Health Ass'n Dinner at Bay

May first has been designated by the president of the United States as "National Child Health Day." Therefore Child Health agencies throughout the country will stage national demonstrations in May for the children of America with the accent on "Health Protection for Every Child." Senator George H. Chaney has been appointed county chairman of the health campaign which opened May 1, "Child Health Day," and will continue throughout the month. Mrs. Lowell Page, state chairman for the observance, made the appointment.

The May program serves to bring to the attention of the public the work of the agencies dealing with child and maternal health, and will include a county-wide celebration held jointly with the Coos County Health Association at its annual luncheon on May 3, at Hotel Coos Bay, North Bend, at 12:00 o'clock.

There will be a luncheon—with a short program—a business meeting, election of officers for the coming year and a Child Health Institute, conducted by two prominent state health workers, Dr. A. E. Boston, of the State Board of Health, and Miss Elsie Wichen, nurse consultant of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, both of Portland.

All members of the association and friends of Child Health are invited to be present.

Marguerite R. Chaney, Sec. Coos County Health Association.

Don Farr on Eastern Tour

Donald Farr, one of the sixty specially selected vocalists of the Northwestern University capella choir, has just returned from a tour of Pittsburg, Washington, D. C., Baltimore, New York City, etc., where they have given concerts in the large auditoriums. The choir broadcasted over the N. B. C. from New York City last Saturday. Donald was both a piano and voice student of Mrs. Woodyard while in high school and of Prof. Petri at Eugene.

Why have heart trouble? One death out of each five, in Oregon, is from heart trouble—what a record. Dr. C. R. Bloyd, Coquille, Oreg. 1314

B. P. W. Entertains Mothers

The B. P. W. club entertained their members and guests at a delightful banquet in the Pioneer Methodist church dining hall, Monday evening. The room looked most attractive with lovely baskets of lilacs. On the table were vases of mixed bouquets interspersed with lovely apers. The favors were white linen handkerchiefs placed at the plate of each mother. A delicious turkey dinner was thoroughly enjoyed by the club members and guests. The program consisted of "Songs Mother Sang," led by Mrs. Ruth Beyer and accompanied by Miss Inez Rover, an address of welcome given by Miss Inez Chase followed by the response by Mrs. R. B. Cummins. Lovely vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Leona Bryant followed by the introductions of the "mothers." The following states and countries were represented: Illinois, Oregon, Kansas, Utah, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Washington, Iowa, Missouri, Indiana, Canada, Nebraska, Ohio, France, England, Finland, Sweden, and Germany.

A cute pantomime, "Girls of Today," was given by a group of the B. P. W. members. Mrs. Sara Ames was presented with a gift for being the oldest mother present. Vases of mixed bouquets were given to the following mothers whose plate contained the lucky name of the particular flower: Mesdames Geo. Taylor, Sr., Wm. Peart, Chas. Stauff, Alice Gage, George Leach, Estelle Dunn, Vesta Soper, Frank Leslie, L. H. Williams and N. Niles.

Besides the members the following guests were present Mesdames Estelle Dunn, George Leach, J. Loy Stacer, Arthur Berg, Adolph Lindros, W. D. Newton, Stanley Fitzgerald, Sara Ames, R. B. Cummins, Frank Leslie, G. R. Wickham, N. Niles, A. R. Finley, Wm. Peart, Geo. Taylor, Sr., C. E. McCurdy, Sarah DeLong, Caroline Lorenz, Alice Gage, Chas. Stauff, Mary Burns, Inez Pinkston, Frank L. Rover, Kennett Lawrence, Amanda Way, Maud Woodyard, A. N. Gould, L. L. Williams, F. Brodie, Vesta Soper, Sadie Jayes, L. W. Oddy, W. E. Hassler, Amos Payne, Ella Nelson and Belle Elwood.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Rev. R. D. E. Smith to Preach at Assembly of God

Gospel Tabernacle of Bakersfield, where besides his church work he ministered to a verified radio audience of over 10,000 on station KERN. He served as executive secretary of the northern California and Nevada district camp meeting association for some time.

For the past seven weeks he has conducted evangelistic campaigns in Des Moines. He is regarded as a potential pastor of the local assembly here, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of the Rev. Hazel MacLeod.

Assisting Mr. Smith in his work, Mrs. Smith is an excellent song leader. She herself has been a preacher since the age of thirteen.

These young people have enjoyed a successful ministry every where they have been and it is with pleasure that the Coquille Assembly invites the public to hear Rev. Mr. Smith next Sunday.

A GOD-SPEED

To Mrs. Hazel MacLeod

If we have been too crude to understand
The soul that paused among us transiently,
Like a light butterfly among a band
Of earthbound beetles, if we, clumsily,

Have bruised the beauty of the strong, free wings
That strove to lift us to their loftier skies,
If, with our blunter sense of cruder things,
We failed to comprehend the sacrifice,

Forgive us, for we loved you, and although
It needs must be that there are hidden scars,
Yet do we bid you Godspeed, as you go
Forth on the pathway marked for chosen stars.

We are made rich by having known you; we
Have seen Christ clearer through your lucent face.
You will remain, portrayed by memory,
Against the curtains in your wonted place.

You cannot wholly leave us, since a part
To which Love clings, will, when you go, remain.
Cherished in a deep corner of each heart.
Lives such as yours cannot be lived in vain.

You flit: we would not keep you. So, farewell.
Whatever skies they are that bend above you,
And to whatever distant lands you tell
The Gospel message, oh, remember well
That we have loved, and that we still do, love you!

Miss Rover's Pupils in Recital

The first musical event in Coquille in observance of "National Music Week" was the classical recital given by the pupils of Miss Inez Rover, Sunday afternoon in Odd Fellows Hall. The following pupils played piano solos: Lillian Aber, Frances Davidson, Laura Emily Ruble, Mary Anne Walker, Maxine Briner, Betty Lou Donsted, Geraldine Cole, Dean Stonecypher, Ernestine Battey, Ethel Rose Vaughan, Doris Ann Wood, Wanda Willson, Wandalee Finley, Marvin Myers, Rheo Walker, Maxine Knight, Dorothy Belle Newton, Gretchen Clinton Leah Rover, Lemar Pomeroy, Jack Axtell, Jack Stevens, Donald Tillmann, George Gant, Merritt Newdall, Gordon Lawrence, Fred Porter, Tommy Martin and Bill Walker. Piano duets were played by Laura Emily Ruble and Miss Inez Rover; Gordon Lawrence and Donald Tillmann. Two advanced accordion pupils: Mrs. C. R. Moore and Kennett Lawrence, Jr., played solos and a also a very unique accordion duet. At the close of the program Miss Inez Rover played a group of brilliant piano selections. About 175 were present to enjoy this splendid recital.
