Good Pictures Billed at Liberty

The Liberty Theatre has the pick of all pictures produced at the Hollywood studios which makes it possible for them to select only the best and eliminate all which do not reach the highest in quality of entertainment. Note the pictures to be shown for the next week.

Tonight and Saturday, "The Great O'Malley," an East Side drama, starring Humphrey Bogart and Pat O'Brien. It is the story of the every day life of poor folk in a great city.

An extra feature will be the close up pictures taken of the Hindenburg disaster, to be shown both evenings and at Saturday's matinee.

The midnight preview, "Time out for a romance," deals with a hitchhiking heiress whose meeting with a highway Romeo hits a new high in romantic comedy.

Those noted singing sweethearts of the screen, Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, will appear Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in their greatest hit, "Maytime."

A return engagement of "One in a Million," featuring the champion skater, Sonja Henie, will be on next Wednesday. A great many people, prevented by the flu and high water in March from seeing and hearing this picture, have asked for its re-showing.

In "You Only Live Once," next Thursday, raw human emotions are depicted in the picture which features Sylvia Sydney and Henry Fonda.

Woman's Club Annual Luncheon Held Tuesday

The officers and the club for the hearty co-operation she had received. Mrs. Sanford was tendered a gift from the club in a few well chosen words by Mrs. Geo. Jenkins. Mrs. Stacer as the new president made a few pleasing remarks, after which the program was presented by Mrs. G. A. Ulett.

Mrs. Roy Barton delighted the club members with two lovely solos: "Let all my life be music" and "I love you, dear," accompanied by Mrs. Maud Woodyard. Mrs. Hazel Shwering, dean of women at the University of Oregon, was introduced and gave a splendid and worth while talk on "The University, Its Problems, Its Projects and Its Aims." Everyone was delighted to hear Dean Shwering and was pleased to know that such a delightful lady held this office at the university.

The following members and friends were present: Mesdames Paul Trojel, Blair M. Gray, Roy Barton, Maud Woodyard, George Bryant, M. O. Jenkins, Jas. Watson, C. J. Fuhrman, Y. V. Glaisyer, R. A. Wernich, F. L. Greenough, Chas. Stauff, L. H. Hazard, R. L. Medley, R. L. Stewart, K. P. Lawrence, J. Loy Stacer, G. A. Ulett, O. C. Sanford, Geo. Jenkins, C. A. Rietman, Hazel Shwering, C. C. Junior Woman's Club

The Junior Woman's club held their regular meeting in the Guild hall Monday evening with Mrs. Elbert Schroeder, president, in the chair. Election of officers was held, the following ladies being chosen: president, Miss Dorothy Bunch; vice president, Mrs. Henry McCue; secretary, Miss Vesta Milley; treasurer, Mrs. R. E. Harbison; parliamentarian, Mrs. D. G. McEniry; historian, Mrs. Craig Perrott. The annual banquet and installation of officers will be held at the hotel, May 22, at 7:30 p. m., with Mrs. Chas. Haglund as toastmistress. The club inaugurated a clever candle lighting service which will be used in the installation. The Dallas Junior club were so much pleased with the idea, they are also adopting it.

The following members are planning to attend the Coos county Health Association meeting in North Bend Thursday: Mesdames Elbert Schroeder, T. T. Denison and Ted Hordunbar for welfare work.

The annual reports of the club were read. The treasurer reported a balance of $70.00. The club voted to send ten dollars to Mrs. Saldie Orr-Dunbar.

Mesdames D. G. McEniry, T. T. Denison, Ted Hornecker, J. H. Mills and George McClellan served refreshments to the following members: Mesdames R. E. Harbison, Wayne Robinson, Alton Clausen, Elbert Schroeder, A. L. Beck, Jos. Sayre, Harold Stevens, Belmont Ireland, Henry McCue and Misses Dorothy Bunch, Vesta Milley, Irene Sandon, Grace Ellingsen and three guests: Misses Blanche Sandon, May Groshens and Mrs. Evelyn Elliott.

Mothers' Social by Girls League

Approximately 150 mothers and daughters attended the social last Friday evening sponsored by the Girls' League in honor of their mothers. Patricia Peart was announcer for the evening and introduced the many enjoyable events. Lucille Sherwood, general chairman of the affair, was not able to be present since she had been rushed to the hospital for an emergency appendectomy early Friday morning.

The program consisted of music, readings, drills, a tribute to mothers by Dorothy Glaisyer and introduction of officers by Mary Robb. The reading, "It's a Grand Old World," was given by Mary Lou Nosler, and the music consisted of glee club and orchestra numbers, duets, solos—piano and vocal—and a trio.
