

OK Said the Boss! We've let loose with a Niagara of Best Sellers the folks behind the counter (Signed).

Men's Furnishings FEATURES!

Maytime BARGAINS

*Of Pure Silk and Rayon!
Double Soles for Wear!*
Fancy SOCKS 25¢
In good-looking colors and new patterns men are sure to like! Mercerized heels, toes and tops! Better get yours now!

Fancy Patterns Are Leading the Style Parade!

DRESS SHIRTS

Topflight Quality! 98¢

Pre-shrunk materials—full of color! Checks, plaids and smart figures—cool and gay-looking for summer! Duke of Kent or Nu-Craft non-wilt collars attached! Just the shirts you've wanted! At a thrifty price!

White Linene for Cool Summer Comfort!

MEN'S CAPS 25¢

Smart-looking enough for dress, durable enough for sports or work! Nicely made with top button and leather sweat band. Popular with men everywhere!

Newer and Smarter
Students' SUITS 14.75

Designed for the younger man! Newest styling—expert tailoring! Harmonized rayon lining—durable fabrics in smart patterns! Inverted pleat backs! Fellows, they're correct for any occasion!

READY-TO-WEAR FEATURES!

New and Summery!
DRESSES

By Glen Row
2-98
Frocks to make your Summer a success! Solid colors and light prints! 12 to 44.

Feel Gay and Youthful

These Summer HATS

So Easy to Wear So Becoming
$1.69 - $1.98

Latest Styles!
DRESSES

By Jean Nedra!
3-98
Double duty jacket dresses for day, Bonbergs, chiffons and laces for afternoon! 12-44.

PENNEY'S

332 First Street, Coquille, Oregon

MENUS FOR SPRINGTIME

should include a variety of fresh fruits and vegetables, brought to your table with the care necessary to insure their freshness.

- Fine Fresh Strawberries
- Spinach
- Asparagus
- New Peas
- New Potatoes

You can rely on THE BUSY CORNER for the best of good things to eat at the first moment they are to be obtained in the markets; also highest quality staple and fancy groceries.

Phone 69

Busy Corner Grocery

THE MAKE-IT-RIGHT STORE

Free Delivery

home of Mrs. LaVerne Ellingson Tuesday evening. The members spent the evening sewing, knitting and chatting. Mrs. Alice Morris was the lucky winner of the house prize furnished by the hostess and Mrs. Ruth Clayton, Ferryl DeJarnett, Olive Kuhn, Yvonne, Carl, Bernice Ireland and Lorraine Perrott. Mesdames Ireland, Morris, Perrott and Kuhn were the winners of prizes awarded for not being absent a meeting in six months.

Mrs. Elton Brady entertained the Tuesday night bridge club at her home on So. Beach street Tuesday evening. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing contract bridge, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. Orvin Gant won high score as well as the travelling prize and Mrs. D. B. Estes received the consolation prize. The following members were present: Mesdames T. S. Stevens, Julius Ruble, Fred Watson, Walter Litzberger, Donald Estes, E. A. Walker, O. T. Gant, and a guest, Mrs. J. H. McCloskey, of Norway.

Job's Daughters held their regular meeting in Masonic Hall Monday evening. Five girls were initiated into the order: Jean Laird, Jeanne Claterbos, Evelyn Gano, Geraldine Cole, of Coquille, and Carol Haga, of Bandon. The guardian, Mrs. Compton, and the Honored Queen, Marilyn Compton, plan to attend the grand session in Portland, April 30 and May 1. Mr. Ernest Purvance will be installed Associate Grand Guardian at this time. Refreshments were served after the meeting to the girls and a large group of visitors.

Newton-Hughes

The impressive wedding ceremony uniting Mabelle M. Hughes and J. Archie Newton was solemnized at the altar of the Church of the Nazarene in Marshfield, at high noon Sunday, April 25. Rev. R. C. Wynkoop, pastor of the church, officiating. Just before the vows were spoken Mrs. Wynkoop sang, accompanied by Miss Jessie Durrant. She then played Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal party came down the aisle. The attendants, sister and brother-in-law of the groom, were Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Bowers, of Marshfield, and their two little daughters, Hazel and Beverly, acted as flower girls. They carried silver baskets of lovely mixed spring flowers. The charming bride wore a light suit with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. After a short trip the happy couple will be at home in Coquille. Mr. Newton, formerly of Bandon, will be in the electrical business here after the first of May.

Marriage Licenses

April 24—Patrick Daniels Savage and Margaret Lattin, both of Coquille.
April 24—J. D. Weaver and Mildred Bravo, both of Myrtle Creek. They were married last Saturday by Justice Maybee at North Bend.
April 24—R. Leigh Lyons and Gladys Elinor Gillenbeck, both of Marshfield.
April 26—Leo P. Cooper, of Glendale, Ore., and Grace Elinor Stanton, of Florence. They were married on Monday by Rev. W. R. Wilder here.
April 27—Robert Harold Heatherby and Florence Louise Dally, both of North Bend. They were married by Justice C. A. Barton at his office here on Tuesday.
April 28—Robert Powrie and Imogene Burgess, both of Myrtle Point.
April 29—Ray Condray, of Bandon, and Kathryn E. Ellison, of Marshfield.
April 29—Jos. Eaton and Thelma Williams, both of Marshfield.

Probate Court Items

W. O. Campbell was on Wednesday appointed administrator of the $3300 estate left by Laurence Townsend, who died at North Bend, April 24. The appraisers are Ray Kaufman, John Ferguson and Chas. Kamper.
New Cases in Circuit Court
April 23—E. L. Hand and Drue Cunningham vs. Maxine Kerrigan Spitznass et al.
April 27—Jno. T. Harris vs. State Industrial Accident Commission.

PIONEER METHODIST

"The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished." 2 Peter 2:9
The Church Fits One for Life and Eternity
CHURCH

April 28—Florence P. Berg vs. Hal and Georgia Baxter et al.
April 28—Della I. Guedon vs. P. J. Rooney and Norman Wilson.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC
Effective May 1st all Union Barber Shops of Port Orford, Coquille, Bunker Hill, Marshfield, Empire, North Bend, Reedsport and Gardiner will adopt the following schedule:
Hair Cuts 65c. Shaves 35c.
Hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. Sat. 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.
Howard Brossard, Secretary of Barbers' Local Union No. 846. 1512
Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Maud Skaggs Woodyard
Bachelor of Music
Accredited teacher of Piano and Voice
156 S. Henry St. Phone 50-R

SILEX
THE ORIGINAL GLASS COFFEE MAKER

For Good Coffee Use A SILEX

We carry a complete line of SILEX Coffee Makers and all parts

Hooton Electric Shop

Club Notes and Other

Social Activities

Mrs. Charles Haglund and Mrs. Henry McCue gave a lovely party Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Haglund. This was in the form of a seven-thirty o'clock dessert bridge. The color scheme was pink and white, the tables and rooms being attractively decorated with apple blossoms. Mrs. Elbert Schroeder won high score at contract bridge, Mrs. John Hawkins, second, and Miss Jennelind McKnight received the consolation prize. The following ladies enjoyed this lovely party: Mesdames J. H. Mills, Harold Gould, Everett Strain, D. G. McEniry, Geo. McClellan, Ralph Cochran, A. L. Beck, Ted Hornecker, Misses Dorothy Bunch and Jennelind McKnight and out-of-town guests: Mesdames Eric Tucker, John Hawkins and Miss Eunice Gremgaard, of Marshfield, and Mesdames Elton Schroeder and Wayne Carver of Myrtle Point.

A group of friends tendered Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simpson a surprise party and housewarming at their new home on East 12th street last Wednesday evening. The guests presented Mr. and Mrs. Simpson with a lovely picture. A social time was spent, after which the guests served refreshments. The following friends enjoyed this happy occasion: Messrs. and Mesdames Ralph Harry, Levi Wilson, Kenneth Graham, Aaron Wilson, Gordon Epps, Misses Katherine Estey and Gladys Culbertson and Messrs. Elwyn Nosler and Henry George and the guests of honor.

Miss Colleen Ireland celebrated her thirteenth birthday with a lovely party at her home on East Second St. Saturday afternoon. The party was held out of doors, refreshments being served in the garden under the pear trees. All sorts of games were enjoyed by the young folks, Mrs. Jack Hultin assisting Mrs. Ireland. Colleen received many nice gifts in honor of her birthday. The following young people enjoyed this happy occasion: Margie Bungartner, Vera Seimen, Marianne Rackleff, Leona Cole, Betty Jo Thorpe, Ethel Vaughn, Buster Whereat, Howard Taylor, Emric Hultin, Jo Don Estes, Marion Clauser, Harvey Cole, Earl Haynes, Dick Vinton, Donald Ireland, Bobby Martin, Elizabeth Williams, Louis Charneski and the guest of honor.

Mamie Rebekah Lodge, No. 20, held a potluck dinner Wednesday evening for the Rebekahs and their families in honor of the 118th anniversary of Odd Fellowship. Between thirty-five and forty enjoyed this occasion. Mrs. Clara Bosserman and Mrs. Hester Holvort were chosen delegates to the Rebekah Assembly to be held in Portland May 19 to May 22 inclusive. The Past Noble Grands club will meet with Mrs. R. E. Boober Friday evening, May 7.

Jack Axtell celebrated his tenth birthday last Friday evening. The young folks went to the Liberty and then to the "Tip Top" for refreshments. Those invited for this happy occasion were Gwendolyn Elrod, Phyllis May Litzberger, Jackie Jean and Claire Gray, Jr.

The L. L. Duplicate club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Boober for six o'clock dinner Sunday evening. The evening was spent in playing duplicate bridge, Mr. and Mrs. McNelly winning high score for the evening's play. The members present were: Messrs and Mesdames U. E. McClary, H. S. Norton, F. C. McNelly and the hosts.

The N. O. M. A. club met at the