Fuhrman's Pharmacy, Inc. DRUGGISTS STATIONERS

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Hendricks, at the Coquille Hospital, on Tuesday, April 20, a seven and one-half pound daughter, who has been named Markay. Mr. Hendricks is superintendent of the plywood plant and he and Mrs. Hendricks came here from Longview last fall. This is their first child.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ames arrived here Wednesday evening from Arkansas City, Kans., being met in Portland by Miss Viola Newton, who drove up for them. Mrs. Ames is a sister of R. B. Knife, and of Mrs. Monroe Lane, who passed away the next morning after the Kansas visitors' arrival.

Mrs. Emily Hersey left for her home near Portland, Tuesday, after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Julius Rubie, for a week. She has sold her apartment house there and bought a ten-acre farm a short distance out from Portland in the direction of Beaverton. She is now making her home with her son, Ben.

Geo. Ulett is expected home this week-end from a business trip to San Francisco on which he left last Friday morning. His start was somewhat retarded that morning when the flood waters were about 20 inches over the dike. He got out into it and his engine stopped, but a truck soon came along and shoved him on across to dry land.

American Legion Auxiliary sewing meeting will be held Tuesday afternoon, April 27, at the Legion hall to tie a quilt. Be there if possible.

Harold Gould has his new home on the Gould acreage tract east of the Masonic cemetery, nearly completed and he will move into it soon. Shirley Hatcher has another one building across the road from Harold's, on the Mrs. Chase acreage.

Frank A. Pook, who drove down to San Francisco last week with his daughter, Mrs. Catherine DeVoto, entered the S. P. hospital there for examination and treatment. In a few days he will be joined by Mrs. Pook, who is now with her daughter, Jeanette, in Portland, and they will take a vacation trip down through southern California and then north into Canada. Mr. Pook has not had a vacation from duty at the S. P. depot here for ten years.

Mike Clapshaw Buried
M. M. Clapshaw, who left Coquille in 1929, passed away at Oroville, Calif., on April 12. With Mrs. Clapshaw he had gone there for the benefit of his health and had seemed to improve, but succumbed to an attack of the flu.

Myron M. Clapshaw was born at Forest Grove, Ore., Sept. 26, 1875, and had lived in Oregon for 61 years, six months and 16 days except for the five months at Oroville. He was buried in the Hillside cemetery at Forest Grove, just across the highway from the place of his birth, on April 16.

On Dec. 27, 1899, he was married to Pearl Staley, who survives him. Surviving children are a son and two daughters, Joe Clapshaw, of Portland, Mrs. Beatrice Vader, of Marshfield, and Mrs. Mildred Morrison, of Oregon City. Two sisters, three grand children and other relatives also survive.

Mr. Clapshaw with several other Coquille men built the Roosevelt Super Service Station here which he operated for some time until he sold to Guss Tillmann in 1929.

Surprise Party Saturday Eve.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schram were pleasantly surprised with a lovely party at their home on the Myrtle Point highway Saturday evening. The occasion was their 25th wedding anniversary. It was also Mrs. Schram's birthday. Mrs. Mettie Schram, mother of Mr. Schram, came in from Salem especially to be with her son on this wedding anniversary. Frank Schram, Jr., and Miss Kay Miller also came in from Salem for this festive occasion. The rooms and table were beautifully decorated with spring flowers. The table was set with several pieces of silver used by Mr. Schram's grandparents and also with some that belonged to Mrs. Davis, mother of Mrs. Schram. Mrs. Schram received many lovely birthday gifts and Mr. and Mrs. Schram were the recipients of some lovely silver pieces. The following friends were present to enjoy this occasion, Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Kunz, Grant Wilcox, O. E. Matoon, Lee Hand, B. B. Sanders, H. H. Hunt, E. A. Wimer, J. W. Rubie, F. A. Pook, C. W. Gano, Marc Shelley, Mesdames B. A. Davis, Mettie Schram, H. G. Prey, Miss Kay Miller and Frank Schram, Jr. Delicious refreshments were served and a general good time enjoyed.

Mrs. Mary Clara Bullard
Old time residents of Coquille will be interested in an item which appeared in an Orange, Calif., newspaper telling of the death of a former resident—Mrs. Mary Clara Bullard—at Santa Monica, on April 12. She was 78 years of age.

Some time in the last century her husband, Wash Bullard, and P. E. Drane, father of Mrs. E. E. Johnson, of this city, were partners in the management of the Robinson House here. Later Mr. Bullard moved to Arago and was still later elected assessor for Coos county, serving two or three terms.

Funeral services were held at Anaheim on April 14, and interment took place there.

She leaves a son, Dr. Geo. A. Bullard, of Santa Monica; a sister, Mrs. Harriet Howard, of Anaheim; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Edith Kuesel, of Orange, and two grand children.
