SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. Julius Ruble entertained a group of friends with a one o'clock dessert luncheon, at her home on Third street Wednesday. The individual tables looked lovely with bouquets of mixed flowers interspersed with tapers in the pastel shades. The ladies spent the afternoon sewing, knitting and chatting.

Last Thursday night the members of the Pioneer Methodist church held a six-thirty o'clock dinner in the banquet hall. This was followed by a splendid program consisting of accordion solos by Kennett Lawrence, Jr., violin duets by La Velle Dale and Dorothy Hester, accompanied by Margaret Purvance, and request solos by W. R. Wilder, accompanied by Miss Purvance. Reports were then given by the various organizations of the church preparatory to the annual church conference, which is in Spokane, Wash., this week.

The Junior Woman's club met in Miss May's shop Monday evening with the president, Mrs. Dorothy Fish, in the chair. After a short business meeting, a social time was enjoyed, followed by refreshments served by Mrs. Henry McCue, Mrs. D. G. McEniry and Mrs. Elbert Schroeder, to the following old members: Mesdames A. L. Beck, George McClellan, R. E. Harbison and Misses Irene and Blanche Sandon and Vesta Miley. New members were Mesdames Ver-rill McCurdy, Fred Jensen, Clarence Barton, Eric Tucker, Wm. Barrow and Grand. The next meeting of the club will be at the Yellow Lantern, October 11.

The Young Matrons club met at the home of Mrs. Velda West in the Drane Apts. last Wednesday afternoon. The ladies had a most enjoyable time sewing and chatting. Mrs. Inez Sanders won the prize for the afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served later by the hostess to the following folks: Mrs. Lucille Detwiler, Mrs. Melba Miller and Jackie Lee, Mrs. Marjorie Clouse, Jimmie and Katherine, Mrs. Mary Ann Embree and Leon, Mrs. Marion Blalock and Ferman Lee, Mrs. Dorothy Burr and Bobby, Mrs. Inez Sanders, Mrs. Margaret Dornath and Louise and Louise West. The club will meet next with Mrs. Blalock on the Marshfield highway.

Club Notes and Other

Social Activities

Mrs. K. P. Lawrence entertained her neighborhood club for one o'clock dessert luncheon Wednesday. The ladies spent the afternoon playing contract bridge. Mrs. Fred Hudson was the lucky winner of the high score prize. The ladies enjoying this affair were Mesdames George Johnson, C. V. Carmichael, L. A. Greene, Fred Jensen, Stanley Ayers, Fred Hudson, M. E. Hardingham and the hostess.

The "Friendly Dozen" met at the home of Mrs. Jack Hultin Wednesday evening. Mixed flowers in large bouquets made the rooms look most attractive. The evening was spent in sewing, knitting and chatting, after which the hostess served delicious refreshments to the following members and guests: Mesdames Aaron Wilson, H. W. Kelley, Sam Arnold, Louis Fugelson, Fred Wheaton, Earl Carlisle, Lusia Ireland and Mrs. John Cox, of Chicago.

The Episcopal Guild ladies met in the Parish House Wednesday afternoon for their regular meeting. After a short business session, a social time was enjoyed, followed by light refreshments served by Mrs. Ed Lorenz and Mrs. George Lorenz. The following ladies were present: Mesdames C. J. Fuhrman, Jas. Watson, V. H. Marshall, J. D. Gilliam, J. L. Beck and the hostesses.

The "Justamere club" motored to Bandon Tuesday for an all day outing at the J. A. Lamb cottage. A grand time was enjoyed by the members with a delicious luncheon served at noon by the hostess, Mrs. Lamb. Those present to enjoy this occasion were: Mesdames W. S. Sickels, L. H. Hazard, R. A. Wernich, C. J. Fuhrman, F. L. Greenough, Hal Pierce, H. A. Young, Bert Folsom, J. L. Smith and the hostess.

The losers in the "Fenescam club" entertained the winners at a one o'clock luncheon held at the "Rosebud Cafe" Wednesday. After luncheon the ladies went to the home of Mrs. D. E. Rackleff where a social time was spent in games, sewing and chatting. Mrs. Bert Folsom was the lucky winner in the "Beano" game. The winners for the series were Mesdames R. E. Boober, Bert Folsom, M. R. Thomas and Hal Pierce. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Boober.

The "Zodiac club" met at the home of Mrs. Gladys Wheeler last Friday for one o'clock luncheon. The party was in honor of Mrs. Ora Tennant, who received a lovely lamp in honor of her birthday. After a delicious luncheon, there was a short business meeting, followed by a social time. Mrs. Tennant was also the lucky winner of the prize for the afternoon. Mrs. Opal Buckles drew the lucky number for next time. Those present were: Mesdames Ethel Fuller, of Marshfield; Blanche Mast, of Allegany; Ora Tennant, Opal Buckles, Carla Savage, and the hostess. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Buckles in honor of Mrs. Savage.

The "Tuesday Night contract club" met at the home of Mrs. Julius Ruble on Third street Tuesday evening for bridge. Mrs. D. E. Rackleff held high score. Mrs. O. T. Gant received the travelling prize and Mrs. D. B. Estes received consolation. Bouquets of mixed flowers formed a pretty setting for the refreshments which were served late in the evening by the hostess to the following ladies: Mesdames T. S. Stevens, Walter Litzberger, O. T. Gant, D. B. Estes, J. E. Axtell, Paul Trojel and D. E. Rackleff.

The N. O. M. A. club met at the home of Mrs. Ruth Dex Tuesday evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Yvonne Carl and Mrs. Eleanor Miller. The members spent a most enjoyable evening sewing, knitting and chatting. They are planning a potluck supper at the home of Mrs. Frances Detlefsen in two weeks. Those present were: Mesdames LaVerne Ellingsen, Frances Detlefsen, Alice Morris, Ruth Clayton, Ferry DeJarnett, Olive Kuehn, Yvonne Carl, Eleanor Miller, Lucille Ellison, Bernice Ireland and Lorraine Perrott.

The J. G. W. club met at the home of Mrs. O. C. Sanford last Friday for one o'clock luncheon with Mrs. Geo. Lorenz, Mrs. Birdie Skeels and Mrs. Sanford as hostesses. After a delicious luncheon, the ladies had a very enjoyable time sewing, knitting and chatting. Those enjoying this delightful affair were: Mesdames C. J. Fuhrman, J. A. Lamb, Bert Folsom, J. L. Smith, J. E. Norton, Lloyd Ross, Ed Lorenz, Mrs. Marvin Lyons and Mrs. J. S. Lyons, of Marshfield; Mrs. O. H. Clemmer, of Oakland, Calif., and Mrs. Sam Norton, of Redding, Calif. The club will meet with Mrs. Chas. Endicott in Marshfield October 22nd.
