

ARAGO

Wallace Carl will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carl, of McMinnville, to Tillamook from Corvallis, where he has just completed his first year at O. S. C. to spend the week-end visiting Mrs. Carl's parents. The three will then drive to Arago where Wallace will spend the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Carl, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carl will make a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Miller and daughter, Colleen and Maxine, left Tuesday for their home in Portland after a brief vacation visiting relatives in Arago.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schroeder, Mrs. Emily Hickam and Kent left Tuesday for their home in Corvallis, after spending the week-end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burbank and other relatives.

Mrs. Glenn Cox and Bob McNeill visited Thelma McNeill in the Wesley Hospital in Marshfield Sunday. Thelma is the daughter of Ralph Davis, formerly of this community, who suffered a fractured leg and ankle, and a fractured skull on Memorial day when the motorcycle she was riding collided with a car at junction of the cemetery road and highway near Coquille. She is definitely out of danger now.

Mrs. Glenn Cox left Tuesday morning by stage for Arcata. From there she will accompany her sister, Mrs. Cora Weltzel, of Los Angeles, where Peter Weltzel, who died June 5, will be buried. The stage will be accompanied by their brother, Mallie McNeill, who made the journey with them. Mr. Weltzel had recently undergone a serious operation which had proved unsuccessful and was suffering when he left Arago Thursday morning. They had been the guests of Mrs. Cox and Bob McNeill for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Lewis, of Myrtle Point, and William Price Robison, of Weed, Calif., were Tuesday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robison.

Mrs. Ora Robison visited Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Hammack and family at Allegany Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rackleff left Saturday noon for Canby and remained overnight as the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Rackleff. They attended the state convention of the Grange at The Dalles as delegates from Myrtle Grange. Gordon Fleming is assisting at the cheese factory during their absence.

Mrs. Emily Hickam and Kent, Mrs. Clarence Schroeder and Price drove in from Corvallis Saturday afternoon. Price will work in the Arago cheese factory during the summer and Clarence Schroeder, who has been working there for the past three months, returned to Corvallis with Mrs. Schroeder on Tuesday.

Earl F. Downing, of Coquille, conducted the morning church service at Arago. There were forty-seven in attendance at Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hampton left on Saturday for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barklow and family in Grants Pass.

Everett Lafferty had the misfortune to meet a logging truck in too close quarters and his mail truck suffered scratched fenders. Fortunately no further injury was inflicted.

Miss Lottie Franklin and Darwin and Bill Pullen, of Prosper, returned to their homes on Friday, after visiting for several days with Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Watkins.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnett had as a recent guest her brother, A. W. Brinkley, of Portland.

Monday afternoon was the scene of a gay quilting party at the home of Mrs. Nile Miller, where a quilt was put out for Mrs. Wallace Miller, of Portland. Those helping were: Mesdames J. L. Burtis, David Root, Sam Root, George Gillespie, Edith Woodward, S. C. McAllister, C. S. Webb, George Golden, Orvus Miller, Wallace Miller and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robison and children, Kenneth and Maud, arrived Sunday evening to make their home in Coos county. Mr. Robison has been here since the first of May, employed at the Smith Products plant. Mrs. Robison remained in Weed, California, their former home, until school closed. They will live in the Glenn Robison home while Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Robison and Harold will stay with Mrs. Ora Robison.

Orville Parker arrived home Friday from Burns, saying that he had had enough of a country that had a snow storm one day and heat of 100 and no shade the next. He finds the coast climate in Oregon preferable to that of eastern Oregon. He is driving truck for Brodie Shingle Mill.

Mrs. Marvin Shaw and children, Patty and Arlan, left Saturday noon with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rackleff for The Dalles. She will attend a family reunion which will include two brothers and their families and a sister. It will be the first meeting with one brother for fourteen years. They will return with the Rackleffs at the close of the Grange convention.

Miss Alice Scott left Saturday afternoon for Mabel where she intended to settle some of her affairs before going on to Monmouth, where she will attend the summer session of the Normal school.

Miss Opal Robison left Saturday morning for Lakeside, where she has work during the summer.

Lillaverie Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Myers, is able to be out after being confined to the house by illness for a week.

Houston Robison will leave this week for Eugene, where he will complete his work during the summer session for a B. S. degree from the university.

Shelby McAllister was an overnight guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cox, in Bandon Sunday. On Monday morning he and his cousin, Beryl Cox, visited briefly in Arago as they left for Monmouth, where Mr. Cox will study during the summer session. He has been hired to teach the Prosper school next year. Mr. McAllister will drive on to Portland, where he will visit relatives.

Miss Nadine Russell, of Langlois, was a week-end guest at the S. C. McAllister home.

The June missionary meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Alma Halter near Coquille on Wednesday. Mrs. Ernest Watkins, vice president, presided in the absence of Mrs. Nile Miller. Mrs. Oluf Aasen had charge of the program with missions in Burma and India as the topic. Mrs. S. C. McAllister sang a solo. Selections from missionary literature were read by several. The hostess served dainty refreshments to those present who were Mrs. Ernest Watkins and her mother, Mrs. A. T. Hill, of La Grande. Mrs. Aasen sang the following verses of Mrs. Halter, Miss Ardis Halter, Mrs. S. C. McAllister, Mrs. Oluf Aasen, Mrs. David Root, Mrs. Sam Root, Mrs. Edith Woodward, Mrs. John Carl, Jean and Anne Watkins. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. A. Keltner, July 7.

Clarence Parker will be on crutches for some time yet due to the axe cut he received on his ankle. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Parker, Clifford, Ethan and Clarence and Mrs. Sarah Barklow were business visitors in Coquille Wednesday afternoon, later going to Myrtle Point, where Clarence had the dressing changed on his foot and returning by way of Hoffman's Bridge and Broadbent. Arago residents who have much business in Myrtle Point will certainly appreciate the direct route again when the bridge is repaired.

Miss Janice Lafferty, daughter of Fred Lafferty, is in the Myrtle Point hospital, receiving treatment for a severe case of poison oak.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hill left for their home in La Grande Thursday morning. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watkins Tuesday and Wednesday after visiting in Lakeport. Jean Watkins, their grand daughter, went with them. They will be joined in Portland by Mary Watkins, who has been visiting there. The girls plan to be gone about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Miller and daughters, Maxine and Colleen, of Portland, were the inspiration for a quilting party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nile Miller, on Thursday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Orvus Miller and daughters, Phyllis and Alice May, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hammack and Verle and Daisy May. A quilt was finished for Mrs. Wallace Miller by the ladies.

Orvus Miller had the misfortune to tear a ligament in his foot Wednesday while at work. He will be laid off for several days as the injury is very painful.

County School News from Mrs. Martha Mulkey's Office

Change as to State Text
The new adoption of state texts places Oregon History in the eighth grade instead of the sixth as was first planned. The history text entitled "Plays on the Old World Backgrounds of American History," has also been changed from seventh and eighth grade supplementary to the basal for sixth grade.

Hear Coos County Boys and Girls
On June 17 some time between 7:00 and 7:45 p. m., our 4-H club members will broadcast over KOAC. Anyone who can get KOAC at that time will be interested in listening in to the program of these young people at 4-H summer school at Corvallis. A large delegation from Coos county is in attendance.

Randolph School
The Randolph school board has placed in the budget money for repair of the school building and painting of the interior.

Remote
The Remote school building will be painted outside and kalsomined inside as well as thoroughly cleaned; provided the budget meets with the approval of the people on Monday, June 21, which is annual school meeting date.

BREWSTER VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Benham returned Saturday evening from a ten-day trip to Seattle and Tacoma and intermediate points.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Abernethy, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Alford, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Benham and Mrs. Anice Anderson, of Merrill, Oregon, were

SAFEGWAY

PRICES EFFECTIVE FRI. & SAT., JUNE 11th & 12th

Fresh Spring Fruits & Vegetables

Cantaloupes	Large Size	2 For	15c
Lettuce	Solid Heads	3 Heads	14c
New Peas	Full Pods	5 LBS.	25c
New Potatoes		10 LBS.	17c

AIRWAY COFFEE
Pure Brazilian Blend
1 LB. 18c
3 Lbs. 50c

BROOMS
Kitchen 4-Sew
Each 33c
Brown Beauty Best Quality
Each 79c

Mayonnaise
Aristocrat
For Summer Salads
Qt. Jar 37c

Canterbury Tea
Black for Iced Tea
1/2 LB. 25c
1 Lb. 47c

VANILLA	Westag 4 oz. Bottle	8c
POST TOASTIES	2 Pkgs.	15c
VINEGAR	C.H.B. Pint Bottle Ea.	10c
SWANSDOWN CAKE FLOUR	Lge. Pkg.	32c
LIFEBUOY SOAP	3 Bars	20c
FELS NAPHTHA SOAP CHIPS	Pkg.	23c
COCOA	Large 2 lb Can	15c
FLOUR	HARVEST BLOSSOM ALL PURPOSE	$1.59
	49-lb SACK

Picnic Suggestions

PORK & BEANS	Van Camps 11 oz. Can	5c
CHICKEN SANDWICH SPREAD	3 1/2 oz. can	10c
HALEY'S MEAT LOAF	7 oz. Can 3 Cans	25c
OLIVES	Highway Ripe No. 1 Can	12c
GINGER ALE	Canada Dry 12 oz. Bottle	10c
LIME RICKEY	Canada Dry 12 oz. Bottle	10c
BROWN DERBY BEER	3 Bottles	25c
SARDINES	Oval Cans 3 Cans	25c

FAMOUS YOLO BRAND Dill Pickles Large No. 2 1/2 Size Cans 2 CANS 25c

SWIFT'S PEARL Shortening 4 LB. CTN. 49c

PURE CANE GRANULATED SUGAR LIMIT CLOTH SACK 10 LBS. 53c

ALL-KRISP Crackers SODAS or GRAHAMS 2 Lb. Box 19c

Cheese LOCAL MADE LB. 19c

JELLO	All Flavors Package	5c	CANDY BARS	All Kinds 3 for	10c
MAXWELL HOUSE	COFFEE lb	29c	NUCOA	Best Foods 2 Lb. Pkg.	39c
SANKA	LB. Can	43c	RITZ	CRACKERS Lge. Pkg.	23c
KOOL	CIGARETTES Carton	$1.39	TAPIOCA	Minute Pkg.	12c
RALEIGH	CIGARETTES Carton	$1.19	OVALTINE	Small Size	32c
CAMAY	SOAP 3 Bars	19c	TOOTH PICKS	Reg. 10c size 2 for	15c
PEETS	GRANULATED SOAP Lg. Pkg.	32c	JELLS-RITE	For Preserving 8 oz. Bottle	15c
FLUFFIEST	MARSHMALLOWS Lb.	14c	TOMATOES	Lge. No. 2 1/2 can	10c
P. A. or VELVET	Can	10c	SALT	8 Pound Sack	19c
PENN-RAD	MOTOR OIL qt. can 19c 2 gal. can $1.39		WAX PAPER	125 ft. Roll	15c
			SCHILLINGS	WHOLE SPICES 3 Pkgs.	25c

STORE 469 PHONE 122 UNION STORES STORE 136 PHONE 81

dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Laird. Jack Grove is working for Ben Robinson for a time. Mrs. Albert Christensen went to Klamath Falls with Ray Peart and his mother Wednesday. She returned Friday evening. Mrs. Mae Harvey returned to Coquille Friday after spending the week visiting in the valley. Dinner guests at the Mayse home Wednesday evening were Miss Emma Lou Watson and Mrs. Mae Harvey. Mrs. Louis Laird suffered another bad spell of asthma last week and was confined to her bed Thursday and Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Lindon Jenkins and Oscar Johnson were all day guests at the Robinson home Sunday. The stunt party given by the young people's Sunday school class Saturday evening was well attended and enjoyed by all. Christina Christensen and Rex Dick were the very able leaders of the evening. Rex Dick, Charles Wilson, Betty Nickason, Virginia Wilson, Fern Nickason, and Burton Wilson enjoyed a trip over the hump to Reston and Ten-mile Sunday. Velma Krewson and Leeda Grove returned Saturday evening after spending the week with Velma's aunt, Mrs. Tom Krewson, and family at Sutherlin. Lila Mae Laird has been ill and unable to attend school for several days. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Laird, took her to Myrtle Point to see a doctor Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Minor Mead have moved back into their own home, after spending a month or so at the Durrell home. Edwin Crowley went to see his wife at the Coquille hospital Sunday. She is convalescing nicely from a recent operation. Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.