Rebekah District Convention

Held Here Monday

This was followed by three lovely solos sung so beautifully by Miss Marvel Skeels, accompanied by Miss Audrey Aasen: "Because," "The Fisher's Widow" and "Kerry Dance."

At the evening session which started at 8:00 p. m., the officers of Mamie Rebekah Lodge were resplendent in evening dresses, which added greatly to the attractiveness of the occasion. About 150 attended the evening session. While the degree team was getting ready a splendid program was enjoyed. Kenneth Lawrence, Jr., played two lovely accordion solos in a most effective manner. These were followed by two humorous readings by Mrs. R. E. Boober. Leonard Ensel then entertained with two delightful violin solos: "Hejre Kati" and "Sweet Mystery of Life," accompanied by his sister, Geraldine Ensel.

The initiatory work was then put on by Mamie Lodge. Two were initiated as members of Mamie Lodge and three of Bandon. The ladies looked beautiful in their new dresses of pink and green and did their work in a very effective manner.

Mrs. May Jonas gave a very splendid talk to the Rebekahs on ideals and purposes. Western Star Rebekah Lodge, Marshfield, won the cup for the attendance; also for the unwritten work. The next convention is to be held in Marshfield. The following officers were elected and appointed: chairman, Helen McQuiston, Marshfield; vice chairman, Ann Hicking, Bandon; secretary, Gertrude Niles, Marshfield; treasurer, Irene McDonald, Marshfield; warden, Harriet Schaer, Coquille; conductress, Iva Hufford, Myrtle Point; musician, Evelyn Oerding, North Bend; L. S. C., Ella Moore, North Bend; chaplain, Mary Trumbull, Bandon; R. S. V. C., Elizabeth Helmskin, Bandon; L. S. V. C., Blanche Felsner, Myrtle Point; I. G., Ada Goodman, Marshfield; O.

G., Cora Leggett, Powers.

After the evening session, refreshments were served in the dining room. Community singing was enjoyed, led by Mrs. Ruth Beyers.

Masons, Stars at Gold Beach

Several Masons and their families motored down to Gold Beach last Saturday for the week-end. Chadwick Lodge A. F. & A. M. put on the degree work for the Gold Beach Lodge. While the Masons were at lodge, the ladies had a real "hen party" at one of the larger cottages; being entertained royally at "hearts," followed by a large assortment of eats. Sunday several went fishing and had some good salmon to show for their trip. A grand time was had by all. The following folks enjoyed this outing: Messrs. and Mesdames W. E. Bosserman, A. N. Gould, Clarence Osika, Julius Ruble, R. E. Boober, Rudolph Johnson and children, Guy Kelley and son, E. D. McCune, T. S. Stevens, Stanley Ayers, John Jayes, Ray Jeub and son, C. A. Rietman, Muri Pettit, K. P. Lawrence and sons, Wm. Ulett, Ralph Taaylor and Mr. George Oerding.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Fined in Recorder's Court

Louis Norris Williams, arrested last Thursday night by police here when found in possession of sugar bowls and small stuff belonging in Mrs. Grace Gilkey's restaurant, forfeited the $10 cash bail he had posted when his case was called in recorder's court Friday.

All other fines by the recorder were for traffic violations—A. C. Beeson, double parking, only one headlight and no tail light, on August 16th, $4; Frank J. Burke, of Marshfield, $2 for overtime parking; Wanda Lee Hickam, double parking and no driver's license, $3; Gus Gailas, double parking, $2.
