

Senior Ball Next Friday

Invitations have already been issued for the Senior Ball, the last social event of the high school year, which will take place the evening of May 14 at nine o'clock in the high school auditorium.

Unusually elaborate plans are under way for decorations for the evening. The auditorium will be transformed into a brilliantly decorated Roof Garden Cafe, the name of which will be announced later. The cafe will be decorated in modernistic style with a black and white color scheme. Lighting effects will be unusually spectacular with a special committee working on indirect lighting plans. Don Estes will furnish the music for the evening. Patrons and patronesses are: Senator and Mrs. George H. Chaney, Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Glaisyer, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Bunch, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Leslie, Superintendent and Mrs. P. W. Lane and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Osika.

Work on the ball has been started and the entire class is serving on the various committees. Under the able direction of George Fuller, adviser, noticeable progress has been made. Marcus Shelley, general chairman, has appointed the following committee heads: decoration, Audrey Taylor, Jack Laird; refreshments, Kathleen Brady, Georgia Sherwood; invitations, Eileen Percy, Vivian Morris; orchestra, Lurene St. Clair; special feature, Virginia Hartson, Jean McNelly; reception, Dorothy Glaisyer, Eileen Percy, Vivian Morris, E. J. Morris, Marilyn Compton; advertising, Mary Lou Nosler; check room, Elizabeth Varney. Tom Percy, an underclassman, has offered some valuable ideas on streamline art, which are being used.

Student Officers for Ensuing Year
Student body officers for next year were elected at a student election held Monday, May 3. Officers elected were Richard Walker, president; Ralph Fuhrman, vice president; Barbara Leslie, secretary; Leonard Farr, assistant treasurer; Dick Stacer, assistant business manager, and Ralph Thrift, inter-class rivalry chairman. Two juniors who have served as assistants this year will automatically assume office next year. These two are Maxine Knight who will be treasurer and Lowell Waggoner who will succeed Richard Walker as business manager.

Class meetings for the purpose of electing class officers for the year 1937-38 were held this morning. The results will be given next week.

Assembly May 4

A special assembly was held Tuesday morning for the purpose of advertising the benefit program of Wednesday and also for the purpose of awarding letters in basketball, debate, declamation, and to the song queen and yell leaders. The high school was allowed a glimpse of the cowboy stunt which Mrs. Beyers was directing for Wednesday night, and members of the skit, "Uncle Dick's Mistake," were introduced. Basketball letters were awarded by Coach Hatton to Don McClellan, Bill Walker, Richard Walker, Vern Oederkirk, Everett Smith, Marvin Goodman, Alan Bailey and Ralph Fuhrman. Mr. Osika awarded letters to Eileen Percy and Maxine Knight, yell leaders; Marilyn Compton, song queen; Mary Lou Nosler and Marcus Shelley, declamation; Leonard Farr, Frank Biasca, LaVelle Dale and Frank Martin, debaters. Mrs. Ruth Beyers, debate coach, asked that special recognition also be given to Lois Young and Videlle Kelley, alternates.
