

ARAGO

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Menegat and Miss Esther Davidson plan to leave for Portland on Monday. Mr. Menegat has out-of-door work for the summer.

Inside a bower of evergreens, beneath a ceiling of lilac crepe streamers, the 1937 graduating class, Francis Barklow, Alvin Fredenberg, Hazel Miller, Marguerite Robison and Jean Watkins, made their final bow to their Arago friends Wednesday evening. The program was as follows: processional, Mrs. Oluf Aasen; salutation - vocal solo, Jean Watkins; class will, Hazel Miller; class prophecy, Marguerite Robison; address, "Why doesn't someone tell us these things?" Robert Reichert, of Corvallis; vocal solo, "In the Garden of My Heart," Mrs. S. C. McAllister; valedictory, Alvin Fredenberg; scholarship plaque award to Alvin Fredenberg and Jean Watkins by R. P. Menegat, principal; presentation of diplomas by George Robison, chairman of the board of directors; benediction by Rev. J. W. Barnett, and recessional, Mrs. Oluf Aasen. Bouquets of lilacs and purple iris added the class colors to the decorations. More than a hundred friends congratulated the graduates at the informal reception which followed the exercises.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Person, of Marshfield, attended the graduating exercises. Mrs. Person taught the class when they were in the fourth grade.

Following the graduation exercises an impromptu gathering was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watkins in honor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hill, of La Grande, and Mr. and Mrs. O. L.
