operation at the Coquille hospital Friday morning, is getting along as well as can be expected. He will be in the hospital at least three weeks.

Jess Damron, who is employed at North Bend, returned to his home Saturday night. Mrs. Damron accompanied him when he returned Monday and spent the day with her sister, Mrs. Manfred Rathbun, in Bunker Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Damron, of Bandon, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watkins, Myrtle Point, on Monday.

The April Missionary meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Edith Woodward on Wednesday with the president, Mrs. Nile Miller, presiding and Mrs. C. S. Webb leading the program. Mrs. Sam Root played a piano solo and several readings followed the devotional period. Those present were, Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward, Mrs. Nile Miller, Mrs. Oluf Aasen, Mrs. Sam Root, Mrs. David Root, Mrs. Ernest Watkins and Mrs. Edith Woodward and Mrs. C. S. Webb.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Farrier and Jack were Sunday evening callers on Mr. and Mrs. Art Doyle near Gaylord. Mrs. Farrier is improving rapidly from her recent illness.

The Thursday evening bible class was held at the home of Joel Root under the leadership of David Root. Those present were Mrs. Naomi Robison, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Munford and Leatha, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watkins, and Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Nile Miller and Gladys, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister and Mary Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Root, Mrs. Oluf Aasen, Mrs. Ward Evans, Miss Alice Scott, Mr. and Mrs. David Root and John Paul, George Gillespie and Joel Root.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister and Mary Jean, Miss Esther Davidson and Mrs. Oluf Aasen were Friday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Haberly in Myrtle Point. They attended the faculty play in the evening.

L. R. Jensen, of Tule Lake, California, was a Thursday overnight guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Carl.

Rev. G. A. Gray, of Coquille, preached at Arago Sunday morning. Melden Carl took office as the new superintendent at Sunday school afterwards. The quarterly reports were read and thirteen had been present without absence during the entire quarter. Nile Miller led Christian Endeavor. Next Sunday Rev. W. R. Wilder will have charge of the morning service. There will be a special musical number during the Sunday school hour and in the evening John Carl will lead the Christian Endeavor and Rev. George R. Turney will preach.

The Senior class declared a holiday for themselves on Wednesday of last week and celebrated the sunshine by going on a picnic. Some way the juniors got wind of it and followed them so the lunch had to be shared. They ate their noon meal near the life saving station at Port Orford and in the evening had a bonfire at Bandon. One senior, Marguerite Robison, was not able to attend because of a mumps quarantine. The group who enjoyed the day were, Jean and Mary Watkins, Hazel and Neoma Miller, Francis Barklow, Alvin Fredenberg, Ellis Rackleff, Clyde Lillie, Milton Hammack and Stephen Aasen.

Howard Amos is down with the mumps. This is the second case in the lower grade room.

Miss Lois Robison is making a satisfactory recovery from the mumps.

Glenda Jean Lillie has been quite ill for the past week and is still confined to the house.

Milton Hammack was host to a group of his friends Saturday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hammack. Those enjoying the evening of music and games were, Clyde Lillie, Stephen Aasen, Leatha Munford, Annie Deardorff, Mary, Jean and Anne Watkins, Tim and Mamie Jones and Milton Hammack.

Betty and Junior McLean are absent from school on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. DeFrees have rented a place near Gravelford and plan to move when school closes.

The high school juniors under the chairmanship of Clyde Lillie are making elaborate plans for a carnival to be held April 23. There will be a big free program which will include two one-act plays. One will be put on by the eighth grade girls and the other by a cast which will include: Mr. and Mrs. George Hampton, Lawrence Rackleff, Leatha Munford, Charles Webb, Annie Deardorff, Mary and Jean Watkins and others who are new to this community and very talented. The usual games and concessions with a variety of acts will also be available. The proceeds will go for the student body debt, caused by an interrupted basketball schedule.

Tuesday afternoon Andrew Smalley, one of Coos county old settlers, became violently ill, suffering a slight stroke. Mr. Smalley was eighty-four years old the third of April and has not been in the best of health for some years, although he has helped his son, Ben, run their large ranch on Hall's Creek all of the time. His daughters, Mrs. Joe Bugnuda and Mrs. Allie Bartlett have been helping care for him until a nurse can be secured.

Wednesday, April 21, has been set for a pot luck supper and business meeting of the church. The meeting will be held at six forty-five in the aid kitchen and all who are interested are cordially invited to attend.

Janice Lafferty, six-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lafferty, had a serious sick spell at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Guerin in Myrtle Point, last week-end. She is getting better this week. She suffered an attack of appendicitis. No operation will be necessary at this time.

Monday's storm brought a high water to this section, overflowing the Arago lane and filling the lowlands near the Myrtle Point bridge. Quite possibly Arago will be isolated as in winter before the storm is over.

The recently completed baseball field on the school grounds was the scene of a lively game Sunday afternoon when the high school team challenged a team composed of all comers. The score keepers were not very efficient, however, as both teams vigorously claim the victory.

Shelby McAllister, of Catching Inlet, and Miss Nadine Russell, of Langlois, were Sunday dinner guests at the S. C. McAllister home.

BREWSTER VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nickason went to Myrtle Point Tuesday; Mr. Nickason to see the doctor about the cast he is wearing on his leg.

Rev. E. L. Boles and family left their home at Dora last week for Silverton, where they will start a Pentecostal church.

Mrs. Oscar Durrell, Mrs. Minor Mead and Mrs. B. C. Robinson went to Coquille Thursday. Mrs. Minor Mead stayed over with a friend, Mrs. Bess Clark, so as to be near the hospital. Mrs. Robinson also went for medical attention.

Those visiting with Mrs. Elmer Wilson and to work on the quilt last Thursday were Mrs. Ivan Laird, Mrs. W. A. Nickason and Mrs. Wm. Keller.

C. M. Wilson is confined to his home again with another attack of rheumatism and cold. Mrs. Wilson is also suffering with a bad cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix G. Miller, of Coquille, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller, Virginia Miller and Stanley Bessey, from Marshfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Abernethy enjoyed a big chicken dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Miller at Dora Sunday, at which time Virginia Miller announced her engagement to Stanley Beasy. Other members of the family present were: Lincoln, Priscilla and Ted Miller.

Those in the valley enjoying a get-together and potluck dinner at the Krewson home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nickason, Betty and Fern, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilson, Virginia, Burton and Earl, Emma Lou Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Krewson, Eloda, Velma, Forrest, Donna Jane and Glade.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keller, Mavis and Wallace attended services in Coquille Sunday and were dinner guests at the Earl F. Downing home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindon Jenkins, of Lee, were all day guests at the B. C. Robinson home Saturday.

Elmer Wilson and Forrest Krewson left for the L. B. L. camp Sunday evening where they will be employed the rest of the season. Twenty-five or more are working there now.

BRIDGE

Wilda Beckett was ill for several days last week with an attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. Albert Pancoast, state president of the V. F. W. Auxiliary, left Sunday evening to spend a couple of weeks making official visits among auxiliaries. Mrs. Florence Miller is employed in the Murphy store during Mrs. Pancoast's absence.

The Christian Endeavor meeting next Sunday evening will be in charge of Mrs. John F. Dunckley and will be followed by a church service conducted by J. L. Ellis. The C. E. topic is "The Good Church Member

Six Christian Endeavors went on Wednesday evening of last week to spend a social evening at the home of the Lindsey family, who moved to this community in January, from Crescent City, Calif. After a pleasant time of singing and visiting, refreshments were served by the Endeavors to those present, who were Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey and daughter, Hazel; Glenn Hutton, the Misses Nadine Ellis, Lou and Maude Hooton, Myrtle and Virginia Beckett.

On Tuesday evening of this week the same group, with the addition of Mrs. A. O. Hooton and Elmo Nelson, spent a similar evening with Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Medley and daughter, Lois and Betty. The ladies present at the meeting of the Home Economics club on Wednesday of last week were Mesdames Vern Magill, Effie Snaveley, Elmer Magill, Dwight Culver, J. T. Evernden, J. L. LeClerc, and Miss Nadine Ellis. The meeting was held in the new Grange hall, with a potluck lunch at noon.

Mrs. R. H. Bryant and daughter, Roberta, spent a few days in Portland last week, returning home Sunday evening. The Christian Endeavor is planning a Fanny Crosby meeting for Saturday evening, Apr. 24, which will feature the hymns written by this beloved blind poet and a brief story of her life will be given. A social hour will follow the program. The people of the community are cordially invited to attend.

The following Bridge Grangers attended

Pomona in Myrtle Point Tuesday: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Culver, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Evernden, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Magill and Mrs. Dwight Culver. Mrs. Daniel Cribbins and Mrs. Lawrence Cribbins and little son left Saturday to spend about a week at Vancouver, Wash. Mrs. J. L. Ellis, Mrs. John F. Dunckley and little son and Miss Nadine Ellis were Roseburg visitors Thursday of last week.
