Mrs. Everett Strain entertained with a lovely little party at her home on Second street last Thursday evening. This was in the form of an eight o'clock dessert bridge. Mrs. Strain is leaving Coquille to make her home in Langlois. The evening was spent in playing contract bridge. Mrs. Chas. Haglund winning high score and Mrs. Wm. Barrow, low. The following ladies enjoyed this occasion: Mesdames D. G. McNelly, Elbert Schroeder, Geo. McClellan, Wm. Barrow, Chas. Haglund, Verrill McCurdy, Harold Gould and the hostess.

Mrs. A. B. Collier entertained her Monday night club at her home on the Marshfield highway for seven o'clock dessert bridge this week. The evening was spent in playing contract. Mrs. J. L. Aasen winning high score, Mrs. E. M. Kay, second, and M. S. T. B. Currie, the travelling prize. The rooms looked most attractive with bouquets of zinnias and sweet peas. The following ladies were present: Mesdames E. M. Kay, H. S. Norton, Frank Thrift, T. B. Currie, F. C. McNelly, J. L. Aasen, Geo. Johnson and the hostess.

Mrs. Hal Pierce entertained with a lovely tea at her home on Knowlton Heights last Friday afternoon from two-thirty to six-thirty o'clock for her daughter, Elizabeth, the recent bride at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Aasen, of Ukiah, Calif. The rooms were tastefully decorated with large bouquets of mixed flowers. The beautifully appointed tea table was presided over by Mesdames J. A. Lamb, Effie Miller, H. A. Young and J. E. Paulson. Assisting about the room were Mrs. Everett Strain, sister of the bride, and the following young ladies, members of the "Pirates," a club that Elizabeth has belonged to for years: Misses Carol Young, Betty Glaisyer, Beryl Unsoeld, Sara Margaret Nye, Margaret Paulson, Anne Barton and Audrey Aasen. A large group of friends attended and extended their good wishes to the happy couple.

Last week the "Pirates" entertained with two lovely parties for the recent bride, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Pierce. The first was held at the "club house" in the Paulson home on South Coulter street last Tuesday evening and the other was held last Wednesday evening at the beach cottage of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Young at Bandon. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

The Monday night club met at the lovely beach cottage of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lamb for seven o'clock dinner this week. Several members stayed over night and enjoyed the sea breezes, etc. After a delicious dinner, contract bridge was enjoyed. Mrs. Pauline Pettit winning high score as well as the travelling prize. The following members were present: Mesdames Hal Pierce, H. A. Young, Muri Pettit, Ed Lorenz, Edna Hartson, J. L. Smith, Bert Folsom, Effie Miller, a guest, Mrs. Ula Leach, and the hostess.

The L. L. Duplicate club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Boober on No. Henry street last Friday evening for 7:15 o'clock dinner. After dinner, duplicate bridge was played, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Norton winning high score. The following members and guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. U. E. McClary, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McCune and the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Slater were hosts to Mrs. Slater's contract club members and husbands at their new home on South Beach street last Friday evening. This was also sort of a housewarming; the club members presenting Mrs. Slater with two lovely lamps. Contract bridge was played throughout the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ruble won high score for the evening and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simpson, low. The following members and friends were present: Messrs. and Mesdames Kenneth Graham, Harry Godard, Leland Peart, Lee Petersen, Paul Simpson, J. D. Gillespie, Julius Ruble and R. T. Slater. The club will meet with Mrs. Gillespie for the next meeting.

PIONEER METHODIST

"Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father which is in Heaven." Matthew 5: 43-44.
