Next Sunday will be observed as Christian Fellowship Day at the local church. J. L. Ellis will preach at 11:00 a. m. After church there will be a pot luck dinner, in Hooton's grove if the weather permits (otherwise it will be held in the church) and there will be a short program, mostly musical, in the afternoon. The people of the community are cordially invited to attend. There will also be an evening service at the church at 8 p. m., with a vocal solo by Karl Ehrig as a special feature.

A piano recital by the pupils of Clarence E. Ellison was given at the school auditorium of last week. Those appearing on the program were Mary Lou Culver, Vivienne Lake, Eddie Hatfield, Evelyn Morrison, Pauline Farmer, Roger Leclerc and Virginia Lake. Wilda Beckett is visiting this week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Roy Brown, in Myrtle Point.
