SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. Fred Hudson entertained with a lovely party at her home on Coulter street last Thursday afternoon for her niece, Miss Evelyn Soes. The rooms looked most attractive with bouquets of sweet peas and gladiolus. The guests had a most enjoyable afternoon sewing, chatting, etc., after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the following ladies: Mesdames John Paulson, Julius Ruble, Carl Rietman, Harold Gould, Clarence Osika, Pearl Ellingsen, Fred Kunz, Lee Petersen, J. D. Gillespie, Hoxie, Wm. Barrow, Chas. Haglund, Rosabel Brown, Eric Tucker, Guy Mauney, of North Bend, Miss Grace Ellingsen and the guest of honor.

Mrs. Harold Gould entertained with a little party for her son, Kenneth, last Friday afternoon from three to five o'clock. The occasion was his sixth birthday. Games were enjoyed by the children, after which dainty refreshments were served. The following children were present: George Johnson, Donald Minard, Gloria and Norma Thorpe, Jane Gould, Perry Roper, of Myrtle Point, and the guest of honor.

The W. C. T. U. will hold their monthly meeting at the Richmond cottage at Bandon beach Friday, Aug. 13. The ladies will meet at 8 o'clock and each is requested to bring a covered dish, scissors and thimble and prepare for a busy day.

The business meeting of the Pioneer missionary society was held in the church parlors Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Jas. Richmond, president, in the chair. The meeting was opened with singing, followed by the scripture, read by Mrs. Esta Ellis. The president then discussed the topic, "Fellow Laborers," from the book, "The Radiant Heart." Reports from the different committees were heard. The society plans to put on the six-thirty o'clock dinner for the Rebekahs at their convention August 16. The silver tea will be held in the church parlors Thursday, Aug. 19.

After the business meeting refreshments were served by the following committee: Mesdames Lundy Peart, Clyde Minard, D. D. Dale, Frank Leslie and Jas. Richmond, to the following ladies: Mesdames Ross Woodcock, Ray Hall, Wm. Ieland, R. B. Rogers, Esta Ellis, B. C. Minard, Henry Belloni, Miranda Way, Harriet Gould, R. E. Boober, Orville Newton, Ernest Purvance, Lloyd Oddy, Jack Hultin, Louis Fugelson, Leland Peart, E. M. Wilson and Miss Maud Low.

Queen Contest Gets Under Way

A. McDuffee, who is managing the Queen of Coos contest for the Coos County Fair association, has just completed a trip over the county, checking the entries and voting. He states:

Miss Florence Sargent, of Bandon, leads the Bandon entries as well as the county in votes secured to date. Miss Donna Rowley and Miss Lee Curran, both of Marshfield, come next, with Miss Ellen Shrocket, of Empire, and Lois Wyland, of Powers, leading their community and are a close second to the leaders. The Coquille entries are led in votes by Miss Betty Swigart. North Bend and Myrtle Point are still in the organizing state.

The contest opened last Saturday noon, July 31st, and the entries close Saturday noon, August 7, the contest closing September 14.
