Club Hears Convention Reports

A regular meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club was held at the home of the president, Mrs. L. E. Alexander, Tuesday evening. The resignation of Katherine Jane Hassler, first vice president-elect, was accepted since Miss Hassler has gone to Washington, D. C., to accept a position there. A special gift committee reported their selection of gifts for Helen Abel, Gertrude McCoy and Lena Williams, three members who were June brides this year. At the conclusion of the regular business of the club, convention reports of the annual state convention held this year at Eugene, May 20, 21 and 22, were given by Mrs. Leona Bryant, Mrs. Viola Newton, Mrs. Annie Robinson, Mrs. Bertha Smith and Mrs. Margarita Brodie. Coquille club members presented their congratulations to Mrs. Leona Bryant who has been elected to serve a second term as state first vice president.

"Prisoner at the Bar"

One of the most thrilling pleas ever heard in court will be presented at the Coquille Pioneer Methodist Church Tuesday, June 15, when 21 local citizens from the various local churches present the widely heralded "murder trial" entitled, "Prisoner at the Bar." Trial begins promptly at 8:00 p. m.

The trial deals with a young man, Hayward Johnson, who under the influence of liquor has "killed" his wife and left three motherless children. Mr. Johnson is then "tried" for murder. The drama tells the story of the returned soldier, influenced by wet repeal propaganda and trapped by the modern liquor sales system. The prisoner pleading for what he values more than life, the judge torn between pity and duty, the attorneys battling brilliantly for a life at stake, the finger print expert, the jury spellbound by the unfolding drama are among the gripping incidents of this tremendously impressive and effective temperance play. The 21 local citizens who will assist in the trial are as follows:

Judge - Ernest Purvance
Prosecuting Attorney - Harry Ross
Defense Attorney - V. L. Bailey
Prisoner's Little Daughter -
Harriet Walker
Sheriff - L. E. Alexander
Finger Print Expert (Police Dept.) -
Kermit Shaw

Court Clerk - L. W. Oddy
Star Witness - Georgia Richmond
Court Bailiff - Chas. Stauff
Summoned on the Jury: E. M. Williams, S. T. Dey, Mrs. Frank Leslie, Mrs. Belle Elwood, R. T. Slater, Rev. H. A. Minter, Mrs. Ben Knife, Orin Hardenbrooke, Mrs. Henry Cardwell, Rev. W. S. Smith.

Admission to the trial will be free. A voluntary offering will be taken. The trial is being sponsored by the churches throughout the state, and everyone is invited to attend. This is the first appearance of this trial in Coquille and a large crowd is expected to fill the Pioneer Church if the citizens of Coquille attend the drama as they have in other places. The trial has been given in Chicago, Washington, D. C., St. Louis, Minneapolis, Detroit, San Francisco, Los Angeles, and many other towns and cities before audiences as high as 3,500 people.

Nosler-Sloan

The wedding of Miss Alda Sloan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sloan, and Elwyn Nosler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nosler, was solemnized Tuesday evening at eight o'clock in the Church of Christ before many friends and relatives. The double ring service was used. Errol B. Sloan, minister of the Church of Christ at Chico, California, and a brother of the bride, performed the ceremony.

Miss Sloan was lovely in a floor-length gown of eggshell all-over lace, with a bolero jacket of same material. She wore a finger-tip veil and carried a shower bouquet of Van Fleet roses and sweet peas. The bride was attended by Mrs. Levi Wilson as matron of honor, who wore pink moire taffeta and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of mixed flowers. Miss Patricia Nosler, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and was dressed in blue net and also carried a nosegay.

Attendants for Mr. Nosler were Wallace Patrick, of Eugene, and Leonard Farr. Ushers were Dr. C. G. Stem and Ralph Harry.

Preceding the ceremony Fred Towne, of Eugene, accompanied by Miss Ruth Towne, sang "O Promise Me." Mrs. Ralph Harry sang, "Because" and was accompanied by Mrs. Maud Woodyard. Miss Edythe Farr played the Lohengrin wedding march.

A reception for the members of the bridal party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sloan following the service.

Out-of-town relatives and friends attending the wedding were: Miss Zandra Sloan, Chico, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Nosler, San Diego, Calif.; Mrs. Henry Miller, Theron Miller, Mrs. Laurence Dorland, Mrs. Howard Hancock, Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Treadgold, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Morrison, Bandon; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jesse, Willett Jesse, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. William Fudge, Ballston; Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Turney, assisted by Earl F. Downing. Jeanne Peterson was bridesmaid for the occasion and Harold Esser acted as groomsmen.

The bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McCue, of this city, with whom she has made her home for the past four years.
