Mrs. R. E. Boober left Tuesday on a six weeks' eastern trip to visit her mother in Boston. She went the southern route and will stop a week in Baton Rouge, La., to visit a brother, going from New Orleans by steamer to Boston where she will remain three weeks. She will return by the northern route. Mr. Boober and friends cautioned her against getting on the wrong train, as she did the last time she went east, when she got off at Rochester, N. Y., to mail a letter and thought she was getting back on the same train, but she landed in New York with no baggage while all her impedimenta was speeding toward Boston.

Chas. Strang Says It Was Cold
Writing from Etna, in northern California, to renew his subscription to the Sentinel, Chas. E. Strang, a former Coquille resident, writes that his section of the country looks very fine now in its string attire, but that spring was very late there following a most severe winter, with three feet of snow at one time and the thermometer ranging from 20 to 26 degrees below zero for the two months' stretch. Old residents there say it was the most severe winter the Shasta country ever experienced.

Births at Coquille Hospital

Births at the Coquille Hospital the past week were:
To Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hyde, of Coquille, on Monday, a seven pound daughter, Patricia Jean.
