Astoria Regatta, Sept. 1-5

The annual Astoria Regatta, five days this year instead of four as in the past, and which is one of the northwest's leading water festivals, will be held Sept. 1-5.

Sailboat races, outboard competition and other water sports on Youngs bay and the broad Columbia will be the principal entertainment features, but there will be many other water sports and land events as well.

Coquille should see that Bob Stewart and Brick Leslie enter the sailboat competition.

Climaxing the week-end on Sunday, September 5, will be the second annual Salmon Derby. Revived as a sport last year, trolling for the giant, fighting Royal Chinook Salmon with hook and line from the deck of a tossing fishing boat has fascinated many anglers.

Many say there is no fishing thrill to equal the battle with a big Chinook weighing from 25 pounds on up. Many 40 and 50 pounders are taken. The derby, with prizes for the biggest salmon taken, will be open to all entries.
