Miss Margaret Roach, office manager for the Southwestern Motors, left last Saturday for Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, to spend her two weeks' vacation at home. Mrs. Effie Miller is assisting in the office during her absence.

Leaving early this week for the Pendleton Roundup were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harry and his mother, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. Belmont Ireland.

Mrs. S. F. Stevens and baby returned last week from a two months' trip to the midwest, during which she visited her father at Appleton, Wis., and other points in that state and Michigan. She also made short stops in Chicago, Denver and Salt Lake City on the way home.

Dr. C. G. Stem, chiropractic physician, foot correctionist, electric therapist, 292 Moulton St., phone 86J.

Graveside services were conducted last Saturday at the new I. O. O. F. cemetery, by Rev. W. R. Wilder, for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy C. Mann, of this city, who lived but a few hours after birth last Friday. He had been named Jerry Emmerson Mann. Funeral arrangements were in charge of the Gano Funeral Home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bosserman and Mrs. Geo. W. Bryant left Wednesday evening for the happy hunting ground on the Malheur south of John Day. Mr. Bryant expects to meet them there a little later. They will be joined there also by Dr. Tourtelotte and Ted Tourtelotte, uncles of Mr. Gould, from California.

Rev. and Mrs. W. Raymond Wilder, who returned to Coquille last week from a five weeks' eastern trip, three of the weeks being spent in New York state, enjoyed the trip greatly. They made it in their car, visited 15 states, went up into Canada, encountered a storm in the dust bowl and were glad to get back to Coos county with its summer resort weather.

Geo. W. Taylor, Jr., and S. V. Epperson left yesterday for the country north of Burns where they go every year; F. C. Hudson and J. E. Paulson expect to go to eastern Oregon tomorrow; Elbert Schroeder and his father, H. A. Schroeder, and E. C. Barker, of Myrtle Point, intend leaving tomorrow, as do Jack Leach, Frank Dungey and Harry Perrott.

Bonney Smith, Albert James Diel and Anna Diel were brought to the county jail Tuesday to serve ten days of the year's imprisonment sentence given them by Justice Maybee. They are to be paroled next week. They were caught Monday attempting to steal gas and had a lot of other stuff in their car, probably picked up at different points along the coast, the arresting officer believed.

Miss Frances Oddy, daughter of County Clerk and Mrs. L. W. Oddy, received a civil service appointment as secretary to the postmaster at Eugene, and entered upon her new duties on September 13. She obtained the position as the result of a civil service examination for senior stenographers which she took a year ago last July, receiving the highest rating of any one within that district. She has been previously employed as secretary to the Extension specialists at the Oregon State College.

Two Nice Homes Sold

Geo. T. Jenkins, Coos county agent, last Saturday completed a deal with E. D. Webb for the purchase of the latter's home at the corner of Second and Collier streets, across from the Washington school building.

Mr. Jenkins is forced to give up the house where he has lived, the former Chas. Oerding place on Division street, because W. P. Laws wants to occupy it himself. Mr. Jenkins is anxious to move into his new home as quickly as the Webb family can move.

Mr. Webb does not expect to move to his recently acquired cranberry bog before the first of the year, and to secure himself a home, on Monday purchased of D. W. Siver the former E. D. Graham brick house on Hall street, between the Roxy Theatre and the K. P. garage building. Mr. Siver has not announced where he will move but expects to do it next week.

B. P. W. to Have Reception

Members of the Business and Professional Women's club are sponsoring a reception to be held Monday evening at eight o'clock in the I. O. O. F. hall. The reception will honor as guests, business women of Coquille. This social affair has become an annual custom held in the early fall and serves not only as a welcome to the new teachers of Coquille, but also as a party honoring all the professional and business women of the town. The program committee of the club will be in charge of this year's reception with Ruth Beyers, chairman, and Bertha Smith, Viola Newton, Harriet Osika, and Geneva Agostino acting as hostesses for the evening.

Frances True to Wed

Miss Frances True, who has been in the sales department of the Mt. States Power Co. here for the past six months, resigned her position on Tuesday. She is to be married next Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. True, at their home in Broadbent, to Robert Littrell, of Marshfield. She has been succeeded in the office here by Miss Dorothy Chapman, who comes from the power company office in Marshfield.

The city's budget committee met with the city council Monday evening to prepare an estimate of next year's municipal expenses. No information has yet been released as to what those estimates are.
