Hasslers Leave for Washington
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hassler left this morning for Woodland, Wash., where he has a contract to put on a special edition for the newspaper there, similar to the one just issued by the Sentinel.

Mr. Hassler came to this section in 1923, being first manager of the Gold Beach paper for the Macleay estate. He started a paper in Powers in 1927 and moved it to Coquille later, selling it five years ago to Miss Jerzyk. For the past year he has specialized in assisting the Coos Bay Harbor, the Reedsport Courier and the Sentinel in issuing special editions.

Many Forfeited Ball
Most of those arrested for drunkenness in Coquille the past week put up $5 ball each and failed to appear for trial. The blotter in the recorder's office shows Chester Summers, Fred C. Smith, Frank Biggs, arrested last Saturday Geo. Martin and Walter Smith on Monday, Sam Miller and Daniel Albert Giles on Tuesday. Walt Smith served out his fine of $5.

Robert Slagle, for discharging fire crackers at the rear of the Highway Cafe, Wednesday, was fined $5, and Robert Western posted $5 ball last evening on an intoxication charge for his appearance today.

Missionary Society Meeting
The final executive meeting for the year of the Pioneer Methodist Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. Georgia Richmond, president. The officers gave their final reports. Dainty refreshments were served to the following ladies: Mesdames Georgia Richmond, Birdie Skeels, Viola Newton, Belle Belloni, Zella Ireland, Zoe Fugelson, Dora Oerding, Hattie Leslie, Helen Peterson, Alma Minard, Thelma Dale, Marie Wilder and Londy Peart by the refreshment committee. Ora Belle Newton and La Velle Dale.

Elda Wimer to Be Married
Announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of Miss Elda Wimer, daughter of Mrs. W. H. Wimer, of this city, which will be solemnized on July 4 at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Darrow, in Marshfield. The groom-to-be is Lyle Harless, of Roseburg, who is a civil engineer. They will make their home in Roseburg. Miss Wimer was formerly employed as operator in the Roberts' Beauty Shop here, but has been in Portland for the past two years and a half.

W. M. Oderkirk Buried Here
Interment of the remains of W. M. Oderkirk, who died at Roseburg last Friday morning, took place in the Masonic cemetery here on Sunday. He had been ill but three days.

Vern Oderkirk, Mrs. W. H. Fortier and Mrs. Jos. Esser, of this city, were brother and sisters of the deceased. He is also survived by his widow and two children, Margaret Ann and Peyton, another brother, A. Ray Oderkirk, of North Bend, and a sister, Mrs. R. G. Whidden, of Alberta.

Kidder to Be Paroled
J. L. Kidder, who pleaded guilty in circuit court last week to writing rubber checks at Bandon, was sentenced last Friday by Judge Brand to two years in the pen. A stay of execution was ordered for 30 days at the end of which time sentence will be suspended and he will be released on probation for five years.

To Re-enter Electrical Business
E. G. Opperman, who returned to Coquille from California three weeks ago, says that he intends securing a state license as an electrician the first of July, and will again engage in that business here. He does not intend to carry electrical appliances but will confine his activities to electrical installation, wiring, etc., and will have an office in the Isler Sheet Metal Works storeroom on Front street.

Khife Hospital
Mrs. M. C. Miller, of Dora, who underwent a throat operation last week, is recovering nicely and will be able to leave the hospital soon.
Mrs. Esther Wilson and Mrs. Harmon, both of Coquille, were dismissed on Tuesday. Those scheduled to leave tomorrow are Miss Grace Murie, of Bandon, and Jimmy Newton, of Coquille.

Births at Coquille Hospital
An 8½ pound son, Richard Joseph, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Tony Giorgis, of the Leneve section, last Saturday.
A 3½ pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Trott, of Sixes, on Monday. Though tiny she is a husky miss and doing well.

While driving on the Oregon Coast highway two miles north of Coquille last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Paschal, of North Bend, suffered injuries, of which the seriousness has not yet been determined. Mr. Paschal yesterday was certain he had suffered no lasting hurts, but Mrs. Paschal, who was brought to her home here, is still confined in bed with back injuries, says the Coos Bay Harbor.
