

Black Panther to Meet the Jap Here Next Wednesday

apparently Japanese. There are times when he has thrown a tough opponent that he will rush to the edge of the ropes and attempt to explain to the paying customers just how he did it. And at such a time the staccato hissing which issues from his lips is truly marvelous to hear.

In a recent match Higami's opponent flying-mared him seven times, and each time the oriental bounced right back up to his feet, and scarcely a ripple of emotion disturbed his smooth countenance.

When he secures his deadly arm paralyzer, Tetsura's face lights up in pure delight—an expression which can't be mistaken in any nationality.

The Panther-Higami match is one in which anything may happen. It has infinite possibilities for bizarre endings. If the black jaguar wraps his huge legs around the Jap's midriff, the event is liable to be curtailed and the fans may find themselves going home early. However, the little brown man may have something to say about that, for he always seems to have a strange oriental trick or two tucked under his arm.

The Panther has enormously increased his popularity with Coquille fans by his sensational defeat of the despised Scotty McDougall ten days ago. His flying wristlock is fully as deadly as the Jap's. The Panther tossed the unfortunate Scotman fully ten feet into the air—that is, straight up into the air—to win the last match.

In the 45-minute semi windup match, Danny Russo from Little Italy, New York City, will mix it with Sailor Moran, hated ex-sailor. Russo, the Italian, is new to Coquille. He has one of the finest bodies ever seen on a human being, and he is very strong. Handsome, dark-haired and dark-skinned, he "takes" with the ladies wherever he goes. The rough and ready sailor intends to take the Italian boy apart, and is general muss up his features.

Marshal Carter, of Missouri, and Willie Mandell, brother of the famous Sammy Mandell, the welter-weight champ. Mandell is very rough and exceptionally fast with his fists.

The first bout begins promptly at 8:30. Ringside seats may be had before the match at Bill's Place, Coquille.

County Arrests Past Week

John Henry Dickelman was brought to jail here on Tuesday and is held awaiting action by the grand jury. He was bound over by Justice Bolt at Marshfield on the charge of rape. His bonds were set at $5000.

John Duguay was brought over on Wednesday from North Bend to serve a ten-day sentence on a vagrancy charge.

C. L. Ellsworth, arrested at Charleston on Wednesday, was taken to Portland yesterday to answer a charge of larceny by bailer in the Multnomah county jail.

Best Softball Game of Season

One of the best soft ball games ever played in Coquille was that Wednesday evening when Stevens Hardware won out from Jerry's Boarding house team, 6 to 5. At the end of the sixth the score stood at 4 to 4. In the tenth each scored a run and then in the last half of the eleventh Elmo Sanders socked one for the circuit and the game was over. Airtight fielding and splendid twirling both tended to make it the most spectacular game of the season.

This evening at 6:45 at Athletic Park, Walter Moore's team will tangle with the Smith Wood-Products team. Next Monday, June 28, the 20-30 club and the Niles Motor Co. teams meet and on Tuesday evening Stevens Hardware plays the Smith Wood.

These are the longest evenings of the summer and unless rain prevents the league can finish its schedule without interruption.

- Louise Blankenship vs. Jas. Blankenship.
- Myrtle Spear vs. Lee Spear.
- R. H. Hunt vs. Amanda Hunt.
- Laura Allen vs. Leonard Allen.

This is the Wettest June In a Third of a Century

Rainfall in this part of the Coquille valley varies but little from that at the mouth of the river and it may be accepted as a fact that this is the wettest June in Coquille for nearly a third of a century. No weather observation is maintained here, although Bob Stewart has talked for one for several years, but the following from yesterday's Western World may be considered as correct for the upper valley as it is at the lighthouse station:

This has been the wettest June in more than 30 years, according to the records kept at the Coquille River Light station where precipitation is recorded for the government by Oscar Langlois. With seven days more to go yesterday, this month has already recorded 4.95 inches, according to Mr. Langlois, which is more than in any month of June since 1906. During June of that year, local records show a precipitation of 5.88 inches. The most recorded in any one day was during the past weekend when 1.62 inches fell in 24 hours.

From the Willow creek power plant of the Hydro-Electric department came a report to the office of John H. Fasnacht, local utility manager for the city, that four inches of water fell there between 7:00 a. m. Saturday and 7:00 a. m. Sunday, which is said to be a record for all time in the area. The plant is at Denmark in Curry county. A rain gauge is maintained there and careful records are kept for the city. Willow creek was well over its banks for a matter of hours Sunday with more than a foot of water on the lowlands west of the highway.

At Port Orford considerably more than ten inches of rainfall was officially reported for the month of June on the 21st, and it has rained since then.

warrant retirement, Dr. C. A. Rietman, chairman of the budget committee, and J. P. Beyers supporting the $10,000 item on the grounds that the paying off of warrants and the consequent saving in interest to the district would get district No. 8 back to a cash basis more quickly than anything else that could be done.

Dr. J. R. Bunch explained that increasing costs of labor and material had resulted in a bid for the new gymnasium about $2,000 higher than the original architect's estimate and asked if the building of a gymnasium could not be postponed for a year. Clarence Osika, high school principal, told his understanding of the law, that two periods a week of physical education are necessary if the Coquille high school is to retain its standard A rating, entitling its graduates to enter higher institutions of learning without an examination.

R. A. Jeub stated that he was connected with the largest taxpayer in the district—the Smith Wood-Products, Inc., — and that he favored building the gym at once.

On Mr. Sanford's motion to eliminate the $10,000 item the oral vote gave indication that it was close but the show of hands were nine for the notion and 22 against.

Before proceeding to final approval of the budget the meeting voted authority to the board to transfer, if necessary, $2500 of the above mentioned $10,000 to the $500 in the emergency fund item, for use in paying gym costs.

The budget was formally adopted with only one dissenting vote and the meeting adjourned at ten o'clock.

ent to ask that a fire hydrant be located on Carter avenue, near Frank McCreary's home. The matter was referred to the city engineer and fire chief for a report at the July 6 meeting of the council.

The application of the Coquille Gas & Power Co. to reserve a parking space in front of its office in the Richmond-Barker building was laid over for further investigation, several of the council expressing the opinion that such a precedent would soon result in no parking space being available on any of the business streets.

Mrs. Birdie Skeels was notified to have the sidewalk in front of Eaton's feed store repaired, and attention of the county court was called to the condition of the sidewalk on the south side of the court house block.

Recorder Leslie reported to the council the application of D. D. Dale for payment of medical services required which resulted from his fall where the sidewalk had been torn out when the lot, corner of First and Elliott, was being filled.

At the request of the police the city attorney was asked to codify the city's penalty ordinances so that they might have copies of all city laws for violation of which a penalty is prescribed.

C. C. C. BOYS BUILD MODEL MINIATURE CARS

Sentinel's Progress Number Mailed With This Issue

contains more individual and group views of the cities and communities of Coos county than ever before shown in a similar publication. They tell a story of prosperity and growth, as well as of the resources and industries of this section as no other means is capable of.

Unlike similar publications presented in Coos county, this Number was produced entirely by the mechanical department of the Coquille Valley Sentinel under the direction of Frank Greenough, Mrs. Marian Grimes and Clarence Shoemaker.

The Progress Number was under the personal supervision of W. E. Hassler, who has had considerable experience in similar work for the past 15 years. Many of the pictures were also taken by Mr. Hassler.

The Sentinel has provided a limited number of copies of the Number for office and newsstand sales, at 25 cents each, wrapped ready for mailing, if desired. Postage is six cents per single copy to any address in the United States. Mail orders to the Sentinel will be given prompt attention.
